The Expected Happened: In the same city lived two men, the one afflicted with a distressing stammer, and the other a confirmed joker.

TRUMAN L. BONNEY

THROW HIMSELF INTO THE STREET: Colonel Bill got caught by a debtor, so unerring was his judgment of men, but his transaction with old man Blankerton got an exception to the rule.

It was W. S. Gilbert who once remarked, "It is easy enough for bishops to be good on a salary of $5,000 a year, but we have to be good for nothing"—a pause—"and some of us are."

Getting It Exact: A New Yorker who recently returned from a visit in Boston vouches for the truth of the following: One afternoon he found the six-year-old son of his host settled in the drawing room with a sheet of paper before him and a pencil clamped in his chubby fist.

"Well, Bobby," he asked genially, "are you drawing an engine?" Slowly the child looked up, and slowly he spoke: "It would take a very strong boy to draw an engine, but I am making a picture of a locomotive."—Youth's Companion.

The Scrap Book

A Glancing Compliment: Here is a good sea story from the late Frank T. Bullen's "Recollections."

The next morning the chief yeoman of signals saluted Bullen and asked him casually if he knew the ship's steward. He replied that he did not.

It was seldom that Colonel Bill got caught by a debtor, so unerring was his judgment of men, but his transaction with old man Blankerton got an exception to the rule.

When the paper was a long time overdue and there was no prospect of a settlement, to the eminent disgust of the colonel, he declared, with a strong Anglo-Saxon emphasis, that he would sell Blankerton's note for 50 cents on the dollar.

"Bill, heard you'd offered to sell my note for 50 cents on the dollar."

"Yes, I will."

"Will you sell it to me at that rate?"

"Yes, sir; I'll sell it to you at that rate."

"All right, Bill; make out a new note."

Colonel Bill's symptoms of apoplexy became noticeable from that moment.
