ANY FROM THIS CITY AT SAN DIEGO, CAL.

Hillsboro People Will Find Many Friends Down There

ONLY DOING NICELY IN SOUTH

Greener is Conductor on San Diego Street Car Line

Hillsboro is pretty well represented at San Diego, Cal., these days. Mr. Wells, formerly of Star Mill, resides near that city. His son, Eugene Wells, has an auto stage from San Diego into the Imperial Valley, ending at the coast city. C. J. Greener is conductor on the street car system, one of the finest in the United States. He resides at East San Diego, as well as his mother. Each have nice homes. Harold Greener is in the bookkeeping department of one of the largest mercantile establishments in San Diego, and making good. W. E. Thorne and family reside in the Southern California city, and take a great interest in their little home. A. M. Wells, now in Hillsboro on a visit, also resides there. E. Wheeler and wife reside a few miles out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Louis McAvoy reside at Coronado beach, which is fifteen miles out of the city. Mrs. McAvoy, known here as Angela, is singing through the summer season at Palm City, Coronado Beach, and the couple are talking of going to Brazil for the winter. Mrs. Barber, a sister of H. D. Schmeitzer, of Hillsboro, is also spending the summer season in San Diego country. Mr. Word, who managed the Hillsboro telephone a few years ago, is now in Elmer Schmeitzer and Thos. Swings, formerly of Hillsboro, of Los Angeles, are now driving auto stages between Los Angeles and San Diego, a trip of about 140 miles, and return. They are on the road every day, and all the trip is made on a cement road except about 28 miles. This gap will be closed by October 1, and on the trip can be made in 5 hours on a hard surface boulevard. Their families reside in Los Angeles.

Anton Pautmeir, of near Farmington, was a city caller Saturday afternoon.

Carl Pfahl, of above Blooming, is greeting friends in Hillsboro, the last of the week.

Mrs. Harry Crooley, of Tacoma, Wash., is visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hines, this city.

Mrs. J. C. Applegate and children are over to Newport, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Payne Br., and will remain several weeks.

A. C. Shute motored over to Rockaway, via Sheridan, the first of the week, to join his family. He will remain over at the beach several weeks, and enjoy the pleasures of beach life.

Bethany Grange will give a midnight dance, Saturday Evening, August 14, beginning at 8 o'clock. Good music and good management. Tickets, 50 cents. Cream and refreshments at a stand. Everybody invited.—D. Sullivan, Chairman Committee.

The Portland Press Club will keep open house August 9-14, inclusive, for all who visit Buyers' Week, in the Rose City. Hillsboro has several Press Club members, and all are unanimous in inviting all Hillsboro or Washington County buyers to make the Press Club in the Elks building, opposite the Hotel Oregon, their homes, while in town. The latch string is on the outside. Take the Stark Street elevator and you will find the club on the second floor. You can write home, or rest, see how a real Press Club is conducted, and get close to the newspaper game. All merchants and their families are expected to avail themselves of the club advantages.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

W. J. J. Muller, the Centerville painter, is being sent to Snug Harbor, a sailors' home, near New York City. Muller was an old sailor, and belonged to a sailors' organization which provides a home in old age. A few weeks ago he suffered a paralytic stroke. John Vanderwal, who sailed the sea with him years ago, went to Troutdale, Friday, to tell the old mate farewell. Muller worked all over Washington County plying his trade for many years.

The Hunger Bros. Lumber Co., of near Manning, are about to move their mill, and have a fine lot of dry, clear lumber, and No. 1 common on hand, and it must go.—Hunger Bros. Co., Manning, phone Buxton, 4-5. 14-26

For the big laugh and for two hours of solid enjoyment, visit Richards & Pringle's minstrels, who visit the Crescent Theatre, Tuesday, August 10. Popular prices. It is time to laugh and here is where you will laugh at your heart's content. This road show is one of the real entertainers on the road. To miss it will add a year to your age and to hear them will take five years from your shoulders.

Order your hopyard supplies early. Hop stoves, galvanized hop baskets, hop pipe, etc., at L. Brown's, Main and Fourth Sts. Get his prices. 15tf

Messrs. John M. Wall, Thos. Talbot, and August Tews and their families, arrived O. K. in San Francisco, and their overland auto trip was one of pleasure. Some of the party may return by steamer.

Here you are Mr. Farmer—7 and 8 per cent. money—see me, E. L. Perkins, Room 1 Commercial Bldg., Hillsboro, Ore.

Mrs. J. A. Imbrie returned from Los Angeles, San Francisco and other California points, the last of the week, and left for the Imbrie summer home at Rockaway, the first of the week.

For Sale—First class Cement Brick machine, good as new, cost $150. Will take $30 cash.—L. Reynolds, Aloha, Ore. - 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moon, of Centerville, were in the city Friday morning, greeting county seat friends.

John D. Koch, supervisor of the Blooming district, on the hill, was in town Saturday morning.

Jas. Loudon, of above Blooming, transacted business in the city Saturday evening.

J. T. Young and family are over at Barview, for their Summer vacation.

MRS. BETSY O. THORNE FORMER RESIDENT DEAD

Passes Away at San Diego, Saturday, July Twenty-Fourth

LIVED IN HILLSBORO MANY YEARS

Came to Oregon in 1861, and Was Aged Over 80 Years at Death

Mrs. Betsy O. Thorne, widow of the late E. D. Thorne, died at the home of her son, W. E. Thorne, at San Diego, Cal., July 24, 1915, after a short illness. A few hours before her passing, the Argus representative visited the Thorne home to tell the aged woman a farewell, but she was sleeping peacefully, and was not awakened. A few hours afterward her son was reading the paper to her. She remarked about the great death toll of the year, and of the age being fraught with horrors. She then gave a convulsive catch for breath, and, without pain, passed into the beyond.

Mrs. Thorne's maiden name was Betsy O. Gurley, and she was born at Parahville, N. Y., April 8, 1835, being aged 80 years 3 months and 6 days. She married Elias D. Thorne in 1854. Two children were the result of the union. They came to Oregon in 1861, residing at Portland and Hillsboro many years, moving to La Mesa, Cal., in 1909, and to San Diego in 1913. The funeral took place July 27 and the body was interred in Greenwood Cemetery, San Diego, by the side of her husband, who died several months ago. Many friends attended the last rites, and the floral offerings were profuse and beautiful.

The Thornes were for many years actors in Hillsboro social and civic life. They formerly owned the property one door West of the Plymouth Church and also the property now owned by Judge Geo. R. Bagley, as well as a farm on Jolly Plains.

C. H. Feer, of near West Union, was in the city Saturday.

Wm. Fizzle, of near Laurel, was a county seat visitor the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stevens, of Portland, spent Sunday here and at Meacham's.

Hubert Bernards, of McMinnville, was down to Hillsboro, Monday, on legal business.

Walter Altman, of West Hillsboro, has been quite low for several days.

Court Reporter C. Runyon, of Portland, came out Monday, and was transacting business at the court house.

Money to loan on first-class farm security.—Washington County Abstract & Title Company, by E. J. McAlear, Manager. 4tf

Born, July 31, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Gust Forsberg, of Cherry Grove a son. The father is in the mercantile business in the new city on the upper Tualatin.

Geo. Biersdorf and family were in from North Tualatin Plains, Monday, and Miss Oda Schulerich accompanied them home. The Biersdorf hop crop promises to be one of the best in the county, from all indications.

J. H. Foote, of the Hotel Tualatin, and John Ryan, carrier on Hillsboro, Route 3, departed this week for a trip to San Francisco. Ryan will go as far as San Francisco, while Mr. Foote will go as far South as San Diego. They go by steamer out of Flavel.

The 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Goodwin, of near Timber, became tangled in some blackberry vines, Sunday, and fell on a railroad tie, sustaining a very severe scalp wound. Dr. W. D. Wood attended the injuries, the father bringing the lad in on the Tillamook line Sunday evening.

There will be no circuit court here during August, the immediate docket having been fairly well cleared. The Loudon case, set for Monday, was postponed until September because of difficulty in getting necessary witnesses. Judge Bagley, District Attorney E. B. Tongue, Court Reporter Runyon, Raleigh Runyon, Judge Dimick, of Oregon City, and Ex-Senator Fulton will leave in a few days for the upper McKenzie river, for an extended trip.

Richard Hoyt spent the weekend at Seaside.

N. Bangs, of Timber, was a city visitor the last of the week.

Wanted, to rent: A farm of 50 or 100 acres. Address Box 200, Laurel, Ore. 18-21

Chester Alexander, of the S. P. Co., was in Hillsboro Friday morning.

Buy your Kodaks and supplies from the Delta Drug Store. Agents Eastman Kodak Co.

Mrs. L. W. Hyde and Miss Katherine Lee departed for an outing at Rockaway, the first of the week.

The Pharmacy has the most complete line of Eastman Kodaks and supplies. They do developing and printing.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wolf, of near Scholls, are very proud of the advent of a boy a few days ago.

Mail your Kodak films to the Hillsboro Pharmacy. They develop and print, and are the agents for Eastman supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Johnson and family departed yesterday for an extended vacation at and near Seaside.

Adolph Siegrist, of the Hillsboro Mercantile Co., accompanied by his family, departed Monday for a month's stay at the Rockaway beach.

Money to loan—on farm security. I represent three large fire insurance companies. Give me a call.—E. I. Kuratli.

The Moose social evening last Thursday night was well attended and a fine program was rendered. About 150 participated in the entertainment.

H. H. Hall, the oldtimer, of Shady Brook, was in town Saturday. H. H. still contends that Shady Brook is just about the garden spot of the country—and it sure is one of them.

Notice is hereby given, that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by Mrs. L. B. Conger after this date. Hillsboro, Oregon, July 29, 1915.—L. B. Conger. 19-1

L. J. Corl, of Corvallis, was here the first of the week, the guest of his son, O. A. Corl, who resides here. Mr. Corl is conducting a book store at the Benton county capital.

Dr. R. E. Schenk and wife and two daughters, of South Bend, Wash., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ross, the last of the week. They are enroute to California, and are making the trip in their auto.

C. E. Thompson, through his attorney E. B. Tongue, has sued the Multnomah Garage & Auto Co., for $300. He says the company did some auto repairs for $11.80, and that the work was so worthless that it caused another breakdown which will cost him $150 to repair. He wants $150 damages aside from this.

The Ambrose Burdall Co., a paving company, has sued the city of Forest Grove for payment of warrants issued in 1914 for paving several blocks with bitulithic. The warrants which are demanding payment amount to $9,151.76, and the plaintiff company alleges the city has made no provision for a street fund to take up the paper.

John Vanderwal Saturday received a check from the Westchester Co., in the sum of $700, covering the Mrs. Rose O'Connor fire loss. Vanderwal does not carry this company in his list, but when the loss took place he wired the information as a matter of courtesy. Upon adjustment the check was sent to the gentleman.

Dr. L. W. Hyde operated on Mrs. A. J. Wienecke, of Timber, for abscess of the kidney, the last of the week. Drs. Ira E. Barrett and Fred Anderson, of Orengo, assisted. While Mrs. Wienecke, of near Farmington, was visiting the patient at the Hotel Tualatin, the other day, the elder woman was stricken with apoplexy, and for several hours was in a critical condition, dying Sunday evening.

E. L. Naylor has sued the Southern Pacific for $564 damages for loss of hay in a warehouse fire at Forest Grove, on the morning of July 31, 1913. Naylor alleges that he had 47 tons of hay stored in the building and that careless handling of an engine, the sparks of which ignited the hay, started the conflagration which spelled a total loss, building and contents. Naylor is represented by Attorney H. T. Bagley.

GREAT YEAR FOR THE OLD COUNTY

Winter Wheat Goes Fifty One Bushels on Blooming Ranch

BATCHELDER GETS BIG WHEAT YIELD

Herman Kamna Raises Three and One-Half Tons Timothy per Acre

This is a great year for Washington County, after all, and threshing reports are coming in, justifying the predicted yields. Henry Kamna, of near Blooming threshed 51 bushels of Winter wheat to the acre, while W. L. Ratchelder, whose ranch is near North Plains, had one field that went 45 bushels, and another that yielded 50 bushels per acre. Herman Kamna has a field of timothy that went three and one-half tons per acre—some crop of fodder. From all sections where threshing is in progress comes the report of good yields, and the poor yield—that is to say, the places where the expectations did not pan—are few and far between. However, there is an occasional report of only 21 bushels where 35 and 40 were expected.

It is safe to say, however, that the county will produce one-third to one-half more wheat than it has in any former crop. Winter oats are coming along nicely, and the yield will be better than usual. Spring sown grain of all kinds, with the exceptions that prove the rule, will produce better yields than any crop of the past few years. Washington county is doing itself proud in 1915, thank you!

CIRCUIT COURT

Judge Bagley held a session of circuit court Monday morning, hearing ex parte matters. The case of the Groner & Rowell Co. versus W. F. Wohlschlegel was dismissed and attachment dissolved; the divorce case of Helen Hopper against R. H. Hopper was dismissed; judgment was entered in Kelly vs Epler; F. Carney, charged with gambling, was fined $25, which was paid.

Geo. J. Harding, who was extradited and brought home from Montana, charged with non-support of wife and children, was given a suspended sentence upon plea of guilty, and the court decreed that he must pay the $125 costs incurred in bringing him back, at the rate of $10 monthly, and that he must support his wife and family, and not quarrel with the better half. Harding promised to do this and was allowed his liberty.

The case of State versus C. W. Loudon was set for Sept. 24, as necessary witness could not be brought into court for trial, Monday.
