PIONEER OF 1852 DIES AT HILLSBORO HOME

George Jerome Palmateer Passed Away Last Thursday Evening WAS OLD TIME RIVER ENGINEER

Followed the Columbia, Snake and Willamette for Nineteen Years

George Jerome Palmateer died at the family home on Washington Street, Hillsboro, Thursday evening, March 4, 1915, after a lingering illness covering several weeks.

For some years he was the Hillsboro district manager for the Pacific States Telephone Co. The pall bearers were E. I. Kuratli, Cal Jack Jr., C. M. Merrill, F. C. Francis, N. P. Oakerman (Portland,) and Mann Collins, Ore.

During his last illness he met pain with fortitude, and, realizing that death was near, was ready to meet the future with calmness characteristic of the pioneer.

The funeral was held Sunday at two o'clock, at the residence, the obsequies being under the auspices of the Montezuma Lodge I. O. O. F. Interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Members of the order were here from all parts of Washington County, and the rites were attended by a large concourse of people.

Greer's for all kinds of bulk garden seeds.

Sunday was the first, real, springlike day, and hundreds were out in the sunshine.

Peter Jossy, of near Helvetia, was in town Saturday.

GAME WARDEN SAYS LAW IS SUFFICIENT

Quotes Opinion of Attorney General Sustaining Deer Law EXPLODES THEORY OF "NO LAW"

Justice of the Peace Wells, of Eugene, a few days ago, directed a jury to return a "not guilty" verdict wherein one John Hawk was charged with having the carcass of a deer in his possession during the closed season, the court holding there was no law covering the case.

Section 2, paragraph (c), provides: "Closed season is the time during which it is prohibited by law within the State of Oregon to hunt, pursue, take, kill, injure, destroy or to have in possession any game animal, fur-bearing animal, game bird or game fish, or any part thereof."

Section 35, paragraph (a), of the same act, provides: "Possession of game animals or birds, or any portion thereof, during the closed season, shall be prima facie evidence that the same have been unlawfully taken, unless each quarter of any deer and the carcass of any other game animal or game bird shall have been tagged by a game warden, etc."

Section 62, paragraph (b), of Chapter 232, provides: "Unless otherwise specifically provided, any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $500 and costs of such suit or action, or by imprisonment in the county wherein such unlawful act was committed for not less than 30 days or more than 90 days or more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment."
