Man Ingreen, son of W. J. In-gram and wife, Farmington, was CITY COU taken to Portland, Tuesday, by Dr. F. A. Bailey, for a surgical operation. Man recently suffered an amputation of one leg. above the knee for tuberculosis of the bone, and he may have to lose the other leg. Dr. Bailey and associates will, however, try an operation of the knee without amputation. The patient was given the "twilight sleep" before leaving, and when he arrived in Portland he said that he had suffered no inconvenience from the ministration.
