We Want Everybody to Know

That we will, beginning at once, give Cash Register receipts with every cash sale, showing amount of sale, date and who made the sale. We will ask you to keep these receipts as we are going to give back to our cash customers one day's cash sales each month. We will select one day each month and will announce in our window on the 5th day of each month the date we have selected, and then all you will have to do is look over your Cash Register receipts from us and see if you have any bearing that date, if you have just bring them to us and we will refund your money. There is no trick to this proposition.

THE GOOD JUDGE CALMS THE COMBAT

SOME OF THE REAL TOBACCO CHEWERS ON YOUR LIFE PARTNER

WITHOUT IT LIFE WOULD NOT BE WORTH LIVING. HELP YOURSELF

CUT loose from the big, bulgy wad. For a clean, small chew there's nothing like it. It is the Real Tobacco Chew that you hear men telling their friends about.

You get the good of the richest tobacco grown.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW IS NOW CUT TWO WAYS!! W-B CUT IS LONG SHRED, RIGHT-CUT IS SHORT SHRED.

Takes less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is the Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end. The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

(Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.)

Change the Subject.

When the troubles of life assail you
And the morrow looks bitter and drear,
When no prayers and no hope avail you,
A path that is better and clear—
Change the subject and take up another.
You'll find this was the best.
Count your fellow man as a brother
And lay the old trouble to rest.

No trials of life were e'er mended.
By worry and fret and care.
New thoughts and new hopes have been
Fried in the depths of despair.
Change the subject and barter your sorrow
For a task that is newer and bright,
And the dawn of the sun on the morrow
Will clear the dark shadows of night.

No life was e'er free from despairing;
There are worries assailing us all,
But the pains that are smarting and tearing
The heart will grow leaner and small.
When the subject is changed for another
You'll find this way is the best:
Count your fellow man as a brother
And lay the old trouble to rest.
—Horace Seymour Keller.

A Real Difficulty.

They met on the highroad and shook hands.
"Shure, Pat," said Murphy, "bettin's a shockin' bad habit."
"Shure, Murphy," said Pat. "But why?"
"Ye know Costigan?"
"Troth I do!"
"Well," said Murphy, "he bet me a sixpence to a shilling that I couldn't swallow an egg without breakin' the shell ov it."
"And did ye lose the bet?" asked Pat.
"No, Pat, I won it," replied Murphy.
"Then phwat's allin' ye?"
"Shure, it's the egg that's allin' me," groaned Murphy. "If I jump about I'd break it and cut me stomach wid the shell, an' if I kape quiet it'll hatch an' I'd have a shinghl rooster scratchin' me inside!"—Ferguson's.

Know What He Means

"It's five years ago today I'm going to celebrate my wedding anniversary."
"Wouldn't wedding? Wouldn't mean?"
"No; wouldn't. Five years ago we since I asked a girl if she'd marry me and she said she wouldn't."—Rowan Magazine.

Accumulated Something.

General William Marshall, retired, of the United States Army, is one of the social lions of Washington. The general weighs something over 300 pounds net. One day he was dining with President Roosevelt.
"General," said the president, "I am glad to see you looking well. You can never get any sympathy on account of your health. You seem to have accumulated flesh very rapidly these last few years."
"Mr. President," said the stout old soldier, "for mercy's sake don't begrudge me this flesh. I have been in the army for thirty-two years, and this is the only thing that I have ever accumulated since my enlistment."—New York American.

The Basis of a Spanking.

"Wully," said Mrs. MacHigh to her little son as they emerged from the station at Saltham-by-the-Sea; "now that we are at the coast, mind and e'er yer father papa' when he comes down for the week end. Ye'll no forget, wull ye?"
"Wully, noaring the big sea, felt graciously inclined to promise anything and told his mother he wouldn't forget."
On the Saturday morning Mrs. MacHigh was sitting on the sands beside some "swell" seaside acquaintances watching the children playing. Thinking to impress her neighbor, she called out in her best society voice, "Welle, your papa is coming down the day."
"Oh, is he?" answered Welle, busily engaged at a sand castle and quite forgetful of Monday's promise. "An' wull my father be w' us?"—Dundas.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County.
Mary L. Payne, Plaintiff, vs.
George E. Payne, Defendant.

To George E. Payne, the above named Defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby notified and required to appear in the above entitled court and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause, on or before the 23rd day of July, 1915, said date being after the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons upon you; and if you fail so to appear for said relief, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit: For a decree forever dissolving the marriage and marriage contract now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant and restoring unto the plaintiff her maiden name, namely, Mary L. Maul, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Hillsboro Argus pursuant to order of the Honorable Geo. R. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled Court, made, rendered and dated upon the 9th day of June, 1915, and which said order requires that said summons be published in the Hillsboro Argus for six successive and consecutive weeks the date of the first publication thereof being the 19th day of June, 1915, and the date of the last publication thereof being the 23rd day of July, 1915, and which order requires that you appear and answer said complaint on or before the 23rd day of July, 1915.

Wm. G. Hare, Attorney for Plaintiff.

SUMMONS.
