

SHERIFF REEVES HAS INTERESTING RELIC

Presented With Democratic Ticket, Forty-Five Years old

FATHER OF OFFICIAL WAS ELECTED

Jackson Hoover Has for School Superintendent; Henry Wehrung, Treasurer

Sheriff J. E. Reeves was last week presented with a ticket printed in 1870-45 years ago this morning. Its complexion was democratic, and it will be of interest to the oldtimers of the county. Wm. Reeves, father of the present sheriff, was a candidate for the office of sheriff, and was elected. Henry Wehrung, father of W. H. Wehrung, of the Hillsboro National, ran for treasurer, and Jackson Hoover, now laying in Portland under a stroke of paralysis, was the candidate for county school superintendent. Ulysses Jackson, well known to all the pioneers, was a candidate for commissioner.

Sheriff Reeves values the relic highly, and will keep it as a souvenir. One of the names on the ticket that is of special interest, also, is that of Ira E. Purdin, who owns a farm near Forest Grove. Mr. Purdin was defeated, but subsequently was elected to the legislature.

The ticket had an old-fashioned border around it, and was about 8 inches in length and 3 in width. At the head was an eagle, with wings spread. The names on the ticket, and a duplicate, as to printing, follows:

Several of the local Knights of Pythias are contemplating a trip to Crater Lake, 82 miles East of Medford, August 17. The three big local valley lodges in Southern Oregon will initiate a class of 100 in the extinct crater, Wizard Island. The ceremonies will take place in the very crater itself, which is 150 feet in depth and 300 feet in diameter. The government has given the order the exclusive control of Wizard Island on August 18, and no one will be allowed to land who has not the semi-annual password. Grand Lodge officers will be present, and it is estimated that that 500 K. of P. will attend the big ceremonial. The elevation of the crater is 7,000 feet. The boys will be at the National Reserve one full day and parts of two. Medford Knights will convey all visitors to the Lake with autos.

Portland, Or., April 22:—State school authorities throughout Oregon are cooperating with the State Board of Forestry and Oregon Forest Fire Association in carrying forest fire lessons to public school pupils before the 1915 danger season opens. Over seventy thousand little booklets are being distributed containing a story entitled "The Friends of the Forest" written by E. T. Allen, which weaves into attractive story form, with a boy and squirrel as heroes, the age-old prevalence of fire in these states, the struggles of the trees for self-preservation and the interest of men and children in our forest resources.

BIG SCHOOL SPELLING HERE THIS SATURDAY

School Superintendent's Office Expects 2,000 School Children

MAY POLE WILL BE A FEATURE

Excursions From Buxton Will Bring in the North of County

The old county seat will ring with the voices of 2,000 school children Saturday, May 1, if the estimates of the office of the county school superintendent do not fall short. The exercises will consist of the annual county school spell, and the entrants will be from the third grades up to the eighth, and the High School classes. The program will open at ten o'clock, and will close at five.

Superintendent Barnes expects a big delegation in from the districts along the P. R. & N., as an excursion train will run from Buxton and return, making stops all along the line.

The Hillsboro schools will wind a Maypole for the edification of the visitors, and the moving picture houses will open for the edification of the visitors.

There will be diplomas issued for the successful spellers, and arrangements are made to take care of the largest school crowd ever assembled in the county seat.

Since these spelling contests have been initiated school authorities state that the advance in spelling has been wonderful. It has stimulated interest in one of the sadly neglected branches of the school study, and the stimulus has entered other branches, as well.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1013; calves, 32; hogs, 1807; sheep, 2347.

With a fair run of cattle Monday the bulk of sales duplicated last week prices. Heavy stuff is not in demand, while light stuff sold readily at a good figure. Choice steers are quoted at 7 50 to 7 75, cows 6 25 to 6 75, bulls 4 to 5 75, and stags 5 to 6 50.

A light run of hogs in the swine division forced the market up 15 to 20 cents over last week's quotations. One load sold for 7 85 Monday while bulk of sales went at 7 65 to 7 80. Prime light hogs are bringing 7 85 at close of week. Demand good.

Not many sheep came to market this week and quality offered did not qualify for top prices. Shearling lambs are quoted at 7 75 to 8, ewes 5 50 to 5 75, and yearlings 6 75 to 7. Full wools are $1 higher than prices quoted on above shearings.

Dr. Lowe, the well known physical eye specialist, says: The price of glasses gives title to them only. He puts the cream of more than 23 years experience into his glasses. Scores of Hillsboro references. Consult him May 8.

PYTHIANS AND HURS IN INITIAL GAME

Knights Make Two Home Runs in One Inning—Win 12 to 6

GAME WAS FULL OF GINGER

Veterans Were Too Many for the Youngsters, Who Fought Hard

The Knights of Pythias took the opening baseball contest at Athletic Park, Sunday, defeating the Ben Hurs by a score of 12 to 6. The game was marked by some good, as well as some loose playing, but the battle was replete with interest. It was no one's game until the last ball was pitched over, for the youngsters on the Ben Hur team fought with desperation all the time. Clay Freeman pitched for the Knights, with Phelps at the receiving end, while R. Schulerich was on the mound for the Hurs, Alf Harrington catching.

The Knight signaled one inning by smashing out two home runs, Geo. McGee rattling the fence boards for the first and W. N. Harris knocking a clean one over the left field fence.

There was a good natured rivalry between the contenders, and the rooting was as brilliant as a Donnybrook Fair. Dr. Erwin was out with his flag and when it comes to rooting he is some registered class.

There were a good many errors, but everything goes in games like this, and who cares. The Knights and Hurs will again meet on the diamond, and the Hurs think they have a show to beat out the veterans.

Wm. Gaetter umpired the balls and strikes, and John Boeker took care of the sacks decisions.

CAMPBELL INSANE

Jos. Campbell, toll-gate keeper years ago on the Tillamook road, was brought down Saturday and examined by Dr. Smith and Hyde for his sanity. Campbell imagines that his neighbors are persecuting him, and he is homicidal in tendency. Some years ago he lost his mountain home by mortgage foreclosure, and he was never dispossessed. He is suffering from a malignant cancer on his chin, and the thing looks as though it had also a tendency to lupus. He was taken to Salem Saturday night. Campbell is 68 years old, and was divorced from his wife several years ago. The seven children went with the mother, who moved to the county seat. It will be remembered that several years ago an officer went to the Campbell place above Gales Creek to take away a sewing machine. Campbell proceeded to take down his old musket and the official came away without the machine. Campbell the other day intimated to Reeves that had he expected him he might have had some trouble in taking him, but the officer did not appear to be much intimidated.

An amusing incident, showing Campbell's aberration is shown by a file he sent to the clerk of the court when he lost his place by foreclosure in 1900. It reads: "Dec. 1, 1900, summons served no appearance charge proved docket of state court declared closed for judgment as provided by law on each and every person named in the suit in controversy of the above named entitled suit two thousand dollars captive and five years imprisonment hard labor receipts of judgment dow plaintiff see sections 441 and 2273 and 5392 and 1760 of united States revised statutes." Campbell afterwards informed some one that his dictum, as above, meant all in the suit, including the officers.

The paper caused a ripple of amusement in court circles at the time—but Campbell manfully remained on the place until his arrest for insanity, although the deed had passed from him several years ago. Campbell has been cutting and selling cedar ever since the title left him.
