SCHOLLS RESIDENT IS BACK FROM THE FAIR

Says Oregon Has Made Best Showing. Funds Considered, in Union

FERD GRONER PLEASSED WITH FAIR

Made Trip South in Auto, Accompanied by Mrs. Groner and Miss Farrar

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Groner, of Scholls, have returned from an overland trip to the Panama-Pacific Exposition and California points, the travel being made in Mr. Groner's big National. He was as far South as Paso Robles, and visited in the Yosemite, the journey requiring nearly seven weeks.

Mr. Groner spent eight days at the Fair, and he says that Oregon, considering funds expended, has made the best showing, beyond doubt, of any state in the union.

Fruit and vegetables are yet to come to swell the exhibit of Oregon's productions, and he says that any Oregonian who will conscientiously investigate will have every reason to be proud of his adopted state.

"To miss the Fair is to miss an educational trip worth a lifetime, and Oregonians who can possibly make the trip should do so. He will return better satisfied with Oregon and her possibilities. We were there eight days, and there were many things we did not see—but it is a revelation to even the traveler over many lands. Yes, I think I shall make another trip a little later on, when Oregon gets her showing of horticulture and walnuts. I consider it the best trip of my life, taken all in all."

Dr. C. S. Crane, of Grand Forks, North Dakota, visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Maynard, of this city. The Dr. is a nephew of the late Miss Amelia Everett. He found an old classmate here, having attended Ann Arbor with Dr. W. D. Wood, and the visit was in a nature of a reunion.

The county jail added three new prisoners to its list Sunday and Monday. Sunday morning Sheriff Reeves arrived from Asotin, Wash., with Harry Gardner and Milo Blucher, charged with larceny. These were the two lads who were placed in custody two weeks ago at Asotin and later broke jail, being caught at Lewiston, Idaho. Sheriff Reeves went to Asotin, via Olympia, for requisition honors, and the trip consumed several days time. Monday morning Wm. McQuillan arrived in from California with Andrew Schild, wanted on a charge of having robbed one of the Lehman brothers. Schild was working for the Lehmans' last August and a day or so after the theft of $350 he left without drawing his pay for labor. McQuillan was making a legal trip South, so brought the prisoner back for the sheriff, saving him a long trip.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

D. E. Blackburn, Wells-Fargo agent, received the aeroplane owned by Munter, here for the Fourth of July engagement, Friday, by express. The express charges were only $25, from Seattle, and the machine was erected, or it would have been doubly expensive. The machine came in on the Tillamook train in the morning.

Here you are Mr. Farmer—7 and 8 per cent. money—see me. E. L. Perkins, Room 1 Commercial Bldg., Hillsboro, Ore.

Jacob Nyberg, of Tualatin, transacted business with the county court Friday. John has been in charge having left the job. Nyberg says Tualatin had some trouble in getting an orator for the celebration, but Judge Moreland finally prevailed on to make the bird of freedom scream.

Good Real Estate security offered for loans at 7 and 8 per cent. Call and look applications over. E. L. Perkins, Hillsboro, Oregon.

Mrs. Gus Lewis and daughter, Mrs. Carl Olsen, departed Saturday morning for a visit with relatives at Chehalis, Wash., and will be absent two weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Bailey and son, Bruce, of Portland, were out Monday, taking in the celebration.

The Pharmacy has the most complete line of Eastman Kodaks and supplies. They do developing and printing.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Stevenson visited at Rockaway, Sunday and Monday, and M. H. tried the fishing for a day.

Mr. and Mr. Roy Courtney, of Portland spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Dahl, of near Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Blair, of Ryan Place, were out the Fourth, guests of Mrs. Ruth Blair.

A. L. Grebe and wife, of near Laurel, were city visitors Saturday.

Auto-livery service at the W. J. Quinn barn, Second and Washington.

Nathan Noland, pioneer of the fifties, was down from Cornelius, Saturday.

I. H. Maxwell, the Mountaineer hopgrower, was down to Hillsboro, Friday.

CIVIC PARADE BEST IN HISTORY OF CITY

Imposing Pageant Pleases Thousands of County People

BUSINESS HOUSES REPRESENTED

Over Thirty Floats, Many Beautiful and Unique, in Caravan

There have been parades and parades, but the effort Monday morning was the best the city has ever witnessed. There were over thirty floats in line of formation, and the drum corps of old veterans led the procession. The line of parade was—

Flag bearer, J. C. Lamkin, in auto. Mr. Lamkin is a veteran of the Civil War, on the Confederate side.

Fife and drum corps—old veterans who know how to play martial music, conducted by John Baldwin, of the Grove.

Veterans of Civil War in autobus.

Boy Scouts, commanded by Rev. Harris, marching.

Camp Fire Girls, marching.

Hillsboro Fire Department with team and apparatus.

W. C. T. U., calling for national prohibition.

Evangelists demonstration.

W. C. T. U., with banner, calling for 1920 National Prohibition.

Fourteen young ladies in white, demanding peace.

Prohibition demand.

Dr. Robb, in prohibition car, 1920.

Mrs. David Kuratli, in auto, with ten little girls, representing the Needlecraft.

Ben Hur float, representative of galley with oarsmen in costume. A very nice showing.

Moose auto-float, driven by Dictator Collier—Moose head at front of car.

L. O. O. F. float, with three links.

Nine Sacajawea girls, in costume.

Boy Scout float, showing action in field.

Orencia band, followed by Speaker W. N. Harrett.

Goddess of Liberty, Miss Lenora Gardner, with maids of Honor, Miss Margaret Mann and Miss Luella Collier.

Emmott Millinery, befloored float, with four little boys, driven by little girl, in chariot.

Weils Department Store, display of merchandise.

Ford Agency, old auto, with camp outfit, probably most unique in parade. Car had camp outfit, showing dilapidated condition, asking the way to agency to buy a new machine.

Wahner Shoe Hospital, a big shoe—on foot.

C. C. Store, with mercantile display.

Spicker, harness and saddles, two divisions, horse and float.

Koerber's Confectionery, four on foot, confections represented.

Drink Celso Kola, "First for Thirst," 5c at fountains.

Cordwood for sale, delivered in Hillsboro, at $2.75 per cord.—Telephone the Siprell Mill. 16

Joseph and Gabriel Essner, of above Mountaineer, were in the city Friday.

Mail your Kodak films to the Hillsboro Pharmacy. They develop and print, and are the agents for Eastman supplies.

Henry, Thos. G. and George Meacham, of Meacham's Crossing, were Hillsboro visitors, Friday, attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Dan Roe.

Money to loan—on farm security. I represent three large fire insurance companies. Give me a call.—E. I. Kuratli.

Alex Gordon, of North Plains, was in town Saturday. He says that the hay harvest was under full swing out in his section.

Money to loan on first-class farm security.—Washington County Abstract & Title Company; by E. J. McAlear, Manager. 4tf

Thomas Tucker, of Woodstock, came out to spend the Fourth with his daughter, Mrs. U. G. Gardner, and incidentally to meet the oldtime pioneers of his acquaintance.

Will start baling hay about July 8. Those who want work done should write me at Beaverton, Ore., Route 2, or telephone Farmer 363, Hillsboro—L. Siegenthaler.

The Ladd & Reed Farm has one of the finest hay crops along the highway between here and Portland. While not as heavy as in some former years it is certainly a bumper crop, to say the least, considering the general yield.

For Sale: Auto in first-class condition. Will sell very reasonable, or trade for a good, young team, harness and light wagon. Team must be 1000 to 1200 each. Call 16x, Forest Grove—North Seventh Street. 5tf

John Beatty has rearranged the seats in the circuit court room and the new placements are much better than of old. As the old seating stood, one had to walk down toward the center of the railing. The new formation takes the party straight down to the opening.

Robt. Hartrampf came down from Spokane to remain over the Fourth and visit relatives. He says that there will be a fair, average crop of wheat in the inland Empire, but that in many places it has been damaged considerably by the hot winds. Robt. states that nowhere in the Northwest has he seen crops to compare with those of Washington County.

While the lumber business from a wholesale standpoint has been unusually inactive the local demand, at lower prices, has not been under that of last season, since the first of the year. The Badger Lumber Co. reports sales as fully one-third better than last year, due in part, Mr. Frenz thinks, to a hard campaign. He says that while the profit has not been as good, owing to reduction of values, business otherwise has been satisfactory. Other yards report an increase in sales, and this Fall will doubtless see a still larger increase.

Albert Lutringer, aged 32 years was drowned in the Tualatin River, near the Herman Koehnke place, a mile and a half from this city, Southwest, last Friday evening. The dead man had been working for Mr. Koehnke for several months. Late in the evening he went to the river, accompanied by Herman Koehnke Jr., a lad of ten or twelve. The boy remained on the bank and Lutringer went in bathing. Lutringer swam across and played in the water awhile on the opposite bank, and then started across to go out. When midway of the stream he sank. After waiting a little while the boy became frightened and wended his way home. It was some time before he could tell a coherent story, and the alarm was given: Search was made for hours, but the body was not located until about four o'clock Saturday morning, when Jake Whitmore found it. Lutringer was a native of Alsace-Lorraine, and came to America in 1910, landing at New York, where he has a brother and sister. Dr. Barrett, the coroner, did not hold an inquest. Lutringer was an industrious fellow, and gave his employer complete satisfaction. The dead man had taken out his first papers when he was in New York.

John Boge, of Farmington, was in the city the last of the week.

For rent: House and barn, woodshed and chicken house. Good water. Will rent for 6 months or a year. North Hillsboro, Garibaldi Ave.—Address J. W. Enocha, Oreco, Ore. 18-5

ELLIS CASE ATTRACTS ATTENTION IN COURT

Brother and Sister Brought From Gales Creek for Examination

CHAPTER OF TROUBLES IS RELATED

Minds Over-Wrought From Misfortune, Examined for Insanity

Perry Ellis and sister, Kittie M. Ellis, of above Gales Creek, were brought before Judge Reasoner the last of the week for examination as to their sanity. Dr. F. A. Bailey was the examining physician, and M. B. Bump and Attorney Garrigus, the latter of Portland, appeared in behalf of the Ellis brother and sister. One witness swore that he lived in their neighborhood, and that the two were irresponsible. That both are imbued with the idea that someone is trying to poison their spring and do them other injuries is patent.

Ellis' attorney exhibited a letter from Dr. Tamiesie, written some years ago, showing that their well below Beaverton contained poison. Ellis contends that the water was taken from the well, and that it was placed there for the purpose of killing off the family.

Perry Ellis was well known in this city several years ago, when he conducted a photograph studio. He was a fine workman, and had a considerable business. From here he and his father and sister moved down on the Portland mountain, where the sister still owns a piece of land, as well as the brother. They moved up to Crystal Springs several years back. For some years Perry has been freely saying that people tried to poison his well, or spring, attempted to kill his stock, and he also contended that some one was trying to steal his livestock. A year or so ago the humane officers interfered with the way he was feeding his horses, and Ellis imagined that some one was prosecuting him. When the baby was killed a week ago Sunday the brother and sister were beside themselves. Coroner Barrett went to the home three days after the death and the child was still in the house. The official buried the little one and would not allow the family to attend, fearing there would be trouble. Both brother and sister have had the same hallucinations as to persecution, and the case is a sad one. Their property, both on the Portland mountain and on the Gales Creek heights, is heavily mortgaged.

The fees by months for the last six months of 1914 and 1915 are given:
