CHERNY GROVE ROS

The store and postulice at Charry Grove, conducted by Forsberg & Brostrom, was robbed last Saturday night by an expert cracksman. The outer door of the safe was blown with nitro. and the explosion jammed the inner door so that it could not be entirely opened. The burgiar pried down the top of the door and took out the upper cash drawer, getting $81.40, I'he lower cash box was not molested and the marauder lost about $100 besides some stamps. The work shows that the cracksman was JOHN VANDERWAL an old hand at the business, al-though he had a little bad luck on his explosion. Sheriff Reeves went to the scene Sunday and looked over the situation. That the burglar came from Portland. where there are many crooks of this character, goes without say-

The post office inspector went up the first of the week to get a line on the robbery. There is no clue to the perpetrator.
