The State Industrial Commission

is extending insurance to farmers covering accidents for their workmen, and already 200 have taken advantage of the measure. The rate on farming is 2 per cent. on the payroll. In computing the commission adds $15 monthly for board, and the farm hand pays one cent per day. If a man was paid $40 per month the rate would be on $55 per month—costing a $1.10 for the farmer and 26 cents for the laborer. On threshing, clover hulling, hay and straw baling, 4 per cent. prune drying, 1 per cent.; wood cutting, 3; land clearing without blasting, 3; with blasting 5 per cent., and road work, 3 per cent. Payments can be made the commission, after acceptance, the 15th of the month following the labor. It means that laborers accepting this can not sue the farmer in case of injuries, and the commission will pay all expenses of doctor's bill, hospital bills, medicine, not exceeding $250 for lost time, paying $30 per month for a portion of his wages. The State Commission expects that many farmers with a big payroll will accept the provisions of the law, and thus shut out considerable litigation in case of injury.

LEONARD LARUE HAS STRING OF ACCIDENTS

Chapter of Misfortunes Has Number of Subdivisions, Period of Years WAS FORMER SCHOLLS RESIDENT

New Suffering From a Broken Leg at Home in Woodland, Wash.

Leonard LaRue, formerly of Scholla, is holding the championship belt as being the one best bet as recipient of accidents covering a series of years—he is now suffering from a broken leg at Woodland, sustained while building a fence, Oct. 7. LaRue is a brother of Z. M. LaRue, of Sheridan, formerly of Forest Grove. He is also a cousin of the Rowell Brothers, of Scholla.

Several years ago LaRue sustained a badly sprained and lacerated leg by virtue of a contact with some lumber rollers in a Portland sawmill, and was laid up several months, forty-two skin-grafts being used before he was finally cured. A few years later he was kicked by a horse on the same leg. A year later he was thrown from a load of hay and sustained a broken arm, the other arm badly sprained, and also receiving a badly injured neck. LaRue also carries a piece of steel in his left leg, the result of an old accident.

LaRue was in training for work on the Grange degree team, of which he was captain, in order to go to Yale and institute a Grange, after which he contemplated coming to the Scholla Fair, when he had his calculations shattered by breaking his leg. His many friends in this county deplore his misfortunes, and hope that the series of accidents "do now close."

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for Monday are: Cattle, 1228; calves, 5; hogs, 1766; sheep, 1367.

A very good run of cattle came forward over Sunday. The market opened up with prime steers holding steady with last week's tops and poorer grades a little slow. Cows sold readily at 5 and heifers at 6.

With a greater demand than number offered and a better grade of stuff, buyers became generous and the hog market went up 15 cents. Prime light hogs went over the scales at 6 50 for tops. About one-third of the stuff offered sold at the top price.

A limited supply of sheep came forward with ready takers. Prime lambs are holding steady at 7 for best grades. Ewes are going at 5, and wethers at 5 85.

FATHER MARK LAPPEN

Rev. Father Mark W. Lappen, for several years in charge of St. Matthews Church, Hillsboro, and who was succeeded by Rev. O'Neill, is now in charge of the Catholic parish at Greeley, Colorado, a city of about ten thousand people. Greeley is one of the finest cities of its size in Colorado, and has vast mining interests. A State Teachers college is one of the features, with a student body of 500, of which ten per cent. are Catholics, which with the entire county, gives the resident priest considerable work.

The people of Hillsboro, irrespective of religion, congratulate Father Lappen on his new acquisition.

Frank Unger, of Chehalum Mountain, was in the county seat Tuesday.

The Woodmen of the World will give a dance at the W. O. W. Hall, one mile west of Cedar Mill, Saturday evening, Oct. 21. Admission, 50 cents. Everybody invited. 30-31
