It is a safe proposition that the surviving veterans who took part in Decoration Day services many times thought of the probability of war in the present crisis, and breathed a prayer that such a calamity be spared our government.

Portland's Rose Festival begins next week—and the Rose city will be the Mecca of many lovers of the beautiful. May rains, however, have raised havoc with our roses—but there are millions left.

JOHN F. DODSON

home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H.

hunting. This is also construed to mean a widow, or members of her family, or an unattached woman, when on property owned by the veteran must have a license, but he will be given his paper when he proves service to the satisfaction of the county clerk, who will then issue with-

How Paper Cuts Steel.

A steel screw which for twenty years helped hold together the guide board of a wallpaper trimmer was worn completely in two merely by paper rubbing against it. During that time approximately 40,000 rolls of paper were trimmed by the machine. The screw was cut as smooth as could have been done by any instrument.

Percussion Caps.

Percussion caps (taking the place of the flintlock) came into use about 1820; Snider's system of breech-loading was invented in 1859, although there had been attempts made at Snider's achievement several years earlier than that date. The muzzle loaders held on until the seventies, when they were practically discarded by all armies.

A Stamp Hint.

A stamp without mucilage may be quickly attached to an envelope by rubbing it on the mucilage end of the envelope when it is moistened and you are sealing it. Rub the back of the stamp on the ends farthest from the point of the envelope flap, and you will find both envelope and stamp will stick well when the mucilage bottle is not handy.

The Difference.

"In many ways," observed Mrs. City flat, who was visiting a friend in the country, "I find that a horse is much like a man."

"Was, I dunno," answered Farmer Squash as he applied a match to his corn cob pipe. "I have found them quite different in some respects. For instance, a horse is worth more after he's broke."—Judge.

JAPAN'S FISH FESTIVAL.

The festival of the Japanese boys is called the "fish festival." Every family with a boy sets up a tall flagstaff in the doorway of its house. At the summit of this flagstaff there is a gilt ball and a long string of fish made of oil paper or cloth strung out from the pole.

The golden ball signifies a treasure which the fish are supposed to be trying to reach in vain.

Horrible.

"We had to let the servant go."
"What was the trouble?"

"She went out one night when we were at the theater and left poor little Edie, the dear, all alone."—Detroit Free Press.

Why He Was There.

"And why do you now come and propose marriage to me?" said the sweet young thing. "Did that other girl you were in love with throw you down?"

"No-no," stammered the young man;
"her father threw me out."

Rastus Again.

"Well, Rastus, what did that chap say when you kicked him out of the house?" asked the colonel.

"Nothing," replied the old darky. "He was Jess put out, dat's all."—Judge.

Of Two Evils.

Madge—Why should you wish to be married? It would only bring you worry.

Marjorie—I know it, dear, but I'm worrying more because I'm not married.—Life.

Woodcraft.

You can make fire by rubbing two pieces of dry wood together, but it is not believed this method will ever supercede the plan of rubbing a match against a piece of sandpaper.—Kansas City Journal.

Cows the Size of Sheep.

The smallest cows in the world are found in the Samoan Islands. The average weight does not exceed 150 pounds, while the bulls weigh about 200 pounds. They are about the size of a Merino sheep.—Chicago Journal.

Solving the Mystery.

"What do you make of his name?"
asked the police chief.

"Well," responded the detective,
"from the spelling, I should judge that he's either a parlor car or a Russian dancer."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Considerate.

"When you didn't have the fare did the conductor put you off and make you walk?"

"Oh—! Why merely put me off. I could have sat on the curb so far as he cares!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Advice.

"Nobody listens to advice."

"You're wrong. One fellow always does."

"Who's that?"

"The fellow who's giving it!"—Cleveland Leader.

Ordinary.
