

EXPECT A ROUSING THREE DAYS' FEST

Fourth of July Committee, Commercial Club, Starts Action

WILL TRY HARD FOR AN AVIATOR

Chairman Combs, of Committee, in Correspondence With Dennis

The general committee, consisting of Messrs. Heater, Boscow, Wells, Easter, Dr. Marshall, Combs, E. L. Moore, Sam Weil, F. J. Sewell, C. C. Frick, G. A. Patterson, C. J. Michelet, Dr. Erwin and J. H. Garrett, met Tuesday evening and elected Grover Combs chairman and Dr. Marshall secretary of the body, and settled down to work for a three days celebration for July 4, the days to cover Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The parade will be held in Hillsboro's streets, Saturday, and a religious service and "community sing," the latter being under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary, at the City Park, Sunday, and the general exercises will be observed at the grove, Monday. A good speaker will be secured. Correspondence is now under way with John Dennis, now in San Francisco, to see what can be done in the way of getting a flying machine. If not prohibitive, one of the Christoffersons will be engaged.

The committee will look after the collection of finances to take care of the expenses, and the following sub-committees were appointed:

- Concessions—Easter, Wells, Boscow.
- Parade—William Nelson.
- Fireworks—Boscow.
- Dance Hall—Moore.
- Publicity—Garrett.
- Sports—Heater.
- Addresses—Wood, Erwin and Wall.
- Attractions—Moore, Weil and Michelet.

All were unanimous that the day should not be encumbered with sideshows this year, but an endeavor will be made to give a program that will more than please. If the aviator can be secured this will prove a great drawing card, as there are thousands here who never saw a flying machine in operation.

NOTICE TO PATRONS

We have decided to dissolve partnership, and therefore it becomes necessary to meet our old customers who have so long and continuously visited our store and given us their trade. The years which have passed in trade here have developed a friendship that are very strong, and now that a change of the firm has become necessary we feel that we are leaving the family circle, but the cold demands of business compel us to use our accounts, and therefore we must ask all owing us to come in and make an early settlement. In closing we will be obliged to place all unsettled accounts for collection, and this we wish to avoid by your voluntary and friendly settlement.

Those holding trade checks will bring them in before or on the 15th of May, 1915, as they will be of no value after that date.

Wilkins & Challacombe, Hillsboro, Ore., May 5, 1915.

Coffee Club Meeting

The Coffee Club will meet at the R. V. Room, Saturday afternoon, 2:30, and all members are cordially invited to attend, as interesting matters will be discussed.

ANNUAL COUNTY SPELL WAS A BIG AFFAIR

Exceeded Expectations and Two Thousand Pupils Visit Hillsboro

MAYOR BARRETT CROWNS MAY QUEEN

Hundreds of Pupils Write One Hundred Words in the Contest

The annual county spelling contest held last Saturday, in conjunction with May Day festivities, was the greatest school event ever celebrated in Washington County. It is estimated that fully 2,000 children of school age were in Hillsboro, and 800 entered the spelling trial. The exercises were written, and it was surprising how many earned 100.

The exercises for May Day were held at the court yard square. Mayor Barrett, in a short address, crowned Miss Ruth Linklater Queen of the May, her attendants being Misses Marion Lytle, Mary Harbison, Georgia Baldwin and Beth Crandall. Little Lila Koeber officiated as crown bearer. Hillsboro, Oregon and Cornelius wound the May Pole, and the ceremonies lasted several hours.

A CARD

Editor Argus: I would like to correct an error in the minds of many of the patron of the postoffice in regard to the box rent.

Jan. 1, 1915, box rent was raised 15c a quarter, per box. Some have been blaming the Eastern war for this advance, while others have been giving the Democratic party the credit. Both are equally erroneous. Box rent is fixed in proportion to the receipts of the office. Had this office remained where it has been for years, the box rent would have remained the same; or had the office failed to hold its own, as some would seem to desire, the rent would be less. Offices whose receipts are from five to ten thousand dollars have the rental as follows: Small boxes, 45c; medium, 60c; large, 75c.

Receipts from ten to forty thousand dollars: Small, 60c; medium, 75c; large, $1.

The receipts of this office have run over the ten thousand mark, hence the raise in the "rent." This is an old rule, made, I think, in the good Republican days, so our Republican friends who are giving up their boxes should think twice before they kick.

Respectfully, J. C. Lamkin, P. M.

"THE SENIOR"

A taste of real college life with all its fun and spirit, and yet with plenty of good serious common sense running through it, is the treat which is being prepared by the Class of 1915, of the High School, in the annual Senior play. "The Senior" gives the usual variety of characters found in a "bunch" of college fellows, from the dignified Senior himself to the "graceful Fresh" who falls down more times than he takes steps, and who swears by what "Pa says." The scenes are typical of college life, and afford many interesting and amusing situations.

The class has spent much time and effort in producing a play that will be a credit to itself and the school, and deserves the loyal support of the community.

The cast is as follows: Gordon Wainwright, a Senior of Lakeville University, not "in society"; Elmer Fisher "Perry" Spencer, "Pug" Collins, "Nick" Meade, seniors in "society"; Sam Bentley, Elmer Batchelder, Chas. Deichman Tommy Thompson, baseball star and sophomore; Dan Erwin "Dub" Duffield, champion debater; Wade Zumwalt Beane, a freshman who looks the part; James Mahon Eleanor Forbes, a popular girl; Ruby Tipton Mrs. Lee, Eleanor's aunt and an aristocrat; Ella Bechen Violet, a helpful sort of person; Katherine Perry Gertrude Spencer, Spencer's sister; Anna Berg Miss Jones, a Lakeville girl; Effie Bachelor Miss White, visiting Lakeville; Alma Spicker Jean, chauffeur; Arthur Connell Mike, a lunch hustler; Leon Tansie Crescent Theatre, Thursday evening, May 13, at 8:00 o'clock. Popular prices.

AUXILIARY AFTER HOUSEHOLD PEST

Society Sends Out Article on Means of Entomomorphing Fly

WANT CO-OPERATIVE CAMPAIGNING

Little Carriers of Disease are Targets For All Who Want Health

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Commercial Club want Hillsboro people to be a unit in the extermination of the fly—the bane of health and the carrier of disease. The Auxiliary is sending out the following pamphlet to every home, and they ask all to get busy, to the end that we may have a "flyless town:"

1. Where is the fly hatched? In manure and filth.
2. Where does the fly live? In every kind of filth.
3. Is anything too filthy for the fly to eat? No.
4. (a) When does he go when he leaves the vault and the manure pile and spittoon? Into the kitchen and dining room. (b) What does he do there? He walks on the bread, fruit and vegetables; he wipes his feet on the butter and bathes in the buttermilk.
5. Does the fly visit the patient sick with consumption, typhoid fever and cholera infantum? He does—and may call on you next.
6. Is the fly dangerous? He is man's worst pest, more dangerous than wild beasts or rattlesnakes.
7. What diseases does the fly carry? He carries typhoid fever, tuberculosis and summer complaint. How? On his wings and hairy feet. What is his correct name? Typhoid fly.
8. Did he ever kill anyone? He killed more American soldiers in the Spanish-American War than the bullets of the Spaniards.
9. Where are the greatest number of typhoid fever, consumption and summer complaint? Where there are the most flies.
10. Where are the most flies? Where there is the most filth.
11. Why should we kill the fly? Because he may kill us.
12. How shall we kill the fly? (a) Destroy all the filth about the house and yard; (b) pour lime into the vault and on the manure; (c) kill the fly with a wire-screen paddle, or sticky paper, or kerosene oil.
13. Kill the fly in any way, BUT KILL THE FLY.
14. If there is any filth anywhere that you cannot remove, call on the Board of Health, and ask for relief before you are stricken with disease and, perhaps, death.

MEMORIAL DAY

Rev. R. E. Myers will preach Memorial Day services at the Crescent Theatre, Sunday, May 30, at 11 a. m. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. invite all to attend, and the pastors and members of all other churches are given a cordial invitation to be present and make this a Union service. The choirs of the various churches are requested to participate under the leadership of Mr. Dunsmoor. On Monday, May 31, the Post and Corps will hold realistic ceremonies at the cemetery, from 8 to 10 a. m., and in the afternoon will attend exercises under the direction of the city authorities.—Rodolph Crandall, Commander Gen. Ransom Post No. 69, Department of Oregon.

LANGSTON—GHEEN

J. J. Langston and Edith Anna Gheen were united in marriage at Portland, the first of the week. The groom is well known in Hillsboro, having been employed in the Anderson shop for over two years. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gheen, of Hillsboro. The happy couple will reside in Portland, where Mr. Langston is engaged in business, operating a shop of his own, on Third Street.

Marriage license was granted yesterday to Harrison W. Heiler and Edith Lillian Churchhill, daughter of Jas. Churchhill and wife, Gales Creek. Both are prominent in their section.

James Elmer, the seven months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wilson died Sunday, May 2, after a short illness. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral took place Tuesday morning.

The city council met Tuesday night and after passing on appropriations on street improvement, discussed the advisability of the city doing its own street improvement, rather than by contract. This will probably be done if equipment can be procured to take care of the work. First Street, between Washington and Baseline was passed upon as to improvement.

Fire caught in the closet near the kitchen range in the Thos. Connell home, this morning. Mr. Connell extinguished the blaze and did not call the department. How the blaze caught is a mystery, as it could not have caught from the fire.

Kansas City and Commercial Club will entertain a school rally of Purdin, Thatcher, Hillsdale, Fairview, Hayward and Kansas schools, with a program, Saturday, May 8.

Do not let your horse stand at a hitching post. Take him to W. J. Quinn's stable, Corner Second and Washington.

Attorney W. P. Dyer, of Forest Grove, was in town Monday.

W. E. King and wife and daughters, Misses Ruth and Corinne, after a fortnight's visit with the Baileys, departed Wednesday, for their home at Canton, Ohio. Mr. King went up to Gales Creek, Tuesday, and had a look at the big tree on the Batesman place—the one that is between 12 and 13 feet in diameter. He had a photo of the mammoth to carry back with him to show his Ohio friends what Oregon can produce in the way of big things. King made two trips to see this curiosity and then looked dumbfounded when told he could find scores like this over in the Nehalem, 30 miles away—but no more like it in this county—which is purely agricultural.

For sale: Duroc-Jersey sow with pigs at side; one soon to litter, and a few fine shoats.—Walter Zetman, Cornelius, R. 1, near Schiefelin. 6-8

Charles Davis' barn, silo and granary burned Tuesday morning shortly after midnight, and it is a well defined opinion that some one set the buildings afire. Mr. Westcott, who lives close by, first saw the blaze, and rushed over to the Davis house and aroused the owner. There was no equipment to extinguish the blaze and the buildings were soon reduced to ashes. There was some insurance, but not enough to cover the loss. Three hoboes were seen going through North Plains, not far from the farm, about an hour after the blaze. The Davis' place is a part of the old Col. T. R. Cornelius donation.

Good Real Estate security offered for loans at 7 and 8 per cent. Call and look applications over. E. L. Perkins, Hillsboro, Oregon.

The residents of the road district in which Reedville is situated, Jonas Moline, supervisor, will hold a meeting at the Reedville school house, Saturday evening, May 15, to devise ways and means for connecting the road rock between Hillsboro and Beaverton. The district has a five mill levy, and many want to give volunteer work. An attempt will also be made to raise more funds.

Toni Siny, of above Blooming, today saved the long bridge west of town, on Dairy Creek, from burning. He was passing across, and noticed the floor of the structure afire, caught perhaps from the coals of a smoker's pipe. He soon had the fire extinguished. He says that in ten minutes more the entire floor would have been ablaze and the bridge might have been lost.

Earl Donelson has purchased the stock of furniture owned by Grover C. Combs, corner Main and Second, and invoicing is completed. Donelson takes possession the last of this week, and will continue the business. The purchaser has an extended acquaintance with the Hillsboro public, and the seller has the best wishes of all who have patronized his store.

Irma Johnson is suing Chas. B. Johnson for divorce. They were married at Lewiston, Montana, about 6 years ago. The wife charges abandonment and cruel treatment. She says that her husband frequently told her he was going to Alaska and would never return. He left one day and evidently has made good his word up to the present date, at least. There are no children.

C. C. Nelson, of Bacons, lost a valuable team, Tuesday, a tree falling on them while they were traveling between Bacons and Buxton. Rodolph, his 16 year old son, was driving, carrying the mail. The boy was not injured. This is the second team loss sustained by Mr. Nelson, and he has the sympathy of his friends.
