DEMIS WRITES OF THE BIG FAIR

Hillsboro is to have an Exhibit Individual to itself

FURNITURE TO BE DISPLAYED

Hillsboro High School Should Have an Exhibit

Dennis, who is at the Oregon Building at the Panama Fair, writes the Argus a letter, a portion of which says:

The Oregon Building is looking good and is still the most popular building on the grounds. It has been quite a few years ago and Washington County is here, and I think they are well pleased. Percy Long is here today (March 25) and I was on his way North. The weather has been fine the month and the grounds are pretty, but of all the things which I am most impressed with is the lighting and the fire. You will have to see to really appreciate their

J. D. Merryman came here one evening and Mrs. Dennis went with her to see the exhibit and the Panama Canal. One thing that all Oregonians should see, for the Canal is much to Oregon—and more than impressed the replica. It is a wonder should not be overlooked. It is a fine likeness of the canal and it covers over five miles of ground. This means a strip of ground covering a hillside block. An airplane and a huge phonograph explains the situation in about 30 minutes.

President Marshall was here last week, so was ex-vice president Fairbanks, and there were many receptions. I saw Beachy fall the day he

A carload of brood sows has recently been shipped from the Portland Union Stockyards to Hood River for distribution among the school children in that valley, and it is possible that in the near future that section will be as famous for its production of livestock as it has in the past been famous for its wonderful apples. These brood sows are sold on credit, the children being expected to raise the pigs to maturity and pay the stockyards people when they market the pork. A careful record will be kept during the period of the pigs' growth and the makers of the best records will receive prizes at the end of the season.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. Main 384. 52-14

When a woman waits fourteen years after her husband deserts her before she asks for a divorce she should be entitled to a diploma from circuit court, along with her decree. Rose Hartman alleges she was married to Benj. Hartman in 1891 at Warsaw, Ind., and that in 1901 her poorer half left her, and that he made no provision for her support. She wants a divorce decree and is willing to take it without alimony.

Wanted—at once: Young men for automobile business. Big pay. We make you expert in ten weeks by mail. Pay us after we secure your position. Century Automobile Institute, Los Angeles, Cal.

B. G. Leedy, of Corvallis, was in town Monday, returning from a visit to his farm near Sherwood. Mr. Leedy is well known all over the state, in Grange circles. He still thinks that Washington County is one of the best in the state, and pins his faith in its possibilities.

Large, nicely furnished rooms for housekeeping. Bath, water and light; front rooms. Fifteen dollars. Southwest corner of First and Oak.

Miss Bowles, who has been in the clerk's office at the court house, for over a year, has resigned and has been succeeded by Miss Vogt, of Gaston. Miss Bowles will go East this Spring for an extended vacation.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

Mrs. O. A. Cook, of Cornelius was in the city the last of the week, enroute to Puyallup, Wash. where she will make an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. D. E. Pizer.

Jake Reichen, of near West Union, was a city visitor Monday, greeting friends and transacting business at the court house.

John Lehman, of Cedar Mill, was in the city the last of the week.

EMEL FELDT CRUSHED BY TWO LOGS, THURSDAY

Was a Son of Mr. and Mrs. William Feldt, of Above Buxton

WORKING FOR THE STANDARD CO.

Young Man Was but Eighteen Years Old, and Industrious Lad

Emel Feldt, aged 18 years, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Feldt, of above Buxton, was almost instantly killed at the yarding railway of the Standard Box & Lumber Company, of above Buxton, last Thursday afternoon. Young Feldt was a signal man for the yarding engineer, and prior to the accident had just signalled the donkey engineer to stop on a pull. The engineer was looking at young Feldt, and says that after he made the signal the log on which he was standing commenced to roll, and Feldt fell forward, his hands striking on the log farther on. Feldt doubled up as the two logs came together and he was closed up as if in a vise.

The engineer says that the log which he was pulling had nothing whatever to do with the accident. The log on which Feldt was standing was 22 inches at the butt, and was 50 feet in length.

Engineer J. D. O'Flynn says the boy as a rule was always fairly careful.

The accident took place on what is called the "landing," where the logs are yarded in and then loaded on the mill company's private railway.

Feldt was an industrious young man and his death is a severe blow to his parents.

Coroner Dr. Barrett went to the scene of the fatality late Thursday evening, but did not hold an inquest, as it was not deemed necessary.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1628; calves, 26; hogs, 2144; sheep, 1778.

Cattle receipts this week have been fairly liberal with ready sale for all classes at steady prices compared to the previous week. Top steers bringing 7.75. With light receipts there seemed also a slowness to the opening of the swine market. Values declining from 10 to 20 cents. Even at the decline this market is higher than the Eastern markets.

North Portland sheep prices continue to climb. Monday, sales were made at 9c for prime lambs, shearlings at 7.75, and shorn ewes at 6c. Good quality shearlings no doubt would spring the above sales.

For sale, rent or trade—Farm in Wisconsin; 240 acres. Everything in good order, and can give immediate possession. Some plowing done.—Inquire of Samuel Lylesley, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 4, residing near Oak Park. 45t

Bring your eggs to Greer's. Fred Durig, of near Beaverton, was in the city Monday.

E. Jossy, of near Helvetia, was in town Monday.

G. Grabhorn, of near Beaverton, was a city caller Monday.

Chicken grit, shell bone and chick food at Greer's.

Sam Joss, of near Cedar Mill, was in the city the first of the week.

Jacob Schneider, of Leisyville, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Jacob Schneider, of Leisyville, was in the city the last of the week.

C. Gertsch, of near Garden Home, was in town Monday, attending circuit court.

How about that new Eastman kodak you have been promising yourself? Get it now at The Pharmacy. 1-2

Chester Bridges returned from Bend, Oregon, the last of the week to attend the funeral of his brother, the late Delbert Bridges.

We can help you in the selection of a Kodak or Brownie. We do printing and developing.—The Pharmacy. 1-2

Russ Wyatt, of Portland, was in town Monday, looking in on circuit court. Russ was former U. S. District Attorney and is well known to the legal bar of the Northwest.

Money to loan—on farm security. I represent three large fire insurance companies. Give me a call.—E. L. Kuratli.

George F. Peterson and son, Adolph, of near Garden Home, were in town Saturday, visiting Miss Peterson, who is attending High School here.

Henry Duyck, of near Roy, and Emil Duyck, of Mountaine, were in the city Friday, closing the deal of the purchase of the big H. Taylor Hill ranch near Roy.

L. J. Creps, of above Banks, was an Argus caller, Friday. He has been taking the religious weekly ever since he started keeping house—and that was some years ago.

George Dooley, the oldtime thresherman of near Banks, was down to the county seat Friday, enroute for Portland. Geo. has been a reader of the Argus ever since the initial number was printed—and that's some record.

R. B. Goodin, who has been secretary of the State Board of Control, is now in San Francisco, on a vacation. Mr. Goodin has had a very severe illness and he is sent South in the hopes of recuperating. That he will still hold his position as secretary is hoped by all his Hillsboro friends.

Merchant Cady was up from Beaverton, Friday, greeting his many county seat friends. He says Beaverton is thriving as never before, and that this Summer will see many fine improvements there in the way of building. Beaverton already has several bricks, built within the last two or three years, and another is under process of construction.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schulerich, of Creswell, arrived Saturday morning to attend the Pythian Sister supper and anniversary celebration at the Pythian Hall, Saturday evening. Both were charter members of the order—and that they appreciate it is evidenced by the trip of over 300 miles made to enjoy the occasion.

Samuel Tunstall, of near Philip, was in town Saturday, calling on his friends. Sam brought in a Vicksburg, Miss., paper, published at the time Grant was in command. Sam thinks the world of the relic. It was printed at a time when print paper was more than scarce, and wall paper was used. Tunstall has it framed, and it is a souvenir well worth having.

Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., Mar. 26.—(Special.) In the debate tryout here Friday night the following were chosen to represent Pacific University in the dual debate with the college of Puget Sound: Edward Livingston, James Rasmussen, Newton McCoy and Elbert Taylor. The alternate positions were filled by Z. A. Olsen and George Rasmussen. The question was, "Resolved, That the initiative and referendum should be incorporated in the statutes of the various states." In view of the fact that last year the dual, debate between Pacific University and College of Puget Sound was a tie, the debate April 30 will be hard fought.

THIRTEEN MEN AT FIELD ASSESSMENT

Start Taking Valuations This Week for the 1915 Tax Roll

WILL WIND UP LIST IN HURRY

Assessor Max Crandall Names His Field Workers For Year

Assessor Max Crandall has named his field deputy assessors for the year 1915, and they all take the field this week to gather in the valuations for the coming tax rolls. The number is increased one this year and the Assessor has asked his field men to subordinate all other work to the finishing of the assessment. The deputies selected are—

- A. A. Morrill, former county surveyor, North Hillsboro.
- C. E. Lytle, South Hillsboro.
- H. G. Vincent, Beaverton and vicinity.
- C. E. Hedge, Tigard and vicinity.
- E. G. Hagey, Sherwood and vicinity.
- Leslie Moore, Laurel and vicinity.
- Henry Scheurerman, Cornelius and South.
- R. L. Allison, north of Cornelius.
- D. F. Fleck, Forest Grove.
- E. X. Harding, Gaston.
- J. W. McRoberts, Gales Creek.
- Chester Wirtz, Mountaine.
- Peter Grossen, Bethany and vicinity.

Assessor Crandall asks all property owners to have their lists and values in readiness when the field assessor calls. He says that by so doing it costs the county from but 10 to 30 cents per taxpayer, while several visits will run the expense up several dollars. "Have your assessment in mind as to values, the way they were the first day of March. Do not forget the mortgages and other notes, and money in the bank, or in a tin can in the garden"—is the word the assessor wishes every taxpayer to commit.
