

EIGHTEEN CANDIDATES, GODDESS OF LIBERTY

Successful Maiden Will Get Free Trip to San Francisco Fair

COMMITTEE TO PAY ALL EXPENSES

Each Contestant Starts With One Thousand Votes—Equal Footing

The Fourth of July Committee has its Goddess of Liberty contest well under way, and there are eighteen candidates, starting with one thousand votes each. The successful young lady will be given a free trip to the Panama Exposition on the Northern Pacific Steamship, and allowed $50 expenses for the six days' trip.

Each vote in the contest will cost one cent, and ballots can be procured from C. C. Frick, at The Palm; from Dr. Erwin, or from Sam Well, at the Weil Department Store.

The campaign is starting auspiciously, and there should be a lively contest.

Candidates who are entered by their friends are:

- The Misses: Reta Trullinger, Edna Gilkey, Emma Tapper, Ruth Linklater, Lucile Collier, Margaret Mann, Florence Garrett, Ruth Harbison, Agnes Delesman, Mary Sewell, Gertha Olsen, Beth Grandall, Ethyl Blatchley, Zola Welch, Minnie Abbott, Freda Ross, Lenora Gardner, Lucy Weathered.

NEW POSTAL ORDER

Every person in the United States ten years old or over may open an account in a postal savings bank after July 1st, according to an instructive leaflet on the Postal Savings System just issued by Postmaster General Burleson. This important extension of the service will be made possible by permitting persons living in communities so sparsely settled as not to justify the designation of their local post-offices as regular postal savings banks to open accounts by mail.

Under the plan adopted by the Postmaster General for opening accounts by mail an intending depositor, residing where there is no regularly designated postal savings bank, will apply to his local postmaster who will see that necessary identification data is prepared and forwarded to a nearby postoffice authorized to accept deposits. The intending depositor will then be given permission to forward his first and subsequent deposits by money order or registered mail direct to the postmaster at the banking point for which receipts or certificates will be issued. He may withdraw all or any part of his postal savings by mail and on demand together with any interest that may be due him.

SCHOOL HAS BIG DAY

Mrs. A. E. Murrow, teacher of the South Tualatin School, District 33, entertained her pupils at her home, two miles east of town, Friday, May 14, the occasion being the closing day of the school year.

The day was spent in playing games and performing feats. A splendid basket dinner was a feature at mid-day. Later, the school visited the duck farm owned by Mr. Brown, of Moffat. Mr. Brown explained to the pupils the methods of hatching, feeding, caring for and marketing the ducks. They were shown through the brooder house, where 1400 young ducks were being cared for, also the pens of old ducks, and afterward taken to the incubator house where they saw 6,000 eggs in incubators. Mr. Brown demonstrated the care of the eggs while in the incubators. The visit was very interesting and instructive to all, especially to the class in agriculture.

The South Tualatin school, though not large, boasts of many good spellers. The school attended the spelling contest in a body and three won County Championship Diplomas. During the entire year great enthusiasm has been shown by the school in various ways especially in the work of standardization, spelling contest work, attendance, etc. District 33 was among the first to become standard, and what is better to remain standard throughout the entire year.

Do not let your horse stand at a hitching post. Take him to W. J. Quinn's stable, Corner Second and Washington. W. C. Gifford, of the Hotel Washington, has gone East to visit his mother, who is critically ill. He will be absent several weeks. German Lutheran services will be held on Sunday afternoon, at 2:30, at the Congregational church, English Sunday school at 2:30.—E. W. Luecke, Pastor.

William Hiddink was brought to the county seat Saturday night, charged with assaulting one Kirby Harris, of Buxton, with a dangerous weapon. Harris resides on a place belonging to Hiddink, and the two met Saturday afternoon. Words ensued, and Hiddink cut Harris three times with a knife. One of the thrusts is said to have entered the lobe of one of the lungs, but Harris was up and around the next day. Hiddink waived examination before Judge Smith, and his bonds were fixed at $1,000. The sureties are N. R. West, of Banks, and E. J. McAlear, of Hillsboro. Hiddink alleges, it is understood that he knifed Harris in self-defense. The case will be taken up by the grand jury. Hiddink returned home Monday afternoon, and says he will have no trouble in going clear. Hiddink has lived at Buxton, or in the vicinity, for many years, while Harris is a new arrival of several months standing, having come from Tennessee.

For Sale: Auto in first-class condition. Will sell very reasonable, or trade for a good, young team, harness and light wagon. Team must be 1000 to 1200 each. Call 165, Forest Grove—North Seventh Street. 5tf

A sneak thief entered the Hillsboro Mercantile through a rear window, last night, and stole about ten dollars in silver from the office till and a half dozen high-priced knives from the hardware department. The tracks showed but one man at the window, and if there were two, one acted as a lookout. The party first went to the U. G. Gardner shop and stole a pair of pliers, and possibly a bar, with which to raise the store window. The window was found open this morning. Some youngster must have committed the theft, as the track was not large. The safe was not molested.

Money to loan on first-class farm security.—Washington County Abstract & Title Company, by E. J. McAlear, Manager. 4tf

E. A. Snodgrass, who was in the grocery business here for months, moved his family to Portland, the last of the week. In June, Mr. Snodgrass expects to make the trip to California in his auto. He will be accompanied by his wife and little daughter, Theima, and his mother. Besides visiting the Exposition and other points of interest, they will spend some time at Ukiah, the guests of Mrs. Snodgrass' mother, Mrs. Emma Southard.

Taken up: Sorrel mare, about two years old. Owner pay for keeping and advertising, and take same away.—Albert Gritzmacher, Orenco, Ore. 7-9

The placing of oil on the paved streets has started all kinds of canards. One of the stories is that some child fell and fractured her skull, while another is that a citizen fell and ruined a new suit. It is also reported that some lady spoiled a new dress. These stories could not be verified. Wm. Gottlieb's horse, however, fell and is carrying a nice coat of outside dressing.

Good Real Estate security offered for loans at 7 and 8 per cent. Call and look applications over. E. L. Perkins, Hillsboro, Oregon.

About thirty members of the Forest Grove Chapter visited the local Chapter of Eastern Star, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Nellie McKinley, Grand Secretary, and Mrs. Mendenhall, Grand Conductress, of Portland, were in attendance. Refreshments and a program were the features of the evening.

For sale: Coal black Percheron mare, 9 years, absolutely true to work single or double.—Eugene Brown, Cornelius, Or. 9

The Washington County Cow Testing Association will hold a meeting at the court house, Saturday, May 29, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the transaction of important business. All members of the association, and all who might be interested in their work, are invited to be in attendance.

Mail your Kodak films to the Hillsboro Pharmacy. They develop and print, and are the agents for Eastman supplies.

J. J. Krebs, of Rockaway, arrived in Hillsboro Monday, for a few days stay, on leg. 1 business. J. J. says they expect a big crowd over to the beach as soon as the weather warms up nicely.

The Pharmacy has the most complete line of Eastman Kodaks and supplies. They do developing and printing.

C. C. Frick was a Salem visitor Saturday evening, attending an initiation in the Elks Lodge. Portland lodge sent up six passenger coaches with Elks from the Rose City and outside points.

Judge D. B. Reasoner is celebrating his 58th birthday today. His twin sister, Mrs. Emma Reissner, resides at Los Angeles.

Andrew Westberg, of Farmington, was in town yesterday. He reports a good apple prospect.

PARENT-TEACHER ASS'N. WILL MEET TOMORROW

Assembly to be at the High School Building, After Class Exercises

ASSOCIATION ACCOMPLISHED MUCH

Manual Training and Domestic Science Classes to Have a Display

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon, May 21, at the High School Building, to hear the report of the delegates to the National Congress of Mothers. The meeting will follow the class day exercises, which begin at 1:30. The Manual Training and domestic science classes will show a display of their work, and the public is invited to witness the work of the pupils.

The association has accomplished a great deal of good for the Hillsboro schools, and much interest has been stimulated. Parents have more than ever taken an active part in school work, and next year the organization will have a campaign on a greater scale.

Parents are especially invited to come out tomorrow afternoon and get an idea of the progress of school work in these lines.

SURPRISE

Mrs. E. T. Turner, of Laurel, was given a surprise Saturday evening, the occasion being the celebration of her birthday. Music and games formed the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served late in the evening. The guest of honor was presented with a beautiful set of silver knives, forks and spoons. Those present: Messrs and Mesdames E. S. Crawford, D. B. Cooley, F. L. Brown, A. C. Mulroy, Fred and Jacob Schmidt, H. Cline; Richard Rouden, Sydney Rostrum, Roy Fields, Amos Watkins, Dan Chambers, Walter Dailey, Cecil Schmidt, Mrs. Jacob Messenger, Mrs. A. Dailey, Lula Messenger and Mary Willis.

A CARD

To the Patrons of the Peoples' Theatre: I wish to extend to you my sincerest thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the theatre during my management and ownership. I have associated myself with the Grand Theatre, which has its opening in its new house, Friday evening of this week, and the new firm of Phillips & Harrington will give you a cordial welcome. A. C. Harrington.

Orval C. French, of Thatcher, was dismissed yesterday in Judge Smith's court. French had his hearing on a non-support charge. Mrs. French testified that her husband had abused her and had told her to "get out." When her folks came to take her away, however, she admitted her husband begged her to remain, and cried, but she went. As he had provided while she was with him, the court held that when she was gone it was not up to the court to make him carry support to her. The two have a little child. The case merely developed the fact that the girl-wife had cause for a divorce, and, perhaps, alimony, but the non-support case failed.

Forest Grove is to hold a Chautauqua for one week, beginning June 15. The association has raised $1000 for the expenses of the meeting, and the program will be of unusual merit, consisting of songs, instrumental and orchestral music, and addresses by noted platform orators, one of whom will be a senator from Nebraska. Senator Chamberlain will be asked to be present one day, and the people of the Grove and the county are assured that they will have a week replete with interest and instruction. The program will appear later.

An oil tank was received Saturday for the city, and oil was distributed on several streets, Monday and Tuesday. The housewives have been "up in the air" in several instances, where the gummy substance found its way to carpets on the shoes of the masculine gender. But when it settles down it will be a fine estoppel for dust.

The Bismers, of South Tualatin, have received word that Silas Christofferson has sold and delivered to Caranza, the Mexican general, an aeroplane worth $8,000. The money was paid in advance and the machine delivered across the border, when Caranza's aviator took charge.

M. J. Kinney, the timber speculator, yesterday stipulated and confessed judgment in the sum of $37,697.83, with interest, in favor of J. W. Shute, who advanced the money in purchase of timber lands in Washington County. Mr. Shute was given order of sale of the property.

Sam Schmidt, of Laurel, was in the city this afternoon.

Garden seeds in bulk at Green's. A. J. Larkin, of near Scholls, was in the city yesterday.

Bert Rowell, of Scholls, was a city caller yesterday.

Ben Thurnher, of above Bloomington, was in town yesterday.

Emmett Quick, the Forest Grove liveryman, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Grace Larsen, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Nelson, Friday.

The Kodak season is now on. Go to the Pharmacy for your supplies.

Miss Grace Deichman returned from Rockaway, Monday, and is again at her desk with the Wilkes Abstract Co.

Ask to see the new Autographic Kodaks at the Delta Drug Store, Eastman agents.

W. J. Quinn, feed and boarding stables, Corner Second and Washington Streets, Hillsboro. Give him a trial.

Married: Herbert N. Casaday and Bessie Schultz were united in marriage, May 15, 1915, Rev. R. E. Myers officiating.

Mrs. M. A. Powell has a ten months old pullet that is in the race for honors, having dropped an egg measuring 8x6 1/2 inches.

The Knights of Pythias and Ben Hurs will try conclusions at the local ball park, next Sunday. Get out and see the game.

Marriage license was granted Otto Essig and Lucile Hubler, Tuesday. The young couple hail from near Beaverton.

Judge Campbell yesterday granted divorces as follows: Blanche, from Chas. E. Mullen; J. G. from Annie Quigley; Clara from P. T. Gadsden.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Commercial Club announce that the Friday meeting has been postponed, and the date of meeting will be next Wednesday.

Ball game—The K. of P. team and the Ben Hurs will play at Athletic Park, Sunday next. Do not forget it. The Hurs will try to take the game this time, and tie up the average.

Judge Goodin's force of men and teams are working every day on First Street, between Baseline and the Condenser, and it will not be long until the roadway will be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kearney, of near Farmington, were in the city yesterday. They own the Jos. Morrison place. Mr. Morrison is now down at Grants Pass, where he formerly resided.

The Ladies Auxiliary and their husbands and members of the Commercial Club and wives will hold a card party at the Club Rooms, Wednesday eve, May 26. A participation offering of ten cents each will be taken.

John H. Dorian, of beyond North Plains, was in town Tuesday, enroute for Goldendale, Wash., and other Washington points. He expects to visit the famous Horse Heaven country before returning.

Supt. Barnes and assistants in the Eighth Grade Exams have been more than covered the past week or ten days. The next examination for this grade will take place in June, when they will have another siege.

Paul E. Dutton, Portland, and Hilda Gassner, of below Reedville, were united in marriage May 15, 1915, Judge Reasoner officiating. The ceremony was performed in the parlors of the court.

John V. Hale, for years a locomotive engineer on the S. P., arrived here yesterday to take the local freight run between here and Tillamook. His family will live in Tillamook. When the Seashore special is put on Mr. Hale will probably get the engine on the run.

Miss Alma Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Anderson, died May 18, 1915, at her home near North Plains. The family recently came here from Minnesota. Besides her parents she leaves nine brothers and sisters to mourn her loss. Miss Anderson was aged 21 years. Her affliction was tuberculosis. The funeral took place today and interment was in the Dersham cemetery.

Circuit Court: Whitehouse vs. Peter Hansen et al, motion to file amended complaint allowed; Ede vs. Sears, default; Welch vs. Welch, default and decree of divorce, Fannie from Harry, plaintiff to resume maiden name of Hendrew; Hengen vs. Hengen, order made directing testimony be taken on behalf of defendant, Margaret Hengen, at Chicago; R. B. Runyon to take testimony in Gadsden vs. Gadsden, default entered; White vs. Colfelt, latter sued for damages—Colfelt given judgment on pleadings, the court holding that the father had no legal claim for money from the son, and that a jury could not determine the damage; if any existed. All jurors were excused for the term.

NEW THEATRE OPENS TOMORROW EVENING

Neatest Little Playhouse on the West Side of the River

SEATING CAPACITY ABOUT 500 PEOPLE

Decorations Are More Than Creditable and Equipment Splendid

The Grand Theatre, now owned by F. W. Phillips and Alfred C. Harrington, will open its doors to the public tomorrow (Friday) evening, and it is safe to say the public will see one of the finest playhouses to be found in the Willamette Valley outside of Portland. The new theatre has been enlarged by Mr. Phillips, and the seating capacity is now over 500 on the lower floor, and more seats will be placed in the rear and side balconies.

The total investment in the enterprise will closely touch $15,000, and the owners take great pride in the achievement. The walls are beautifully decorated in water colors, and the painting is delicate to a nicety, devoid of the usual garnishment of color sometimes found in such work. All of the work was done by local workmen, and Hillsboro is really to be congratulated upon having talent that can turn out art so pleasing. Barney Lewis is the artist.

Hillsboro is to be congratulated upon having so splendid a playhouse, and Messrs. Phillips & Harrington are entitled to great credit for their enterprise.

Mr. Phillips has evolved the new features and remodeling, and he has pinned his faith on the generosity of the Hillsboro public. There is no reason to believe that he will not have a successful venture. His new partner, Mr. Harrington, takes with him the friendship of the old patrons of the Peoples, and the public will no doubt give the house a more than liberal support.

Addresses will be made by prominent members of the order from the state at large, and the Knights hope to make this one of the best demonstrations ever held in Washington County.

The Haulenbeck orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion. The public is cordially invited to attend, and have a good time. The committee, composed of Julius Schoenberg, F. L. Beach and Wm. Joos, is making every effort to have a grand time.

KNIGHTS PICNIC

Glencoe Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, will hold a picnic at the North Plains park, Saturday, May 22, the occasion to be an all-day affair. Those who attend are requested to bring their dinners in a basket, but there will be refreshment and confectionery stands on the ground for those who do not wish to join in the basket dinner. There will be dancing, afternoon and evening, in the big pavilion.

Addresses will be made by prominent members of the order from the state at large, and the Knights hope to make this one of the best demonstrations ever held in Washington County.

The public is cordially invited to attend, and have a good time. The committee, composed of Julius Schoenberg, F. L. Beach and Wm. Joos, is making every effort to have a grand time.

TEACHERS' REVIEW COURSE

Aside from the regular work in the Normal Department, the members of the faculty have decided to offer a short review course for the benefit of those teachers and prospective teachers who wish to qualify for a Teachers' State Certificate at the next regular examination to be held the last week in June. All the subjects required for any kind of a State Certificate will be taught by instructors who are holders of State Life Diplomas and other evidences of sound scholarship. Classes on Saturday, if enough pupils desire the work to warrant such instruction. The terms are only $4 per week, including board, room and tuition. The teachers will be allowed many extra privileges. This course will begin Monday, May 24, and continue for six weeks or up to examination dates. For further information call or write Sister Superior, St. Mary's Institute, Beaverton, Or.

New legislation on the widow pension law takes effect Saturday of this week. There are very few changes that will affect the Washington County payroll. The provision declaring that $40 is the maximum for a month's payment will make one change here, where a widow has been drawing $55 per month. Otherwise the changes here will be few and far between. The Multnomah court is quoted as saying they will cut the lists where children in the pension age are out at work. Another provision of the law is that the pension is exempt from execution by creditors of the family.

Sheriff Reeves has recovered the mare recently stolen from St. Marys Home, near Beaverton, and the animal was returned to the owner last Saturday. The thief rode the mare out to Houlton, where he placed her in a livery, and for two or three days tried to make a sale. He left then, leaving the mare in the barn. She broke loose and wandered to St. Helens, where she was impounded and sold to pay the cost of keeping. The Sheriff there received a description of the animal and notified Sheriff Reeves that she was there. The thief made his getaway, but the officers now have a good description of him.

Judge M. E. Buck, of Sherwood, was in town Monday. The judge hopes for a favorable vote on the proposed new county down in his section, but would not express an opinion as to how he viewed the result of the vote. The vote must return sixty-five per cent. of the votes of Yamhill, Washington and Clackamas counties outside of the proposed new county, and sixty-five per cent. of the affected district. It is a foregone conclusion that the sixty-five would be forthcoming, but as to the other 35 per cent. there naturally is some considerable doubt.

Mrs. Lottie Smith, well known here years ago as Miss Lottie Lamkin, arrived here last night, having been met in Portland by Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wall. Mrs. Smith came from San Antonio, Texas, where she has resided since the opening of the Mexican troubles, leaving Monterey, where her late husband was engaged in a big smelting enterprise. Mrs. Smith is glad to get back to Oregon, and will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lamkin.

S. E. Bird and A. W. Siegrist tried out their autos the other day, down on Fir Street. The race was a draw, and they stopped to talk the matter over, and consider another date, the exact time of which is not yet decided, it is said. The two paid Recorder McCormick $5 each, Monday morning, as a sort of entry fee, as City Attorney H. T. Bagley expressed it. Some one who did not enjoy the sport made complaint.

The Tillamook passenger has changed its time. It now arrives at the old depot at 9:12, and returns from Tillamook at 4:35. The Main street stop in the morning is about 9:17, and in the afternoon about 4:33. The change is more than acceptable to anyone desiring an hour or so of trout-fishing, to say the least, for they can stop off at Banks or Timber, and have a few hours of recreation.

Mrs. George Overbaugh and two children, of Amsterdam, New York, arrived the last of the week for an extended visit with her brother, J. H. Foote, and mother, Mrs. Foote, of the Tualatin. They will be accompanied East by Mrs. Foote Sr., and will travel via California, and take in the Fair.

Gabriel Lockman, of South Tualatin, was in town the first of the week.
