Let Congress and the S. P. Co. get together on some basis and settle once and for all the land question that is tying up over two million acres of timber and agricultural lands.

The monthly social of the Baptist Young People was well attended at the residence of Mrs. Ketchum, last Friday evening.

The Den of Sweets will have a stand at the Celebration Grounds in a most conspicuous place, and you will have no difficulty in finding it.

This has been moving week for the Boeker Basket factory. The plant has moved over to the former Wilkes' Garage quarters.

REA-HOYT

A wedding of interest to Hillsboro people was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Devereaux, at Eugene, Oregon, June 28, 1915, when Miss Arah C. Hoyt, a sister of Mrs. Devereaux, was united in marriage to Leonard Rea, a prominent florist of the University City.

The bride is a daughter of W. R. Hoyt, of Albany, and a sister of Laurel M. Hoyt, of Hillsboro, and Clarence Hoyt, of Tacoma. She resided in Hillsboro several years, and was prominent in church and musical circles, and is well known as one of the charming vocalists of the state.

Miss Winifred Olson, of Portland, has arrived, and will have charge of the Hillsboro General Hospital, to be opened in a few days by Dr. L. W. Hyde, at Sixth and Lincoln Streets. The equipment is now being installed, and will be modern in all respects.

The Tillamook Beach Special, S. P. Railway, commences today. The train out of Portland leaves the old depot here at 3:02 p. m., and the return train from the coast arrives at the old depot in Hillsboro at 9:22 p. m., tomorrow. This schedule will remain throughout the Summer season.
