

PYTHIANS HEADED FOR NORTH PLAINS, JUNE 19

Big Delegation From Yamhill and Washington County Lodges

GLENCOE LODGE TO DEDICATE HALL

Arrangements are being made for special train across to United

Knights of Pythias from Yamhill and Washington Counties expect to hold one of the most successful conventions in Pythian history, at North Plains, Saturday evening, June 19, and the local lodge there is putting in every minute to make the entertainment worth while.

Arrangements are being made for a special train on the Oregon Electric, out of Forest Grove, to carry McMinnville, North Yamhill, Forest Grove, Gaston and Cornelius, as well as Hillsboro delegations to the convention town via Orengo and the West Union cutoff. It is expected that over three hundred Pythians will be in attendance.

Glencoe Lodge No. 22, one of the oldest in the state, and which recently built a handsome Castle Hall in North Plains, will dedicate their new home on that evening, and Grand Chancellor, Dr. Wrightman, Silverton; Lou Stinson, Salem, and Gus Moser, Portland, will be there to take part in the ceremonies.

Hillsboro Lodge is expected to put on the work of the ritual in the Knight's rank. North Plains K. of P. say they will give the boys the time of their lives—and they will make good.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 418; calves, 19; hogs, 2781; sheep, 6288.

With depressed condition of the cattle market last week and Monday being a holiday, the receipts in the cattle division totaled 14 loads. The principal buying was done by out of town buyers from Oregon points, who took all offerings at slightly higher prices than those prevailing last week. Choice steers sold at 7 50, and cows are quotable at 6 50. Strictly choice bulls will bring up to 5.

The quality of hogs being offered is not as good as should be available for market at this season. Swine which have been allowed to run on pasture while fattening or which have been fed fattening rations for only a short time are soft and waxy and do not make firm pork. One small lot of hogs brought 8, Monday, while the bulk went at 7 85.

A great many of the sheep offerings of the last few days have not been strictly choice, and prices have ranged accordingly. Spring lambs, 8; yearlings, 7 to 7 25; ewes, 5 25 to 5 50; wethers, 6 75.

THE PROGRESSIVE "500" CLUB met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Church, on the River Road, Saturday evening, May 29. Six tables of "500" were enjoyed, honors falling to Miss Eva Ingram and A. P. Ingram. A splendid luncheon was served, and each guest was favored with a miniature American flag which was worn throughout the evening in honor of Memorial Day. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Combs, Saturday evening, June 12. All members are asked to be prompt for this particular meeting.—Secretary.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. Main 384.

Hazel Mills Royal has sued Osman Royal Jr. for divorce. They were married at Stevenson, Wn., in January, and the young bride alleges that the husband has failed to provide for her. She also says the husband admonished her to keep the marriage a secret and would not tell his friends of the wedding, and that he lived with her but two days. The result has been a nervous breakdown, and she wants her divorce and a restoration of her maiden name.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro, Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

Mrs. W. J. Weston, of near Sherwood, died Tuesday, June 9, 1915, after an illness extending over many months. Her maiden name was Sarah Beavet, and she was born in this county, April 9, 1859. She was wedded to Mr. Weston, May 22, 1874. Her husband, eight sons and one daughter, and 2 grandchildren mourn her death.

L. J. Creps recently returned from San Francisco, driving a Ford machine, averaging 100 miles every day. When he came through the mountains in Northern California, Creps says he passed many big machines anchored in the mud. He shipped through one stretch of 60 miles, where the road had been torn up.

Otto and Walt Wismer, Fred Dylse and Cas. Taylor, of Cedar Mill, returned the last of the week from a week's trip to Tillamook, overland. They took over 20 head of stock to the new farm recently purchased by Otto Wismer, near Cloverdale, Tillamook County, pasturage being the objective idea.

J. M. Townsend and his son, Earl, have gone to Washington to take charge of a 300-acre ranch belonging to a widowed sister of Mr. Townsend. They will remain during haying and harvesting, and J. M. will oversee the work, while Earl will be one of the teamsters.

L. A. Kingkenny and wife, of East Portland, were out last week, visiting friends. King is busy with his briquette proposition, and says he is going to have an industry that will make him and his associates wealthy.

Deputy Sheriff Applegate is more than busy these days, looking after the tax department and other routine work. He has been given a new roll-top desk, and this greatly adds to the convenience of this department.

The Women of Woodcraft will give a midnight dance, at W. O. W. hall, Saturday evening, June 19, one mile west of Cedar Mill. Tickets, 75c. Good music, and everybody invited. 12-3

Sherwood will tomorrow vote for and against $5,000 for the purpose of taking over the electric light plant, and, if purchased, to make extensions.

ANDREW "OLE" OLSON KILLED ABOVE BANKS

Jumped From Loaded Wagon and was Crushed by Log, Friday

COMPANY IN THE INDUSTRIAL PLAN

Olson Was Well Known Around Hillsboro, and was an Unmarried Man

Andrew Olson, aged 43 years, was instantly killed by being crushed by a log at the Carnahan & Oakes sawmill log-landing, Friday afternoon, about 5 o'clock. Olson was riding in on a truck, loaded with two logs. Chas. Palmer was driving, and when they reached the log pile, the wagon suddenly tipped over. Olson jumped, but in so doing, struck a log on the ground, and fell back. The log descending from the load struck him, mangleing him terribly. Olson formerly worked around Hillsboro, and was known by the sobriquet of Ole. He was industrious and genial, and had friends among the workmen.

No blame is attached to the driver, who was using the utmost care in handling his team. The Carnahan & Oakes people are signed up with the State Industrial Accident Commission, and the state fund will take care of the loss.

Coroner Barrett went up Friday and investigated the affair.

John White, of near Cornelius, was arrested the last of the week, on a charge of having threatened to kill a neighbor, Ernest Creeksbaum. Judge Smith fixed his bail at $1000. White is of nervous temperament, and the warm weather evidently has made him hysterical.

Mr. and Mrs. Armour D. Kirkland, of Oakland, Cal., were in the city Monday, accompanying D. B. Cooley, of Laurel. Mrs. Kirkland is a sister of Mrs. Cooley. Mr. Kirkland is with a big terminal company at Oakland and San Francisco. They are up to visit the Rose Festival and make a short visit with their relatives here and in Portland.

J. Teuscher Jr., field man for Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, was in the city, Saturday, conferring with the county court, relative to a ward of the Society—Edith Mary Galloway, daughter of S. D. Galloway, of Banks. The girl who is sixteen, will be operated on for curvature of the spine, and the father came down, and after a lengthy conference, put up $50 toward defraying the expenses.

W. P. Howell, of Bethany, was brought in to Dr. F. A. Bailey's office late Sunday evening, suffering with several severe knife wounds. Howell tells that he and Fred Townsend had an altercation, and that he called Townsend a liar, whereupon Townsend drew a jack-knife and assaulted him. Howell had a bad cut over each eye, one in the side of the head, and a bad stab in the arm. In trying to seize the knife, he was also severely cut in the hand. Dr. Bailey used 12 sutures in sewing the wounds. Monday morning Howell swore to a charge of assault against Townsend. The two had been good friends prior to their argument.
