OLE JENSEN HAS YEARNING TO DIE

Failed to Test the Dope in His Mixture

OLE MAKES GRANDSTAND PLAY

Stomach Pump Disclosed a Perfectly Normal Interior

But for the fact that Ole Jensen neglected to put the carbolic acid in his soda water Ole might not be able to read these lines about himself today.

He went into a confectionery at 409 Hoyt street last night, ordered a glass of soda water from C. J. Glennon, proprietor, and pretended to pour carbolic acid into the glass. Glennon called the police. Meantime Jensen had handed two letters to a patron of the place and had laid "down to die."

Patrolmen O'Dale, Collins and Converse rushed to the scene and conveyed the man to the emergency hospital, where no trace of carbolic acid was found.

One of the letters he wrote was addressed to his mother, Mrs. A. M. Jensen, Box 182, Forest Grove, Ore. It read: "Dear mother: As Ernest has spoiled my life I am going to end it all. Goodbye to all. Your son, Ole."

The other letter was to Miss Ethel Dancomb, 1016 East 7th street north, and also referred to Ernest in these words: "Dear Ethel. I thought I would drop you a line to tell you goodbye forever as I am about to do the funny stunt so be good and good luck to you and Ernest. So be good, dear. Your friend Ole."

Ole was a sick man, however, when the doctors drained his stomach, but it was the pump suction that made him distressed.

NORTH PLAINS GETS IT

At a meeting of delegates from the various Pythian lodges of Washington and Yamhill Counties, Sunday morning at Forest Grove, it was voted that the district convention for 1915 be held at North Plains, on Saturday evening, June 12, at which time Glencoe Lodge's new Castle Hall will be dedicated by Grand Chancellor Dr. Wrightman, of Silverton, assisted by other Grand Lodge notables. A special train will be run from Forest Grove via Hillsboro and Orenco; from the latter place switching to the cut-off, across to the United Railway, and thence west on to the town of North Plains. E. L. Moore and J. C. Applegate were the delegates from Hillsboro.

North Plains has the oldest lodge in the county, and has a handsome new hall. After dedication there will be work exemplified in the rank of knighthood. Judge Goodin has been working hard for several weeks to land the district convention, and he and the oldtimers of Glencoe Lodge have at last had North Plains put on the Pythian map.

THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CROP PROMISES TO BE SHORT THIS SEASON, OWING TO THE FACT THAT CLOVER WAS INJURED LAST YEAR BY THE BORERS. OLD CLOVER FIELDS SUFFERED FROM THE PEST, WHILE THE NEWLY SOWN CLOVER OF 1913 WAS LAST YEAR A SUFFERER FROM THE DROUGHT. THE BORER ATTACKED ENTIRE DISTRICTS, AND IN PLACES PRACTICALLY DESTROYED HALF OF THE STANDS IN FIFTY ACRE FIELDS. DAIRYMEN SAY THAT THE COUNTY WILL NOT RAISE ENOUGH HAY FOR HOME CONSUMPTION, BUT THIS MAY BE OVERDRAWN. MANY HAVE SOWN VETCH THIS YEAR, TO PREPARE AGAINST THE THREATENED SHORTAGE.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailor-made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. Main 384. 52-14

A suit filed in circuit court the past week harks back to the days when Ben Holladay built the O. & C. railroad through Washington County. Ben and his brother, Joe, bought considerable land along the line, mostly in options, however. John Buchanan has brought suit to quiet title on 25 acres of land in the Josiah Linn D. L. C., near Cornelius, and names two children of the late Joe Holladay as defendants—Ben Campbell Holladay and Linda Holladay Dorcy.

The Progressive "500" Club held its regular bi-monthly social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Simms, south of Farmington, Saturday, May 15. Six tables were played, honors falling to Mrs. Sarah Martin and Harvey Jack, after which a sumptuous luncheon was served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Jas. Church and wife, Saturday, May 29.

Ralph Wann, principal of the Orenco schools, was in town Saturday. The Orenco School board has elected the corps of teachers to succeed themselves—Ralph Wann, Principal; C. F. Grover, High School; Miss Edith Iechin, Fifth and Sixth; Miss Ruth Jones, Third and Fourth; Miss Edith Stadel, First and Second. The school is standard, and is one of the best in the county.

Pasturage—I have some fine pasture land to rent and can take care of 50 or 75 head cattle. W. S. Willis, on the C. J. Burchell place on the Lousignont Lake, 4 miles North of Forest Grove. 7-11

Max Crandall left this week for Prineville to act as one of the commissioners to adjudge values and liabilities of the new county of Jefferson. The appraisal must be arranged before the final figures are struck. It will take about three weeks to complete the adjustment. Richard Wiley left last week to assist in the clerical work.

Newton Womer, who has been visiting here and at Laurel for a week, returned to his home at Oakesville, Wash., Sunday. He says that he can see that Hillsboro has improved every time he visits this section.

O. Phelps returned the last of the week from a trip to his ranch in the mountains, between Philomath and Toledo. He was accompanied by his father, who resides in Portland.

White Minorea eggs for hatching—setting of 15 for $1.—Willard Tupper, Hillsboro, Telephone City 502. 49tf

Nohn Nyberg, of Tualatin, was greeting friends in the city Friday. John says that the rains have impeded road work down his way, but that the rock-laying will progress from this on.

Dance at New Helvetia Hall, Saturday, May 29, by Keffer & Haulenbeck, Managers. Music by Haulenbeck Orchestra. You are invited. 9-10

C. E. Deichman states that the Odd Fellows will meet at Roseburg, next year, in the holding of the Grand Lodge.

The Hillsboro Grays will give a benefit ball at Hillsboro Hall, Friday evening, May 28. All are cordially invited to attend.

John Wirtz, of Forest Grove, and Lotus L. Langley, Portland, were in town Monday, attending circuit court.

Money to loan—on farm security. I represent three large fire insurance companies. Give me a call.—E. I. Kuratli.

N. J. C. Christensen, of near Laurel, was in the county seat Monday.

NACHBAURS RETURN FROM GERMANY

Say That German Empire is United and Confident of Victory

CONSERVATION STARTED IN EARLY

As American Citizens Had no Trouble in Leaving for America

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nachbaur, former residents of Newton, returned the last of the week from an extended visit in Germany. Wurtemberg being their objective point in the empire. They report a very pleasant return trip, and say that they had no trouble whatever in making their return. Germans, they say, are confident of winning in the present war, and they are pursuing a course which spells patience and conservation.

Orders are out everywhere, and have been since early last Fall, that nothing of provender or supplies may go to waste. Hundreds of thousands of prisoners are at work, and these outlanders appear to be as well satisfied at work, and better, than if at war. The entire country, they say, is united in the feeling that the Kaiser's arms will be victorious. "They report that France and England have lately arrived at the realization that they have a Herculean task on their hands, and there appears to be dissatisfaction in both countries over results—witness the change of ministry in England. Mr. and Mrs. Nachbaur will remain in Washington County, where they have lived for years.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 941; calves, 44; hogs, 3770; sheep, 3186.

The cattle run was light this week and the offerings were mostly of the lightweight well finished class. Hay feeds brought a good quarter more than was paid last week. Pulp feeds sold for 8 20, the top price for the season. Hay feeds 7 65 to 7 90; cows 6 to 6 50.

Prices went up another notch in the hog division. Choice light hogs sold for 8 25 going down 10 cents near the close of the week. Demand good and market strong. The receipts in the sheep section continue to be liberal. Lambs did not bring as good prices as were paid the previous week, dropping from 8 50 to 8 30 for first class stuff. Same lambs sold off cars at 8 50. Ewes are quoted at 5 25 to 5 75; yearlings 7 to 7 25.

Everybody knows that bulk garden seeds are best. Buy them at Greer's and get the price and assortment.

J. B. Stewart and wife are out on the farm in South Tualatin for the Summer. J. B. couldn't keep away from the "simple life."

A. G. and F. A. Beals, of Tillamook, were in the city the last of the week, registered at the Hotel Washington. They returned home Sunday.

Henry Challacombe, of Cornelius, and H. C. Pearson, of Iowa Hill, were in town Saturday, and met at the Argus office. They were neighbors on the mountain before Mr. Challacombe moved to town.

Circuit Judge Geo. R. Bagley went to Salem, Saturday, and was sworn in as Judge of the new Washington-Tillamook judicial district. He first sat on the bench for Judge Campbell, at Oregon City, Monday to relieve that jurist, who is taking a week of vacation.

Miss Anna Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Duffy, was in Hillsboro last week enjoying a short vacation with her parents. She is training for the duties of a professional nurse at one of the prominent Portland hospitals.

A. W. Lofstedt, of near Farmington, paid the first tax into the sheriff's office, Saturday—and went on his way rejoicing. The tax was written by the treasurer's office, but the money was paid in the sheriff's office.

J. C. Lamkin reports the three-linker bunch as having a fine time over at Newport. While there he met with Rufus Waggener, Willis Waggener, Geo. H. Wilcox and other former Hillsboroites. He states that Walter Hamer, of Forest Grove in the old days, is now the postmaster at Newport.

A. U. Davis went to Columbia County, Saturday, to hold examination for the qualifications of holding down one of the post-offices over in the Nehalem. Mr. Davis had two or three people writing, and the Hillsboro man, as school master for Uncle Sam, acquitted himself with honors. He returned the first of the week.

Grace E. Douglas has sued Wm. E. Douglas for divorce. They were married at Ritzville, in 1906, and have one child, a boy, aged 6 years. She says that when they lived at Lind, Wash., the husband drew a revolver on her and that she found it so unpleasant that she was obliged to leave him and support her son. They have a house and lot at Lind, and she wants one-third of the property and such alimony as the court may direct.

The heaviest downpour of rain of the Spring came Saturday night, and it was a soaker. It was general all over the county, and wet the soil several inches in depth. It meant a great benefit for grain sown the past two weeks—and there was a great deal of late grain sown on the low lands in particular. Along the Tualatin River thousands of acres of grain had just appeared through the soil, and the soaking will send it upward in great shape.

Dr. E. H. Smith has completed a handsome boat house bungalow at the Big Bend, and has installed all the comforts of home. A telephone has been connected, and the bungalow is equipped for keeping house. He and Mrs. Smith will spend their Summer there. The physician has a motor boat to traverse the Tualatin to the bridge, and from that point, within five minutes after a call he can be in his machine and on the way to professional duties.

IS THERE A JOKER IN NEW LIQUOR LAW

Does Wording of Statutory Form Mean "None for Beverage?"

IF SO, GOOD-BYE SHIPMENT

For Perjury Means a Heavy Fine for Consignee

The question now is—did some one slip a joker into the 1915 law permitting one to order 2 quarts of whiskey and 24 quarts of beer? The law says that no liquor can be shipped, under the law taking effect Jan., until an affidavit is signed by the party making the order, and, to quote the law:

"Said affidavit shall be substantially in the following form: 'County of —, State of Oregon, as: I — being first duly sworn, depose and say that my name is —; that I am the consignee of that certain parcel or package containing intoxicating liquors which is now in the possession of the following named common carrier, to-wit: — at —; that said package contains — quarts of —; that I have not received any shipments of intoxicating liquor from any common carrier at any time within the four weeks last past excepting —; that I am over 21 years, and that I am not an habitual drunkard. That said — is to be used for sacramental purposes only.'"

If the words "Said affidavit shall be substantially in the following form" mean anything, and the form as prescribed above must be followed — and who is to say it is not law — then the ordering for "beverage" purposes will be tabooed. The reading of the statute refers several times to "the foregoing affidavit."

Here will be a hair-splitting proposition for "threshing out before the law is finally interpreted.

MEMORIAL DAY

Rev. R. E. Myers will preach Memorial Day services at the Crescent Theatre, Sunday, May 30, at 11 a. m. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. invite all to attend, and the pastors and members of all other churches are given a cordial invitation to be present and make this a Union service. The choirs of the various churches are requested to participate under the leadership of Mr. Dunsmoor. On Monday, May 31, the Post and Corps will hold ritualistic ceremonies at the cemetery, from 8 to 10 a. m., and in the afternoon will attend exercises under the direction of the city authorities.—Rodolph Crandall, Commander Gen. Ransom Post No. 69, Department of Oregon.

Kodaks and Supplies, developing and printing done. The Delta Drug Store, Eastman Agent. 7-11

W. T. Kerr went to Castle Rock, Wash., the last of the week, and while there bought a general store. He will take possession this week.

The next meeting of the German Speaking Society of Washington County will be held at the Toni Sinay place, above Blooming, at 1:30 in the afternoon, Sunday, May 30.

May L. Payne has sued Geo. Payne for divorce. They were married in this county in 1907. She alleges desertion, and asks for a return of her maiden name, Mary Mead.

Black bass are numerous now in the Tualatin, but they are more than foxy about being caught. Old sportsmen are catching a few in reason, but they are very wary. They can make a pan smell like a whiff of Paradise, however, and the fishermen are reading up on how to make the catches.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

Waldo Olson, Ernest Creekpaum, Miss Marguerite Mann, Mrs. Creekpaum, Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. Shinnaberger, Miss Myrtle Sninnaberger, and Miss Gertrude Ray, of Hillsboro, were guests at the Mr. and Mrs. E. L. James home, Varley, Thursday evening last.
