UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 584; calves, 227; hogs, 4206; sheep, 2685.

A steady market with light receipts for cattle. Quality of steer offerings is good to choice. She stuff selling well. Grass steers bringing 7.50, demand fair.

Monday saw the largest run of hogs for some time, 3000 head being registered. Top hogs advanced from 7.85 to 8.10, bulk of sales 8 cents.

Receipts for sheep have been light for this time of the year. Prices lower on all lines, except Spring lambs which still bring 8 for top quality.

Winthrop Davis, of Portland, has sued Julia P. Davis for divorce. The husband alleges they married at West Newton, Mass., in Sept., 1906, and during the same week the bride deserted him and has refused to live with him.

An echo of the defunct Equity Warehouse concern, of Portland, is of record in circuit court. When the warehouse company was organized a number in this county took stock, some paying cash and others paying with notes. Two of these notes were assigned to D. Tschabold, of Helvetia, and he has sued for the amounts—$25 each. The signers of the notes will probably fight the issue on the grounds that the notes were given without value received.

TO AUTOMOBILE OWNERS

The committee on the Fourth of July celebration are putting forth every effort to make this the best celebration that Hillsboro has ever had. Owing to the elaborate preparations being made for this, the parade committee have left nothing undone to make this the largest, grandest, and the best parade that Hillsboro has ever seen. We ask the co-operation of every automobile owner in this county to participate in this great pageant. Prizes will be awarded for the best decorated autos. It is not necessary to decorate your auto to come in the parade, but again we ask that every automobile owner in this county should feel it his duty to help the committee and participate on the morning of July 5.

Late Testimonial: To whom it may concern:

I beg to advise that I have taken Chiropractic treatments from the best operators in Portland, Tacoma, and Seattle, but I have yet to meet a Chiropractor who gives as satisfactory adjustments as Dr. McMahon, although one and all did not fail to charge higher rates for much less proficient and specific work.

Dr. McMahon's skill has prevented the necessity of a surgical operation in my case.
