HILLSBORO, OREGON, MAY 13, 1915

PYTHIANS AND ORENCO HAVE EXCITING GAME

Members' Dual—Eleven Innings of Ginger and Heart Failure
FINAL SCORE IS FIVE TO FOUR
The Victors on the Short End of the Tally Board

The Knights of Pythias team and Orenco met Sunday at Athletic park—and your Uncle Dudley is to tell you that it was the best game yet played on the local grounds so far as the 1915 season concerned. The matinee went over in eleven innings, and might have been twenty for all that, but for a smash by King Lytle, that put the winning hatch. It was a pitchers' duel from start to finish, and but for the luck of a ball break, not even a clairvoyant could have told which team was entitled to the honors. Freeman, pitcher for the K. P. team, struck out ten men, while Donovan, for Orenco, was just mean, retiring a half-score. The pitched league ball—that is what we have seen many a league game where the pitchers do not mix them as well, or like out as many.

Nine hits were secured off Freeman's delivery, but they were well scattered. The 13 outs of Donovan were also well distributed. Orenco has the making of a team, and is a mighty aggregation. The veteran Pythians played luck, however, and bone-heads made no difference. Hits were gleaned as follows—Hillsboro, Engeldinger, 3; Lytle, Harris, 1; Freeman, 3; Moyes, Anderson, 1; Moore, 1; total—

Orenco, Faber, 1; Oley, 1; Imrie, 1; Parker, 1; Girard, 1; Sheidle, 3; Rasmussen, 1.

J. W. Cornelius, who is farming south of Cornelius, was in the city the last of the week, greeting his Hillsboro friends. J. W. says crops are looking O. K. out his way, but that a visit from Jupiter Pluvius a week or ten days ago would have been very acceptable.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stoyie, of Huntington, Long Island, where the husband is engaged in the auto business, were guests the last of the week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hyde. Mr. Stoyie thinks Oregon is some country. They have just visited the Panama Fair in California, and are enroute home.

W. H. Forney, of beyond Oak Park, lost his house and all out-buildings, excepting barn and carriage, by fire, last Thursday night, between eight and nine o'clock. The blaze caught in the bath room, and was well under way before it was discovered. The piano and a few minor articles were saved, but the rest of the household furniture and all the clothing of the family were burned. Mr. Forney went into the building to make an attempt to save some clothing, but the flames drove him out. He scorched his hair and eyebrows and severely burned one of his ears. The loss is estimated at from $3,000 to $3,500, and was covered by a little over $2,000 insurance. Mr. Forney procured two tents Friday morning, and started housekeeping. He will build at once.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. Main 384. 52-14

W. V. Bergen, assistant cashier at the American National, returned Friday morning from a two weeks' stay at Klamath Falls, where he installed one of the Bergen-Combs fire alarm systems for the city. He was very much taken with the beauty of the Southern Oregon country, and came home laden with pictures of the section. He says that Klamath Falls is growing right along, and is one of the best interior towns in the state. Millions of dollars, he states, have been expended down that way on government irrigation projects, and in a few years the country will bloom like a rose garden.

Dr. Willis Haynie has sued his wife, Dr. Nellie Haynie, for divorce. Husband and wife are chiropractors, and it is evident that the doctors have "disagreed." The husband charges that the wife is "quarrelsome, fault-finding, dissatisfied and impossible to please." He alleges that she has left him at times and left him in ignorance of her whereabouts. They were married at Spokane in 1909.

Wanted—at once: Young men for automobile business. Big pay. We make you expert in ten weeks by mail. Pay us after we secure you position. Century Automobile Institute, Los Angeles, Cal.

Mayor G. G. Patterson and Councilmen McCready and Emerson, of Forest Grove, were in Hillsboro, Friday, looking over our sewer system. They came down not only to see the physical proposition, but to see the method of apportioning the costs. The city of Forest Grove expects to have the new system installed by Fall.

W. B. Fuller, who returned last week from Bozeman, Montana, with Harding, of Aloha, charged with non-support, says that when he reached Bozeman the ground was covered with snow and sleighing was in progress. He says the old Wilamette Valley, Garden of Eden as it is, is good enough for him.

For sale: A registered Holstein bull, yearling, and one six months old.—Gerhardt Goetze, Cornelius, Route 2, south of Blooming. 5-7

At a meeting of the members of the newly organized Sherwood Commercial Club last Thursday night, the slogan: "Sherwood, the Onion City," was adopted.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Grebe, of Laurel, were Hillsboro visitors Saturday. A. L. has joined the Ford brigade, and says he is going to quit raising so many oats.

J. W. Marsh, the Centerville pioneer, was in Thursday evening and while in town investing in a new buggy. J. W. says the auto speed is too much for an oldtimer.

White Minorca eggs for hatching—setting of 15 for $1.—Willard Tupper, Hillsboro, Telephone City 502. 49tf

Marriage license was granted Gen. Peter Spiering and Mary Vanderzanden, of the Banks-Greenville section, the last of the week.

Theodore Berg and Nellie R. Jones, of Beaverton, were married at Vancouver, May 6, 1915.

CO. POMONA GRANGE MET AT SHERWOOD

Patrons of Husbandry Have Big Time April 28

HAVE PROGRAM THAT IS PLEASING
Beaverton Now Has Largest Grange in the County

Pomona Grange meeting on Wednesday, April 28—Washington County Pomona Grange was entertained royally at Sherwood by the local grange. A large crowd (174) registered. The morning session was taken up with routine business and the reports from Subordinate Granges, eleven of the twelve in the County having written reports. At noon all partook of the bounteous spread prepared by the good cooks of Sherwood Grange.

The meeting in the afternoon was in charge of the Lecturer, Mrs. A. B. Flint, of Scholls, who had prepared an excellent program, the principal topic for discussion being "Co-operation in buying and selling." Rev. Blake, of Tualatin, gave an interesting talk on "American Citizenship."

In the evening Master, Philip Olsen, of Orenco, assisted by Past Master, B. G. Leedy, of Corvallis, instructed a class of forty-four in the Fifth or Pomona degree. A fine musical program was rendered by members of the local Grange assisted by members from Scholls Grange.

Sherwood Grange is now holding its meetings in Weckert's Hall, one of the fine brick buildings recently erected in the town, and is growing rapidly, owing to the fact that it is buying commodities for the farm and home on the co-operative plan at a great reduction in price to its members. "Beaverton! You are still the largest Grange in the county, but look out!"

The next Pomona meeting will be held with Green Mt. Grange, at Buxton, the 4th Wednesday in July.

M. H. D. Corresponding Secy.

"THE SENIOR"

A taste of real college life with all its fun and spirit, and yet with plenty of good serious common sense running through it, is the treat which is being prepared by the Class of 1915, of the High School, in the annual Senior play. "The Senior" gives the usual variety of characters found in a "bunch" of college fellows, from the dignified Senior himself to the "graceful Fresh" who falls down more times than he takes steps, and who swears by what "Pa says." The scenes are typical of college life, and afford many interesting and amusing situations.

The class has spent much time and effort in producing a play that will be a credit to itself and the school, and deserves the loyal support of the community.

The cast is as follows: Gordon Wainwright, a Senior of Lakeville University, not "in society".....Elmer Fisher "Perry" Spencer, "Pug" Collins, "Nick" Meade, seniors in "society".....Sam Bentley, Elmer Batchelder, Chas. Deichman Tommy Thompson, baseball star and sophomore.....Dan Erwin "Dub" Duffield, champion debater.....Wade Zumwalt Beane, a freshman who looks the part.....James Mahon Eleanor Forbes, a popular girl.....Ruby Tipton Mrs. Lee, Eleanor's aunt and an aristocrat.....Ella Bechen Violet, a helpful sort of person.....Katherine Perry Gertrude Spencer, Spencer's sister.....Anna Berg Miss Jones, a Lakeville girl.....Effie Bachelor Miss White, visiting Lakeville.....Alma Spicker Jean, chauffeur.....Arthur Connell Mike, a lunch hustler.....Leon Tamiesie

George Harrow was over from Oak Park, Saturday, carrying a barb wire scratch fifteen inches in length. He tumbled through a barb wire fence the other night, while running to the Forney fire, and a barb raked him from his elbow to the knuckles.

Judge Stevenson, of Gales Creek, was down to Hillsboro, Saturday. The Judge has about the finest private game reserve of his own in the state, and when he wants a deer all he has to do is to go out to his park, tie one up, and have a neighbor come over and shoot it.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

Stranger things have happened than that Washington County might have a valuable agate mine in the Goodin rock quarry, owned, of course, by the Commonwealth. Commissioner Hanley has on exhibition several pieces of water agate, one larger than a man's fist, and which has every appearance of being fit for the work of a lapidary. Whether or not it is commercial remains to be seen, but it certainly would take on a polish more beautiful than fifty per cent. of the rock ground for watch fobs, or brooches. One piece, as large as a half bushel, was last season ground through the crusher, and is scattered on the roads. The agate is found in considerable quantity, and investigation may be made to see whether or not "we" have something worth while.

SHERIFF RETURNS WITH CHARLES W. LOUDON

Defendant Claims is Innocent of Wrong-Doing and Fights Case

CARRIED NAME OF ARCHIE LEONARD

Captured By Sacramento Sheriff 16 Miles From California Capital

Sheriff J. E. Reeves returned Monday morning from Sacramento, Cal., bringing with him Charles W. Loudon, charged with a statutory offense, the state's witness being Ida Vanderlip, who accompanied the Loudons when they returned from St. Cloud, Florida, over a year ago. After the warrant was sworn out in justice court Loudon sold his place beyond North Plains, and disappeared. Prior to this he had turned the Vanderlip girl over to Trauscher, of the juvenile court. Loudon says he went from here to Winnipeg, Canada, and from there to Wisconsin and to Minnesota. He also says that he went to Florida, and from there to California. Mrs. Loudon was located in Los Angeles, some months ago, and when the wife left for Sacramento she shipped a trunk by freight. The Los Angeles officials then notified Sheriff Reeves of the shipment and he wired the Sacramento sheriff to watch for its arrival. Mrs. Loudon had the trunk taken to Bridge House, at a ranch, 18 miles out of Sacramento, where Loudon was working under the name of Archie Leonard. Loudon was supplied with funds and put up a strong fight for habeas corpus release when Sheriff Reeves arrived.

The sheriff was unable to take requisition with him, owing to the fact that Withcombs was at the Cello celebration, and the court postponed Loudon's proceedings two days until the necessary papers arrived.

Loudon talked with the Argus representative Monday, and he says he has retained W. G. Hare to defend the case, and that he will be acquitted, as he is not Harrison W. Heisler and Edith L. Churchill were united in marriage, May 5, 1915, Rev. J. S. Lucas officiating. Both are popular young people of Gales Creek, the bride being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Churchill, and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Heisler.

TUALATIN

Tualatin will celebrate Independence Day in grand style this year, the event being staged for Monday, July 5. The Tualatin Brass Band, which will give a concert in the afternoon and evening, has charge of the affair. There will be a parade in the morning, followed by a program. In the afternoon there will be a series of contests, such as tug-of-war, foot races, sack race, fat men's races, etc. This will be followed by a good baseball game. There will be dancing all afternoon and evening in the park. All in all, the Band will see to it that there will be something doing all the time.

Tualatin is the only place in the east end of the county that has made any plans for a celebration, therefore it is expected that everybody will be on hand that day. Wilsonville, Oswego, Tigard, Sherwood and Middleton are invited to join with Tualatin in the big event.—O. B. Kraus, Manager Tualatin Band.
