LSBORO HIGH IN FINE GLASS PLAY

Students Give Creditable Performance at Crescent Theatre

THE AUDIENCE GAVE APPRECIATION

"Senior" Condition Eclipses Art of Travelling Companies

Hillsboro High School, 1915 class, fourth last Thursday night large and appreciative audience in the staging of "The Senior" a college play. The lines were well handled and some of the people surprised their listeners by the cleverness of their work. Elmer Fisher, as Senior "not in society," was a target for those who "were," the lead around whom the acts and aid rallied, and he led his lines well. Sam Bent, Elmer Bachelder and Chas. Mahon, as the three seniors were "in society" were very likable in their roles of superiority. Dan Irwin, as Thompson the baseball star and sophomore, was there with his ideas of national game, and society but little charms for him. Elmer Zumwalt, as Duffield, the star, was always ready for a laugh. James Mahon, as Beane, Freshman, was there with a house and had the house eating of his hands, as it were. Elmer Tipton was clever as the popular girl—you always see popular girl at college or at home—Elia Bechen, as the aristocratic aunt, Mrs. Lee, was a sensation. Katherine Perry, as the "hopeful one," lived to the character in her work. Elmer Berg, as Miss Spencer, was a hit, and Elmer Bachelar, as the little girl, was always to the front. Alma Spicker, as White, and Arthur Connell, as the chauffeur, carried their lines nicely, while Leon Leslie, as the lunch hustler, was a surprise. All were so well acted upon the way they played the Thespianship, and evening was one of pleasure to a large audience.

Some party stole Andrew England's Ford touring car, Thursday night last, after 9 o'clock. Where the thief went is a mystery, but where he left the machine is not. The car was discovered not far from the Woolly Bridge, northwest of town, Friday afternoon, by the foreman of the P. R. & N. bridge crew. The thief had taken the car across the railway track, and in order to secrete it had to open two barb wire gates and move a locked handcar from the roadway. The foreman saw the machine hidden in the brush, on a slope. The car was brought into town late Friday afternoon. The same night the machine was taken some one entered the Simpson-Jack saloon, at Beaverton, stealing about $15 in cash and $50 worth of cigars. Sheriff Reeves started search for the car, but its discovery does not clear up whether or not the two robberies were perpetrated by the same parties.

That the dairymen of the Willamette Valley are fully alive to the importance of improving their herds is indicated by the phenomenal success of the auction sale of registered and grade Jerseys at Independence last week. The total number of animals changing hands was 185 of which 135 were registered merit cattle. This is the largest number of Jerseys of this class ever offered at one sale in the United States. Congressman McArthur was one of the largest buyers, securing 10 animals at a total cost of $2,500, his highest price being $375. Other high bids were: H. H. Curtis, $500, W. L. Pate, $400 and W. E. Allen, $395. As many as 36 head of Jerseys were brought to this sale by a single breeder.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. Main 381. 52-14

Miss Hazel Koontz, a sister of Chas. F. Koontz, well known here, was united in marriage to Pinkerton Day, at Vancouver, Wash., May 12, 1915. The bride is well known in Portland and Hillsboro musical circles, and has a large circle of friends in the state. The groom is a son of Jos. Day, the well known Portland detective, and now one of the leaders in Portland's Christian Science circles. The wedding was in the nature of an elopement, but there was a hearty welcome for the happy young couple when they returned to the Rose City.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Leedy, of Corvallis, were in town Saturday night, on their return from the Grange state meeting at Tillamook. Others from Washington County attending were: C. B. Stokes, and wife, Forest Grove; John Schmelzer and wife, of Scholls; H. H. Holcomb and wife, Bethany, and Sol. Weckert and wife, Sherwood. They all report a good time and fine hospitality over in the coast city. H. H. Holcomb made the trip notwithstanding he was on his crutches.

Editor A. E. Scott, of the News-Times, was down to Hillsboro, Friday afternoon, looking over the news channels at the court house. A. E. says the Grove is sailing along smoothly, and will do quite a bit of public improvement this year in the way of sewer system and macadam streets.

The American Can Company, of Portland, through their assign, has sued the Food Products Co. for over $900 for cans furnished in the 1914 operations. The old company is supposed to have sold to a Utah concern and the new company is to meet all the claims of the old firm.

Thomas Nissen, of Scholls, visiting the San Francisco Fair, writes that he is vastly delighted with it, and states that he frequently meets Oregonians on the grounds.

T. G. and Henry Meacham, of above Mountindale, were city visitors Friday and Saturday. T. G. says the fish are always at home up his way.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown departed the first of the week for Seattle, where they will reside for the future.

FARMINGTONS TAKE GAME FROM HURS

Win Out in Ragged Game Score of Nine to Eight

PITCHERS TWIRL SOME NICE BALL

Fats Run Across Sixteen Scores to Leans' Little Doughnut

Farmington came up from the "stumps," Sunday, and trimmed the Ben Hurs to the tune of 9 to 8. It was a game full of pepper, and could easily have been the Hurs' game with the break of luck shifting the least trifle. Roy Schulmerich, of the Hurs, pitched some very effective ball, and Walt Robinson, but for one bad inning, did some fine work. The ball was thrown away several times by both nines, and it would take an expert to say which nine contributed the greatest units to the error column. It looked like Farmington strong until late in the game when the Hurs had a rally, helped by errors, and came near tying the game, running the score to its final status.

The score by innings—
 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
 Farmington, 0 0 3 3 0 2 0 1 0—9
 Ben Hurs, 0 3 0 0 0 2 3 0—8

Struck out by Robinson, 8; hits off Robinson, 6; 2 walks. Struck out by Schulmerich, 6; hits off Schulmerich, 11; walked, 4.
 Hits, Farmington, Bachelor, 2; Heater, 1; Bogarth, 2; M Robinson, 1; Corrieri, 2; Ehrig, 2; W Robinson, 1.
 Hits, Ben Hurs, Ray, 1; Paul, 1; R Schulmerich, 2 (one three-bagger); Sigler, 1; Harrington, 1.

The fats and Leans met with a Waterloo for the Leans—Fats, 16; Leans, 0. Wells pitched for the Leans, with Andy Pate for receiver; and Andy Wann twirled for the Fats, with Bunsen catcher. The participants:

Fats—Dr. Erwin, Bunsen, Dr. Sears, Sorenson, Wann, A. C. Shute, Mahon, Geo. Alexander, Boeker, L. P. Adams.

Leans—Pate, Wells, B. Lewis, Grover Combs, Joe Harrington, Lard, Dudley, Scown, Via Jack.

The Leans gave a supper to the Fats at the Tualatin Hotel after the game was over. Local drug stores report a run on arnica.

SOME BEANERY

Chas. D. Farnham, who has farmed for many years out on Meek Plains, has a new departure started. For years he raised hops, but several years ago he sold his hopyard, and has started a new agricultural field. Last year Mr. Farnham harvested 12 acres of beans, and this year he will plant 30 acres to the stable product. He says he always has a good market for the crop, and the market is always in season. He has a gasoline thresher, and the way he shells them out is not slow. Mr. Farnham says this is one of the best crops that he can raise, and if he can rent some land close to his home he may put in more than 30 acres this season.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 907; calves, 24; hogs, 2085; sheep, 4242.

Cattle receipts light. Market strong, quality excellent. This week's market can be well characterized in these short sentences. The market has not at any time this season been in better shape. Demand and outlook excellent.

Top hogs at 8 15 makes another high market spot in the United States. Receipts are short and demand unexcelled.

While Spring lambs are taking their usual course in point of prices, the market is considered as good as any. The strong prices at North Portland should appeal to Western shippers.

Theodore Boak, formerly a resident of Gales Creek, departing for Wyoming four years ago, died last week. The body was brought to Forest Grove for interment. He was a son of Mrs. John Erickson, of upper Gales.

MEMORIAL DAY

Rev. R. E. Myers will preach Memorial Day services at the Crescent Theatre, Sunday, May 30, at 11 a. m. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. invite all to attend, and the pastors and members of all other churches are given a cordial invitation to be present and make this a Union service.

The choirs of the various churches are requested to participate under the leadership of Mr. Dunsmoor. On Monday, May 31, the Post and Corps will hold ritualistic ceremonies at the cemetery, from 8 to 10 a. m., and in the afternoon will attend exercises under the direction of the city authorities.—Rodolph Crandall, Commander Gen. Ransom Post No. 69, Department of Oregon.

Pasturage—I have some fine pasture land to rent and can take care of 50 or 75 head cattle. W. S. Willis, on the C. J. Burchell place on the Lonsignont Lake, 4 miles North of Forest Grove. 7-11

COUNTY BAR PAYS TRIBUTE TO JUDGE

Attorneys of Washington County Present Silver Service to Court

AFFECTING SCENE IN COURT ROOM

Retiring Judge and Judge-to-be Exchange Words of Commendation

An affecting scene was witnessed in the court room last Saturday, when the members of the Washington County bar met and presented to Judge Campbell a handsome family silver service. Judge Campbell retires as circuit judge this week, and the presentation was made last week, as well as the addresses of farewell, because the day presented the best opportunity, there being a lull in court proceedings. Hon. W. N. Barrett, in a few well-chosen remarks, lauded the integrity of the court, told how he had endeared himself to the people of the county, and the members of the bar, and then delivered the gift. Judge Campbell responded feelingly, and several times his voice broke.

The following members of the bar spoke of Judge Campbell's six years of service, and paid him eloquent tributes: H. T. Bagley, Judge Hollis, John M. Wall, Benton Bowman, W. G. Hare, Miss Manche Langley, T. H. Tongue Jr., F. B. Tongue, District Attorney, W. D. Smith, and the Judge who will succeed Campbell, Geo. R. Bagley, the new appointee. Judge Campbell felicitated the bar upon Mr. Bagley's appointment, and assured them that his knowledge of law would make him an ornament to the bar. Judge Bagley concluded the remarks, as follows:

"Mr. Chairman, Your Honor, and Fellow Members of the Bar: This occasion has assumed an aspect unlooked for insofar as it concerns myself—but I hope and trust, and in fact, I know, it will not detract from the original felicitations. It is a memorable occasion; memorable because it is the first time that the Bar of Washington County has assembled; auspicious—auspicious because we are about to lose a just Judge. Within a few days twenty years from the time I was admitted to the bar and commenced to practice my profession will have elapsed, and in that time the bench and bar has witnessed great advancement and progress along all civilized lines; has witnessed the evolution of the dual legislature, amendments to the Constitution, and great changes in the laws of the state which has brought about complex questions for decision and interpretation and greatly increased the possibility of grave errors and mistakes. To admit that the bench and bar has made mistakes, and to admit that the bench and bar has committed errors, is but to admit that the bench and bar is human; but the great and overflowing success of the bench and bar in the administration of justice overflows and submerges the errors and mistakes so that they cannot be remembered.

The friendship and cooperation of the members of the Bar in the past has been a source of both commendation and gratification, and no doubt has been of great assistance to the Court in the administration of justice, and with that help and the light of intelligence, instinctive devotion to right, firmness of integrity, and candor of judgment, tempered with mercy, brought to the consideration and disposition of causes by his Honor has won the admiration, respect and confidence of the bar, the officers of the court, and all of the people of the district, and has won for his Honor an enviable, distinct place in the judiciary of the state.

The memory of which these tokens are but slight emblems, of the six years' service of Judge Campbell will be cherished with unfeigned affection by all the members of the bar, and I hope, and believe, I will obtain the friendship and cooperation of the entire bar for the purpose of enabling me to at least attempt to emulate the success, justness and fairness of Judge Campbell." Judge Bagley will assume his duties as Judge, Saturday.

Pasturage—I have some fine pasture land to rent and can take care of 50 or 75 head cattle. W. S. Willis, on the C. J. Burchell place on the Lonsignont Lake, 4 miles North of Forest Grove. 7-11
