ROBERT SMITH IN TOILS OF THE LAW

Arrested Saturday Morning at Scofield, for Larceny

MAKIN TO PORTLAND FOR TRIAL

Police Flanders Runabout in East Portland a Year Ago

Robert Smith and a Mrs. Makin were arrested by Sheriff Reeves at Scofield, above Buxton, Saturday morning and turned over to Multnomah officials. Smith stole a Flanders Runabout a year ago, taking it from Portland's East side. He drove to Tillamook with the car, taking Mrs. Makin with him. When he reached Tillamook, Smith stored the machine in a barn, telling the party he would return later. Smith then went into Portland, and was arrested on another charge and sentenced to serve time.

A Tillamook deputy sheriff located the machine in a curious manner. The party owning the barn told the officer that a machine was in his barn and had been there for months. The deputy examined the auto and found the engine number to be the same as the stolen machine, although the machine plate number had been changed.

Meanwhile Smith, who had changed his name several times, went to Scofield where he worked for the Eagle Lumber Company. He settled at Scofield, in a tent house, and another woman joined them. The second woman was a daughter of Mrs. Makin, and she conducted a barber shop.

Sheriff Reeves found several skinning knives in the Scofield outfit, and he believes that Smith has at one time been one of the hustlers killing veal in East Washington County. While he was looking at the knives, the woman, who was in the tent house, raised objections, but the officer kept on inspecting. She said: "This house is full of cracks and you needn't think I can't see you." Reeves told her he would examine all their effects. The Smith-Makin party were not told the nature of the charge against them, and they passed through Hillsboro. The machine is still over at Tillamook.

John M. Wall and family rolled in from their California trip, Saturday afternoon, about five o'clock, having been traveling for a month to a day. They left here in company with August Tews and family, Hillsboro, and Thos. Talbot and family, of Cornelius. They went South to Frisco, took in the Fair, and then motored down to Santa Barbara where they visited W. J. Wall and family. They then returned to San Pedro, where they took the Roanoke for Portland. Arriving in San Francisco the inspectors put the vessel in the dry dock, thus cancelling their transportation to Portland. They thereupon cashed in the passage and proceeded to motor North. Tews and family went on over to Netarts, and Talbot and family stopped at Corvallis to visit Tom Whitehorn and family. The Walls returned in the pink of health and the trip has done them a world of good. Wall is now ready to settle down to his law practice and will patiently wait for another world's fair.

Bob Lucas, the alleged safe cracker—and who has served time for that crime—is again in the toils of the law. This time it is a baby put the hooks into Lucas. He turned up at the police station, Sunday, with an infant, alleging that he found it on a Portland sidewalk. He said that two men were with him when he made the find, but on taking the officers to where the men were alleged to have been stopping, he escorted the officers to an empty house. This aroused their suspicions and they put Bob in. It will be remembered that Lucas was held here several months on a suspicion of having robbed the Banks store.

B. J. Sloop has sued Bertha Sloop for divorce. He says his wife has been charging infidelity for years, and has at various times caused him to sell out. He says that when he was in Astoria he employed 25 women in his retail milk business, and his wife charged him with flirting with the "whole darned bunch." Sloop states that he gave his wife $5,000 of property, and he is willing to pay ten dollars per month each for the care of the four children, minors, or those of them who wish to remain with the mother.

Ernest Hellaire and wife, of Holland, Oregon, in the Josephine mining district, came up last week and are visiting at Glenco with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hellaire. Ernest is mining down in the Kirby section and he brought up some mighty fine placer prospects. While here he was looking into the Food Products product to see if it would not be a good thing to ship into the mines.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

And. Bendler and Gerhard Goetze were among those from this county who attended the German-American meeting at Portland, Monday. Dr. Hexamer was the speaker.

FELL FROM FREIGHT IN UMATILLA COUNTY

Ezra S. Booth Killed in Accident While Traveling

BECOMING SICK, WENT TO PLATFORM

Was Mason and Member of Modern Woodmen—Resided at Lewiston

Clarence Young returned Friday evening from Lewiston, Idaho, where he went to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Dr. Ezra S. Booth, who died at Walla Walla, last Friday. Mr. Booth was traveling East out of Umatilla, and had received a permit to go by Freight so he could make Walla Walla in time for a passenger train. He became sick and went to the front platform to get fresh air. He became dizzy and fell between the cars, his right leg being completely crushed.

The train crew took him to Walla Walla in a special train, and he was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he died several hours after the accident.

Mr. Booth was born at Brandon, Wisconsin, Sept. 13, 1864. He was married to Miss Mae Young, at Hillsboro, October 12, 1883. The widow and the two children, Joyce Mae and Melvin LeRoy, survive. The funeral was held at Lewiston last Sunday.

Booth lived in Hillsboro lots in the nineties, and moved to Forest Grove after a short residence here. He was a jeweler by profession, and conducted a jewelry store at the Grove. From Forest Grove he went to Seattle, and later moved to the Idaho country.

Dr. Booth was a man of retiring disposition, but made many friends. He was a member of the M. E. Church, which he joined early in life.

F. S. Estep hands the Argus a Kentucky paper which tells of a man carrying fifteen counties in the recent primaries, on the democratic ticket, although he had advertised that he was not a candidate, and asked people not to vote for him. That must be a mighty good state for residence for a democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Newlin and daughter and son, Miss Madge and Carl, Hutsonville, Ill. were guests of Benton Bowman and family, Friday. They have just returned from the San Francisco and San Diego fairs, and are now at Seattle, from which point they start home this week. Mrs. Newlin is a cousin of Mrs. Bowman.

Jas. Austin Hooper, who robbed the Wesch saloon in a holdup, taking about $270 from Wesch and his bartender, was arrested some time ago for robbing a post office, at Grants Pass. Sunday he mixed with the Grants Pass sheriff, tied him, gagged him, and made his escape. It is understood that Hooper admits that he was in the Tualatin hold-up.

The Progressive "500" Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sorenson, Saturday eve, Aug. 7. Several tables were enjoyed by members and visitors, honors being claimed by Mrs. Victor Dahl and E. S. Combs. A dainty luncheon was set by the hostess, after which music and singing were enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seater and Mrs. Sarah C. Martin, Saturday evening, August 21.

Mrs. Violet Ackley, of Kansas City, Mo., arrived the last of the week for an extended visit with her brother, L. W. House. The brother and sister departed Tuesday morning for the Belknap Hot Springs, on the McKenzie, and they were accompanied by Judge D. B. Reasoner, wife and daughter, Miss Inez. They expect to be absent ten days, and the two gentlemen took their guns along so as to be prepared for a venison hunt.

A visit to the R. O. Stevenson ranch, Sunday morning, disclosed one of the scenic spots on lower Gales Creek. The judge's ranch is on the crest of the mountain a few miles northwest of Forest Grove, and from his doorstep one has a splendid view of lower Gales. His deer park has eight deer, two of which are this year's fawns. The majority of his keep are of the spotted variety, and the two big bucks give a man the "buck ague." Stevenson's prune and apple orchards are as fine as any in that end of the county, and his home is one that is good enough for anyone.

AL. G. BARNES CIRCUS HILLSBORO TOMORROW

Friday, August 20, a Big Day for "Dad," "Mam" and the Kids

VISITOR HAS BEEN HERE BEFORE

Many Individual Acts Are Worth Price of Admission

A splink, splanking new show, a new program—not so new, however, but what the time-honored features which have made the circus America's most popular form of amusement, are retained, are the promises held forth for the circus that is to visit Hillsboro on Friday, August 20.

The circus referred to, of course, is the World's greatest wild animal show—the Al. G. Barnes circus. In saying "new" show, it isn't inferred that the Barnes show is new to the people of Washington County, for it has visited here before and is strictly in keeping with the truth to say that its performances always gave genuine and wholesome satisfaction. The show's performances here the last time were witnessed by large audiences and it is safe to say that they will again enjoy seeing the Barnes wonder-collection of educated animals.

Acts that thrill acts that amaze, others that instruct and those that create laughter—all of them entirely new and of an original character—are promised to those who witness this season's performance. The scope of the feats performed by the animals has been profusely broadened for this year's tour. Grown people will find in the thrilling spectacular acts a satiating array of entertainment, while the kiddies will have bushels of fun watching the antics of the half hundred animal clowns. The comicality of these laugh creators is also guaranteed to be juvenescent to all grandpas and grandmas present.

Special attention is directed this year to the big wild animal features in which the largest groups of lions, tigers, and bears ever shown are performed. Educated Royal Bengal tigers, thirty acrobatic and comedy bears, the horse riding lions, bears, leopards, and hyenas will certainly gratify anyone's appetite for the sensational.

Acts of a quieter character but none the less interesting, in which domestic animals are the star actors, are generously interspersed throughout the program. There's a massive ensemble in which a hundred beautiful and highly educated ponies take part. The world's champion dancing horses—sixteen in number—are shown in one of the very greatest circus features of all times. Trapeze performing monkeys, tight and slack rope walking dogs, monkeys, goats and pigs, and raging ostriches, combine in giving some of the most delightful circus entertainments ever witnessed.
