Circuit Judge Geo. Bagley, Saturday filed his findings in the case of Shane vs. J. B. Gordon. A brother of Miss Shane bought a farm from Gordon over near Newberg and put up a $1,000 note and mortgage as a first payment. Interest was paid until young Shane found he could not meet the payments of principal, and he turned the place back to Gordon. Shane swore that in consideration of giving possession Gordon was to return the note and mortgage, but this Gordon failed to do. Judge Bagley went to Tillamook, Sunday, to open circuit court there for the October term.

J. B. Ofner, a Portland attorney with offices with C. J. Schabel, was in the city Saturday, on business in the circuit court. Mr. Ofner has just returned from a three weeks trip to Washington D. C., and New York City, his mother residing in the latter city. He says that times are fairly good back East, and that there is evidence of a better tone everywhere.

Circuit Court—B. L. Sloup vs. Bertha Sloup, decree of divorce for plaintiff; C. W. Loudon sentenced three to twenty years; Chan, E. Williams vs. Anna Williams, default entered; E. J. Case vs. Food Products Co., postponed indefinitely. Set for trial—Shearer vs. Jackson et al, Oct. 18; Hengen vs. Hengen, Oct. 18; Gobble vs. Kane, Oct. 20; Barick vs. Hare, Oct. 22.

For Sale—Ranch butter and fresh eggs, hens and friers, potatoes, etc., with prompt delivery. Fred Wright, Tel. R. 151, or write me, Hillsboro, Route 5, and I will come and arrange for calls.

A. C. Shute and Wm. Nelson went to Deer Island, Sunday, for a duck hunt on the reserve in which they and O. G. Barlow are interested. They brought back about 80 of the Columbia River ducks.

Money to loan—on farm security. I represent three large fire insurance companies. Give me a call.—E. I. Kuratli.

Born, Sept. 29, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Neal, of North Plains, a son. This is the tenth boy born to the union without any feminine appearance. Mr. Neal is the timber purchasing agent for the O. W. R. & N.

Kirst Herr and wife, of Cornelius, were in the city Monday. They spent the Summer on their Gaston ranch and having leased the place, are now living in Cornelius.

B. R. Cogan, of below Scholla, where he is engaged in cutting glass, was in town Saturday. He is nursing a broken finger, caused by handling an engine. Dr. E. H. Smith attended the injury.

J. Wheelock Marsh, of the Banks bank, was in the city Monday, returning from an over-Sunday trip to Forest Grove and Galen Creek.

Jacob Michel, of South Tualatin, was in the city the first of the week. He has finished baling his hops.

T. C. Bailey, C. A. Lamkin and Robt. Imbrie are attending dental college in Portland, for the Winter.

Miss Pearl Smith, of the Argus composing rooms, spent the week end in Dallas, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lee Via.

Born, Sept. 30, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Erwin, of near Scholla, a daughter.

J. F. Carstens, of Banks, was in town Saturday.

COUNTY REGISTRARS GET APPOINTMENTS

State Health Officer Names Eleven to Receive Vital Statistics

EVERY BIRTH AND DEATH TO BE FILED

Burial Permits Must be Requested Before Interment is Made

The State Board of Health has made eleven appointments of registrars for Washington County, and they will have strict supervision of all vital statistics. Attending physicians and midwives must report all births in ink, on proper forms, furnished, and the name of the child, and the child's parents, must be written thereon. In case of death the family must at once report, and a permit will be granted before interment can take place.

There has long been need of vital statistics, and Oregon has had about the poorest law in the union in this regard. The new law will give the state complete and reliable data, the registrars being required to report to the state health board. The appointees from this county are:

District 23—City of Hillsboro, Dr. E. H. Smith, P. O. address, Hillsboro.

Dist. 77—Cornelius and Bloomington, Dr. E. J. Crowthers, P. O. Cornelius.

Dist. 79—Forest Grove, including all Forest Grove without limits, Verboort, Purdin, Gales Creek and Diley, Dr. E. B. Brookbank, P. O., Forest Grove.

District 80—Banks, Timber, Buxton, Mountaineale and Manning, Dr. W. B. Mumford, P. O. Banks.

District 81—Gaston and Cherry Grove, Dr. James A. Baker, P. O., Gaston.

District 93—Tualatin, Tigard and Mulloy, Alma G. Willard, P. O. Tualatin.

Dist. 94—Sherwood and Middleton, Dr. Walter H. Becker, P. O. Sherwood.

Dist. 95—East and West Beaverton, Aloha and Kinton, Dr. Paul M. Carstens, of Beaverton.

Dist. 96—Oreoc and Cedar Mill, Dr. F. N. Anderson, of Oreoc.

Dist. 97—Garden Home, Dr. R. Hettelsater, of Garden Home.

Dist. 23 A—All Hillsboro without limits, Scholla, Laurel, Reedville, Connell and North Plains, Dr. W. D. Wood, of Hillsboro.

DR. O. C. HIATT

Dr. Oliver C. Hiatt, a pioneer dentist of Washington County, died Thursday afternoon, September 30, at the home of his niece, Mrs. Anna Dixon, in Forest Grove, from the effects of a dose of bichloride of mercury which he took Sept. 18.

For several years Dr. Hiatt was addicted to the excessive use of alcohol, and a number of years ago, while suffering from its use, shot himself in the side. At that time he was practicing dentistry at Vernonia.

Dr. Hiatt was born at Logansport, Ind., April 24, 1852, and came to Oregon with his parents when he was 14 years of age. The family located first in Marion county. When young Hiatt grew to manhood he studied dentistry and located at Forest Grove, there practicing his profession for a great many years. He also practiced at Bellingham, and Raymond, Wash., and in Portland. Dr. Hiatt was a man of strong personality and was a gentleman of the old school. He was of striking appearance, and his courtly ways always attracted attention in a crowd. In his younger days he acquired much property and was accounted a moderately wealthy man, but he lost his property in later years. Several dentists located in various Western States, who have risen high in their profession, received their first instruction under Dr. Hiatt.

The deceased is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Claude Hele, of Portland, and one sister, Mrs. Minnie Parrish, of Salem. Funeral services were held Saturday at Forest Grove, with burial in Mountainview cemetery.

Bring your eggs and produce to Greer's, they want them.

Mrs. F. Bockman, of Aloha, was in the city the last of the week.

A Pautmeier and wife, of Farmington, were city callers the last of the week.

Jake Schneider, of Leisyville, was in the city the last of the week, having finished baling his hops.

Oscar Donelson, of Vernonia, came over the last of the week with his family, for a short stay in Hillsboro. They are the guests of the Dr. Bowser family.

J. J. Krebs, of Rockaway, has been spending the past week here, looking after business matters. He was out to the Freer sale, Saturday.

Raymond Simms, of near Scholla, nearly severed his great toe one day last week, while cutting wood. Dr. E. H. Smith attended the sufferer.

Dr. E. B. McDaniel, Chief Surgeon of the Hill Lines in the Northwest, with offices in Portland, came out Friday and hunted pheasants with Dr. W. D. Wood.

W. J. Gregg, of Leisyville, was in the city Monday. He finishes baling his hop crop, this week. Mr. Gregg has sold a portion of his crop, and is holding the balance for better figures.

S. L. Hollenbeck, of above Mountaineale, was in the city Saturday. Steve has finished drying ten acres of his own prunes besides drying for several other orchards in his vicinity. He turns out a fine article.

C. D. Farnham expects to finish his 30-acre bean harvest this week. He had all but five acres pulled Saturday night, and brought in some of the new crop for the F. A. Ross store, Monday. They are a fine product, and come out as white as snow.

Neal Emmott, O. G. Wilkes, and George Emmott, returned the last of the week from an extended outing, hunting and fishing over on the Siletz. Neal left the last of the week for Portland, where he takes a position with Jones' market. He and his family have moved to the city to reside.

John Schlegel, of Woodburn, formerly of Banks, was in the city the last of the week, coming over from Marion County, overland, with his team. Mr. Schlegel has bought a small tract close to Woodburn, just to have a "little something to do," as he expressed it. He returned to Woodburn the first of the week.

CHAS. LOUDON GETS SENTENCE SATURDAY

Was Taken to Salem Saturday by Sheriff J. E. Reeves

DEFENDANT ASKS NO NEW TRIAL

Told by Court Time at Salem in Matter of Defendant's Conduct

Chas. W. Loudon, convicted the last of the week of a statutory charge, the state's witness being Ida Vanderlip, was Saturday morning sentenced to a minimum of three and maximum of twenty years by Circuit Judge Geo. R. Bagley. Loudon appeared for sentence at 10:15 and when asked if he had aught to say before the sentence was pronounced replied in the negative. The Court then said:

"It is the judgment of this court that you be confined in the penitentiary at Salem not less than three years nor more than twenty years. The matter of time of imprisonment depends largely upon your conduct at the state institution. If you are prudent your imprisonment may end at the end of three years."

Loudon was taken to Salem by Sheriff Reeves on the afternoon train Saturday to begin the imprisonment. He was non-committal after conviction, although there were rumors that he would try for a new trial on the grounds that he did not have a fair trial. His appearance for sentence and the fact that no motion for a new trial was made, bears out his statement to the Argus, last Wednesday, that he would not attempt to delay the case.

Loudon will no doubt be an exemplary prisoner. He understands discipline, and will be in a position to take advantage of law which gives prison officials a right to free him at the end of the minimum sentence. Mrs. Loudon and son go to California to reside, and will wait for the husband and father to join them at the expiration of his confinement.
