OREGON ELECTRIC TELLS OF GOOD CONDITIONS

Bulletin Sends Out Report on Washington County Crops
CROP IS UNDER AVERAGE
Some Localities, However, There is no Complaint on This

The Oregon Electric bulletins, which were issued the first of the week, have the following reports from Washington County:

Garden Home—Some potatoes and pears for shipment. Large crop of fruits and vegetables other than above consumed locally.

Beaverton—Wheat and oats about 15 per cent above average yield and yield. Harvesting of threshing now on with minimum loss. Early potatoes, quality and quantity very good. Late potatoes suffering from lack of moisture. Need rain or will be seriously damaged. Onions fair average. Heavy crops squash, beginning to move with quality above average.

Orengo—All crops except hops looking better than expected. Onions has pretty well developed hop crop.

Hillsboro—The threshing progress rapidly. Wheat yielding about 40 bushels per acre; oats about 60. Hops troubled with mildew, but being well sprayed.

Forest Grove—All crops best condition for years. Wheat, oats, corn, coming in rapidly.

Clatskanie—Exceptional acreage produced 52 bushels per acre wheat and 80 bu. per acre oats. However, this is considerable above average. Farmers report all very good. Weather ideal for harvesting. Hay crops slightly weakened some time ago by frost. Potato crop looking good.

Tillamook—Weather conditions favorable for harvesting and threshing. Reports indicate unusually good yield. Hop growers advise their crops badly damaged by vermin. They are spraying thoroughly. Early onions averaged 40 to 50 per cent on account of rust. Early potatoes usually good. Some damage by late frost, but very slight. Later crops saved in good shape. All fruits and vegetables abundant.

Buy your Kodaks and supplies from the Delta Drug Store. Agents Eastman Kodak Co.

P. Adams returned last Friday evening from a few days stay at the Tillamook resort.

Money to loan—on farm security. I represent three large insurance companies. Give me a call. E. I. Kuratli.

Mrs. J. C. Applegate and children returned the last of the week from an extended visit with her parents at Newport.

Here you are Mr. Farmer—7 to 8 per cent, money—see me. L. Perkins, Room 1 Commercial Bldg., Hillsboro, Ore.

Mrs. H. Davis and L. H. Peters, above North Plains, were in the city Friday, and called at the bus office.

A big timber fire above Mounddale, near Denny Crossing, caused considerable anxiety, last Friday. The fire warden for the county was notified and soon the blaze under control.

L. T. McPheeters, Wm. Nelson, Chas. Follett and Grover Combs, Hillsboro, and Bud Watson and Dr. Pollock, of Forest Grove, returned from Saddle Mountain, Saturday night, where they hunted a week with but poor success. Grover, however, returned with a record, having killed a monster bear. He shot it on the top of a cliff 300 feet high, just an hour before they started. Bruin rolled clear to the bottom, and when Combs reached the stream he found nothing but a few hairs remaining. He carries the hairs in his pocketbook as proof of his kill.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

Little Joseph Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Francis, who are in the South visiting the Fair, had a narrow escape from drowning in the Tualatin, last Saturday, near Oak Park. The little chap was wading, and when warned to not go over his depth, became confused and stepped into a deep hole, disappearing from sight. His half-brother, Henry Olanie, who was on the opposite bank swam to his rescue and soon had the lad at the surface. He was rescued in opportune time as the current would have carried him into a difficult place.

Order your hopyard supplies early. Hop stoves, galvanized hop baskets, hop pipe, etc., at L. Brown's, Main and Fourth Sts. Get his prices. 15tf

J. T. Young and family returned Thursday afternoon last from their annual outing at Barview. J. T. says it has been very cool over on the coast, and that he came home just to get warmed up. As last Thursday night was one of the warmest of the season J. T. more than likely was satisfied. He says that there has been a big crowd over on the Tillamook beaches.

For Sale—Two months old pigs. Good stock. Fred Muhlly, 41 miles south of Cornelius. Phone 525, Oak line, Cornelius. Address Route 2. 224

Jack Harding, of Pendleton, visited last week with J. B. Campbell, of beyond North Plains. While here the two Jacks, who have known each other for years, and who have not met for some years, motored to The Dalles, over the Columbia River highway.

Mail your Kodak films to the Hillsboro Pharmacy. They develop and print, and are the agents for Eastman supplies.

Mercury stood 96 in the shade, Saturday, and the wilted collar was much in evidence. As the humidity was very low the heat was oppressive, being worse than Friday's blistering heat.

Money to loan on first-class farm security.—Washington County Abstract & Title Company; by E. J. McAlear, Manager. 4tf

W. N. Barrett, Wm. Schuler, and J. W. Connell and families have returned from the Tillamook beaches.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bentley, of Ninth and Oak Sts., Aug. 20, 1915, a son.

Julius Asbahr and J. H. Simpson, of South Tualatin, were in town the first of the week.

Fred Eggiman, of near Sewell, was in the city Monday.

EUGENE DANT HAS THRESHING RECORD

Reedville Man Has Turned Out Grain 43 Consecutive Years
OUTPUT WOULD MAKE MILLIONS
Record Probably Has no Equal in the Grain World

Eugene Dant, the Reedville thresherman, has a record which probably has no equal in the world, having threshed grain for 43 consecutive years. His threshing has been confined to Washington County, and in the Reedville, Hillsboro, North Hillsboro and West Union districts he has turned out grain for father and son succeeding to the home place. It is Mr. Dant's particular pleasure to watch the separator, and he can diagnose the disease of a machine about as quick as any man who ever knew a thresher, and all its intricacies.

Dant bought his first threshing outfit when he was twenty years old and every harvest he has made the start, remaining in the field as long as there was a stack of grain to start.

He has tried to retire for several years, but appears to be unable. He has had many chances to sell, but he was never ready to make a sacrifice.

This year he started into one of the best crops ever harvested in the county, and will make a record run. Mr. Dant was born in Washington, D. C., in 1852, and came here in 1872, starting his record as a thresher that year. He married Miss Belle Allen, daughter of the late Isaac Allen.

Percy Trullinger, whose death was announced in last week's Argus, was a son of the late J. C. Trullinger, who was an uncle of the two Trullinger brothers, who reside here. The Trullinger family lived at Centerville in the fifties.

Word was received here the last of the week that Geo. Lamkin, of Oakland, Cal., youngest brother of J. C. Lamkin, postmaster here, died Thursday, August 12. Deceased was a widower, and is survived by a son and daughter.

Saturday and Sunday were the two most humid days of the season, and people on the plain suffered intensely. Friday—circus day—was of higher temperature, but the humidity was not so great. Those who were out in the mountains or at the beach were in high favor, and the heat wave stopped many of them from coming in.

The federal jury last Saturday convicted six men indicted in connection with the United Cashier Co. stock selling, after being out many hours. Frank Menefee, a noted lawyer of Oregon, who was indicted as president of the concern, was among the convicted. All the cases will be appealed, and all gave bonds excepting LeMon, the principal salesman. Geo. McGraw, of Banks, was one of the jurors on the case, which consumed nearly six weeks of time.

County Clerk E. C. Luce was the lone Hillsboro representative at the Press Club breakfast given in honor of Wm. Howard Taft, ex-president, in Portland, Sunday. Luce says the breakfast was featured with some of the best addresses he had heard for some time, there being nothing political about the affair. Frank Irvine, editorial writer for the Journal, made one of the most felicitous of all the numbers. Ed. says that Wm. Howard is a big man and a good entertainer, and that he can hold his own with all comers.

George Russell, game warden deputy at Gaston, has been retained in that capacity for the present season. He was in the city Saturday, and says that game violations are few and far between, this season.

Dance at New Helvetia Hall, Saturday evening, September 4. Haulenbeck orchestra. Keffler & Haulenbeck, managers.

For Sale—Two nice, gentle, family milk cows, 4 years old, soon to be fresh. One is a full-blood Jersey, and one a Jersey-Durham. Both good milkers. $65 each.—Wm. Raynard, Hillsboro, Oregon, Route 2, between Laurel and Scholls. 21-3

Mrs. A. E. Gibson, of Orengo, visited with her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Keller, of LaCrosse, Wash., last week, the daughter returning with her mother. Mrs. Keller will not return to her Washington home until she has visited the beach resorts.

The big smoke seen over the hills to the Northeast of the county, last Thursday evening was due to the fire at Scappoose, which destroyed every business house in town excepting one. The loss is estimated at $15,000. The blaze started in a restaurant.

Word was received here the last of the week that Geo. Lamkin, of Oakland, Cal., youngest brother of J. C. Lamkin, postmaster here, died Thursday, August 12. Deceased was a widower, and is survived by a son and daughter.

J. E. REEVES, Sheriff of Washington County, Oregon. By J. C. APPLIGATE, Deputy.

M. S. Chapman, of Oak Park, was a city caller Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lund went over to Barview last week for an outing.

John A. Peterson, of Garden Home, was in town Saturday, on business with County Clerk Luce.

The Pharmacy has the most complete line of Eastman Kodaks and supplies. They do developing and printing.

J. W. Vandervelden, of Roy, was in the city the last of the week. He is going to run one of the county road rollers.

Wanted—100 head of goats, mixed, if the price is right. Will take them in small bunches.—Write P. A. Bachelor, Hillsboro, Route 5. 23-5

Geo. Hathorn, of Laurel, was in town Monday. His son, Guy, got a buck over in the Trask country. W. N. also got a shot into a buck.

For Sale: Loose oat straw, $1 per load on place.—Roy Hays, Hillsboro, one mile south of condenser, near pumping plant. 23

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hergert, of Blooming, August 19, 1915, a son. This means that Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schomburg are pleased over being grandparents.

George Russell, game warden deputy at Gaston, has been retained in that capacity for the present season. He was in the city Saturday, and says that game violations are few and far between, this season.

HUNDREDS VISIT THE STREAMS AND HILLS

Gales Creek and Dairy the Meccas for Heat Stricken People
HUNDREDS VISIT UPPER GALESPOOLS
Many Splendid Places Along Both Streams, Where People Bathe

Hundreds of people from Hillsboro, Cornelius and Forest Grove visited upper Gales Creek and east fork of Dairy Creek, Sunday, to get away from the August heat. Washington County has hundreds of delightful places for Sunday vacations for those who are remaining away from the coast, and every spot on Gales Creek and East Dairy that affords a considerable shade and bathing pool, was visited by throngs, last Sunday. Upper Gales Creek appears to have been played as the favorite, and Soda Springs, the park above Gales City, and the cottonwood grove near the "Dug Hill" were the scenes of much gaiety. The latter place, near the Bob Stevenson home, was the better patronized, Sunday, and at one time there were over 60 in the big swimming pool, which is one of the cleanest in the county. Some of these days Gales Creek people will appreciate the value of their camping places, and will fix them up for extended Summer homes for families, and make a minimum charge for camping. One has no idea of the delightful temperature there, even when the plains are sizzling hot.

Among those who were at the cottonwood grove from Hillsboro, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Emmott, Mrs. Baldwin, Misses Mildred and Georgia Baldwin, W. E. McCourt, Jno. Boeker and wife, J. C. Applegate and family; Mr. and Mrs. L. T. McPheeters, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Reiter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Easter, J. H. Garrett, Byron Garrett, Roy Heater, Chas. Deichman and Frank Rollins.
