SPRING'S BEST FRATERNAL EVENT

Celebration Over Twenty Years of Holding of Charter

Members of the Pythian Sister order and their families, numbering 150 in all, celebrated the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the local lodge, at the Pythian Hall, Second Street, last Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. N. Barrett presided as mistress of ceremonies, and those responding to calls were:

Mrs. Jennie Sewell, "The Senior Member"; Mrs. R. H. Greer, "The First Past Chief"; Mesdames Geo. Schulmerich, F. J. Williams (charter members); Mesdames J. A. Imbrie, Leonard Brown, L. A. Long, E. L. Moore, J. W. Goodin, Geo. Emmott, E. C. McKinney, and Mrs. Leatha Bouldard, of Portland, a member of a Temple at Minneapolis, Minn.

Messrs. W. N. Barrett, Geo. Schulmerich, L. W. House, F. J. Williams, J. W. Cave (charter members), K. H. Greer, J. W. Goodin, Grover Combs, E. L. Perkins, Fred Sewell, L. M. Hoyt, C. E. Wells, J. A. Imbrie, A. P. Luther, and T. S. Wilkes, formerly a member of a Temple at Denver, Col.

Mrs. Geo. Schulmerich, first M. of R. & C., read the first minutes of the order; Geo. Emmott in the "Ford Song," a vocal comedy; and a character quartet with Geo. Metcalf, as an American; W. N. Harris, as a Dutchman; E. L. Moore, as a Hebrew; and L. Brown, were clever comedy efforts; a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schulmerich, who were then assisted in a quartet by Mrs. Barrett and F. J. Williams, were appreciatively received.

Mrs. Fred Sewell, Miss Georgia Baldwin and Glen Payne were at the piano in original selections and in accompaniment. Recitations that were given applause were those of Margaret Long and T. S. Wilkes.

After the program, dancing was indulged in until midnight.
