VERBOORT WINS GAME FROM BEN HUR NINE

Locals Played Shut-out Game After First Inning

VISITORS GET ONLY THREE HITS

Fast Work on Both Sides Feature of the Game

In a fast and well played game, the Verboort team defeated the Ben Hurs, Sunday, by a score of 3 to 0.

The locals played a shut-out game, but were outclassed by the visitors. The Verboort team is one of the finest yet seen in Hillsboro this season, and besides being good ball players are good, clean sportmen. Jansen, the visitors' shortstop, is one of the fastest infielders ever playing here. Both Donovan and Sohler were very stingy with their hits.

The box score following tells the story:

THE CARRY IS GLAD TO GET THE GOOD JUDGE'S TIP

IT'S a glad day for a tobacco chewer when he finds the Real Tobacco Chew. And when a man uses it himself, finds how good it is, he takes pleasure in letting his friends hear the good news. You get the tobacco solace and comfort.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.
66Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.99

The Way Out.
Uncle Zeko had confined in a pen two pigs of the "ranchback" variety. One morning when he went out to feed them they were not there.
"What's the matter, Uncle Zeko?" asked a neighbor, noticing the deep dejection with which the old dorky was looking down into the empty pen.
"My hawgs is gone gone."
"Holen?"
"No, suh! I don't see no signs dat anybody stole 'em."
"Did they climb out over the top?"
"No, suh! I couldn't do dat."
"How do you think they got away?"
"Well, suh, my 'pinion is dat dem hawgs kind o' ralsed themselves up an alidge an' crope through a crack."

An Accommodating Boy.
A Newark woman who lives in an apartment house changed her roomman not long ago, and the next day the youth who drove the team for the new man put the piece of ice on the dumb waiter in the basement to be hoisted up. She pulled away.
"Heaven," she exclaimed, "that new roomman certainly gives good weight!"

"WHAT ARE YOU BEEN FOR?"
After much effort she got the dumb waiter up to the kitchen level. To her amazement there was a small boy sitting upon the ice. With what little breath she had left she demanded:
"What are you here for? Why in the world did you make me pull you up here?"
"Why," replied the youngster, "I thought maybe the ice would be too heavy for you to lift, so I came up to help you off with it."

His Only Escape.
A certain French journalist was one day disagreeably intruded upon by a creditor, who announced his intention of not departing until his bill was paid. The creditor planted himself upon a chair, and the journalist beheld him, with consternation, draw a package of sandwiches from his pocket as though to fortify himself against a long stay. Several hours glided by. The journalist showed no signs of leaving. Suddenly the journalist arose and with bits of newspaper began carefully filling all the apertures through which air could come into the room. He then made preparations for lighting a charcoal fire. Just before applying the match he wrote something on a large sheet of paper and pasted it upon the wall. The paper was worded, "Take notice that we die of our own will!"
"What are you doing?" cried the creditor uneasily.
"Well, my friend," replied the journalist tranquilly, "your society would render life perfectly intolerable, so we are going to commit suicide together."
It is needless to say the creditor left.—Lippincott's Magazine.
