France's Stational Museum.

The Musee Carnavalet of Paris is size known as the National museum, for it contains objects pertaining to the history of France and especially of the French revolution. The sacredness of antiquity clings to the building itself, which was begun in 1544 and enlarged in 1600 by Mansart, the famous architect of Louis XIV. In 1677 it became the home of Mme. de Sevigne, who lived there for eighteen years and after whom the street is Archibald McGill to Maria Miley, MC 27 1 1 8 7 2 W Helenius, 40 a sec 27 t 2 1 1 U (to correct) D Kenworthy to P D William Callp Hall to J C Bille, % a mer po years and after whom the street is named that faces the principal entrance. SCHOLLS GRANGE FAIR

The date set for the Scholls Grange Fair is October 15th and 16th. The committee in charge are planning for a big fair, with several unique attractions added to those of previous fairs. There will be a stock show and all lovers of good stock are kindly requested to begin thinking about which animals and how many they wish to exhibit. There will be the usual fine display of fruits, vegetables, grains, grass-es, canned goods and fancy nee-water to hunt for tiny crabe, flex. etc., and their strong pectoral and ventral fine, sided by their tall, enable them to more about easily and to climb upon trees, grass and leaves.

With their huge eyes, seeming to project far out of their sockets, they can see as well on land as in the water. They progress is short, quick leaps, effected by sharply bending the rear third of the body to the left and suddenly straightening it. In color they are usually light brown, with dark bands, though they sometimes appear light green. They are easily caught and are much used in Burma. Entries for exhibit are open to each and every one in the com-
