

SUGAR BEET GROWTH TO BE ENCOURAGED

This County in 1897 Gave Best Analysis of Any in Valley

SEED WILL BE FURNISHED BY CLUB

Mr. Colt, of Oreoca, Will Send to the Commercial Club at Once

Washington County residents in the farm districts will have an opportunity to try out the sugar beet proposition this year. Mr. Colt, of Oreoca, was in the city Monday morning, and made arrangements to send the Commercial Club a quantity of seed that farmers may sow some small plots this year for analytical purposes. In 1897 the proposition was tried here and the analysis showed that Washington County's product showed the highest of any valley county.

The sugar beet industry is a big one if rightly established. The beet has a big per cent of saccharine and this is productive of a big milk flow, and is, as well, a big beef producer. Sheep also thrive on the beet pulp.

The soil here is well adapted for sugar beet growth and an immense yield would be the result—especially on the lowlands.

With a balanced ration sugar beets could be fed dairy cows and the milk accepted without reserve.

Mr. Colt says he hopes that many will sow small plots this year and give it a good tryout, as he believes the possibilities will be great. Anyone wishing a quantity of seed should apply to Grover Combs, or any member of the Commercial Club.

ORA COOK

Ora Cook, a well known citizen of north of Cornelius, died at his home, Saturday evening, March 20. Mr. Cook was born at Grand Rapids, Michigan, Sept. 29, 1862, and came to Oregon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Cook, when a young man. He was married to Miss Rose Schofield, in 1884, the wife dying in 1898. He was again married in 1903, his wife being Mrs. Della McLin. Besides his widow he leaves three children by his first marriage—Claude and Earl Cook, Cornelius, and Mrs. Ivy Clark, of Forest Grove. Services were held at the home, Monday, and interment was in the Cornelius cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook were in Hillsboro a few days ago. Mr. Cook's demise was caused by a carbuncle on his chin, and when Dr. Bailey was called he was fearful that death might ensue. The circulation of blood was then so congested that the patient was delirious.

Cook was a substantial citizen, and had many friends in his vicinity. He was active, and took a great interest in all public affairs. As a young man he was devotee of the National game of baseball, and even in his last years frequently went to the field to see baseball games. Many times when the game was at its height he umpired, and was noted for his fairness and understanding of the sport.

His many friends in Washington County deplore his untimely death, and tender the family their sincere condolence.

Go to Gotham for high grade harness. Just received a big shipment of sweat pads, deer hair, 75c; goat hair, 55c. These sell higher elsewhere. We also have a high grade collar, $5 regular, including 21 inch. Robes and blankets, 10 per cent. off the next 60 days. All $1 whips, large stock, going at 75 cents.

Richard Edward Squires, aged 80 years, died at Cornelius, March 18, 1915, after an illness of a year or more. The dead man had resided in Cornelius for many years. He leaves a widow and the following children: Wm. E. Squires, of Beaverton; Mrs. Belle Falkenberg, of near Holbrook; Mrs. Addie and Mrs. Frances Marsh, Isaac and Alonzo Squires, of Cornelius.

Will trade 5-room house and two full lots in Hillsboro, for teams, harness and wagons and some cash. Inquire of Geo. Groff, Seventh and Railroad.

J. H. Kennedy, of the Banks country, was down to the city Friday.

Dr. Lowe will be in Forest Grove, April 2.

ULRICH HERZIG PLEA OF GUILTY

Bring your eggs to Greer's. Chas. Matthea, of Laurel, was in town Friday.

Chickens grit, shell bone and chick food at Greer's.

Sam B. Lawrence, of Hillsdale, was in town Saturday, on business at the court house.

Martin Reiling, of the Verboort section, was in the county seat Monday.

Joseph Ingram and Geo. Morrison, of Farmington, were in the city Saturday.

C. A. Miller, of the Arcade district, was a county seat caller Saturday.

How about that new Eastman kodak you have been promising yourself? Get it now at The Pharmacy. 1-2

Thos. Hyland, one of the pioneers of the Beaverton section, was up to the county seat Saturday.

B. Luck, of near North Plains, and John Seifert, of Phillips, were in the city the last of the week.

We can help you in the selection of a Kodak or Brownie. We do printing and developing. —The Pharmacy. 1-2

The condensers people expect to move into the new building at Hillsboro next Monday. They will then have the best equipped condensed milk plant in Oregon.

Money to loan—on farm security. I represent three large fire insurance companies. Give me a call.—E. I. Kuratli.

The foundation has been laid for the big Buchanan & Co. warehouse at the foot of Second Street and carpenters will soon have the frame erected.

For sale: Dozen hives bees, some patent hives. Good workers. Chas. Hickethier, Cedar Mill, address Portland, R. 2. 1

C. W. James, of near Varley, was in town Monday. C. W. has been having a little siege of rheumatism this winter—but says the Spring weather is bringing him along nicely.

Oswald Olson, of Cornelius, sang at the Congregational Church, Sunday morning, and at the Christian Church, in the afternoon. Mr. Olson gave his hearers a rare treat. His voice was in fine shape, and that he is destined for Grand Opera work goes without saying.

Saturday afternoon the jail had been reduced to the captivity of but one man, young Irwin, of Forest Grove, who was arrested for being a bad check dispenser. This is the lowest guest-roll the jail has had for many moons.

Neglect of children's eyes entails a bitter heritage through life. Many a child is unjustly termed dull and lazy and accused of defective intellect when defective vision is the sole cause of trouble. Moral: Take that child to Dr. Lowe.

Peter Wessel, with one of the first field surveying crews on the Tillamook line, was drowned at Vancouver, B. C., last week, and friends of the dead man were notified at Forest Grove and Hillsboro. Wessel was a reliable man, and was with a surveying corps over in the Dominion. He was with Engineer Abery when here years ago and had many friends all along the line.

ULRICH HERZIG PLEA OF GUILTY

After Jury is Selected Beaverton Man Changes his Plea

WILL BE SENTENCED TOMORROW

Sequel of Tragedy at the Herzig Home When Joe Shalberger was Killed

With witnesses summoned and the State ready to swear a jury in the case of the State of Oregon versus Ulrich Herzig, charged with killing Joe Shalberger, the defendant, after consultation with his attorneys and the district attorney, changed his plea of not guilty to that of guilty of manslaughter, and the trial ended.

Herzig shot Joe Shalberger on a Sunday evening in January, at the Herzig home. The dead man, his brother, Teddy, and his father were at Herzig's place. All were having a friendly time, and the boys had some cider and schnapps. There was some war discussion, but no violent quarreling was the result. Late in the evening Herzig took down a shotgun and loaded it, apparently with the idea, at least he says so, to "bluff" the boys and make them go home. In the struggle that followed the gun was discharged and Joe Shalberger was killed.

Herzig always claimed that he was simply trying to scare the boys into leaving the place as they were becoming too noisy. Teddy Shalberger, the brother, stated after the killing that he did not believe that Herzig contemplated killing the brother.

Herzig will be sentenced to-morrow or Monday. He was allowed to leave the court room under his old bond, which he readily gave after the killing. He will be sentenced from 1 to 15 years.

Herzig has always been a law abiding citizen, and had a host of friends who were ready to swear to his previous good reputation. He is a Swiss, and carried with him certificates of good character from every place where he had enjoyed employment.

JURY DISAGREED ON LYDA CASE

Out all Night and Until Eleven O'Clock Saturday Morning

CASE WILL BE TRIED ONCE MORE

District Attorney Tells the Court Will Proceed to Trial

It was a weary jury that was discharged by Judge Campbell, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, after practically 24 hours of deliberation in the case of State versus Wm. Lyda, charged with a statutory offense. The case had occupied Wednesday, Thursday and Friday until the noon hour, when the court finished the instructions. That which appeared to stick the jury in its arriving at a conclusion was just how far parental authority would enter the realms of hypothetical force, and they came into court at 10 o'clock Friday evening, asking for additional instructions. The court again reviewed this and the twelve men retired. They deliberated all night, and it appearing that they could not agree, they were given their discharge by Judge Campbell.

It is whispered around the streets that the verdict stood 7 to 5 for acquittal.

District Attorney Tongue apprised the court that the state would again try the case, and Attorney Bagley & Hare, for the defense, asked that the date of trial be set. Judge Campbell stated that he would not set the case at this time, because he was satisfied he could not get a trial jury out of the regular panel. He will set the trial later on, and will probably select a date in the not distant future.

Sydney Brugger, who at the age of 15 years killed J. F. Boothe, in Hillsboro, has had his freedom from the state penitentiary several months. He was turned loose upon the recommendation of the pardon board. Brugger was a model prisoner. He is not expected to live very long, it being supposed that he has tuberculosis. It will be remembered that he killed Boothe for his pocket money, but his nerve left him after he fired the shot, and fled, being caught the next morning.

W. H. Brunson, of above Bacon, where he has a homestead on which he will make proof this Fall, was in town Monday, enroute for Laurel, where he is at present working. W. H. knows what it is to raise a family in the hills and hold down a homestead in these days.

John Dennis writes from San Francisco saying that the Oregon building is receiving more than its share of attention by the Fair visitors. The entrances to the Fair up to last Sunday have broken all previous Exposition records, totalling over two million at the close of the 30th day.

Henry Helmond, of beyond Blooming, was in Saturday, accompanied by Daniel Richter, formerly of Newberg, and who is a recent purchaser of the Herman Herzert place.

Harold Halvorsen and wife, of near Farmington, were in town Saturday.

Wm. Fugoy, of Phillips, was a city visitor the last of the week.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1069; calves, 10; hogs, 2071; sheep, 1419.

In the cattle division beginning of this week the offerings were mostly of the fat light weight class and consequently the offerings were eagerly picked up by the various buyers. The market is considered steady in all lines. Best steers are bringing 7 75; cows 6 20.

There is a scarcity of hogs coming to market and as a result the prices took a sudden jump of 35c Monday and has remained at that price since. Prime light weights commanding 7 60.

Like the swine market sheep also advanced with a sensational jump. Yearlings advanced from 7 50 to 7 75; ewes 6 50 to 6 75; lambs 8 50 to 8 85.

For sale, rent or trade—Farm in Wisconsin; 240 acres. Everything in good order, and can give immediate possession. Some plowing done.—Inquire of Samuel Liveney, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 4, residing near Oak Park. 461
