SHERIFF REEVES GETS GIANT CATTLE THIEF

Swiss, Weighing Over 225, Could Easily Carry Calf Under Arm

STOLE COW FROM ALEX BONSOR

Was Caught Sunday, Above Mountain Dale, at Geo. Vinson's Cabin

Sheriff Reeves Sunday arrested Fritz Thomas, a Swiss cattle thief, who last week stole a cow from Alex Bonsor, of Multnomah County, near Holbrook.

He took the cow over the Cornelius Pass road, evidently traveling by night. At Shady Brook his tracks were not visible, as he walked along the side of the road. Bonsor notified Sheriff Reeves, and as he had been watching the Vinson cabin for some time, concluded that there was where Thomas was headed.

Sunday morning he arrived in a machine driven by Wes Redmond, and sure enough he found Thomas at the Vinson place, and the cow was with him. The sheriff told Thomas to get into the rig, and Thomas, who is a giant, told him he wasn't going. Reeves told him to get his coat and hat and come along.

Thomas probably has stolen twenty or thirty head in the past few years. The Browning boy, of near Rocky Point, was here yesterday. Thomas had stolen two heifers from the family. The Multnomah officers took Thomas home Monday afternoon. His wrists were so large it was all one could do to put the darbies on him—and even then they lacerated his flesh.

Do not forget to ask for a Schiller when you want a good 10 cent smoke—no "cough dust" in the Schiller.
Miss Myrtle Butler, of Redmond, Ore., and her sister, Mrs. Alice Wheeler, of North Yakima, Wash., were guests this week at the homes of their relatives, Mrs. Polly Butler, A. Sigler and Frank Barr.

The Scrap Book

Getting His Hair Cut. Mr. Cleverleigh entered his club a few mornings ago, his chin and cheeks showing plainly that he was freshly emancipated from the hands of the barber.

"HAD MY HAIR CUT YOU?" "Yes, and had my hair cut, too," was the reply. "Always have my hair cut when I have a shave."

"And how often do you get shaved?" "Every morning," answered Cleverleigh. "And have your hair cut, too, every day?" "Yes."

Monsieur wanted the picture hung to the right; madame wanted it on the left. But monsieur insisted that the servant should hang the picture according to his orders.

When he was quite a young man the late Dr. Edward Everett Hale played a practical joke on some girls who were members of a party with whom he was summing on the Massachusetts coast.

The government official had been telling a simple old Scotch farmer what he must do in the case of a German invasion on the east coast of Scotland. "An' hae I really tae dae this w' a' an' bees?" asked the old fellow at the finish.

An old organ blower lay on his deathbed. He was a good old fellow, and everybody liked him. He had always been ready to do anything and everything connected with the church without complaining, but had evidently had his own troubles which he had kept locked in his breast.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Ernest August Brelje, deceased, by an order of the county court of Washington County, Oregon, made and entered on the 25th day of July, 1915.
