thirty road district met last week and prepared budgets on which they will vote for permanent road improvement, November 27. The budgets range from a three mill to a ten mill tax, and while it is not expected that all will vote the tax it is thought that a majority of them will.
There were thirty-eight districts calling for the budget meetings.
In some of the districts a tax is voted every year—notably that of Tualatin and Cedar Mill, and these have every year laid a considerable mileage of rock roads.
At Leisaville the meeting adjoined without estimating, and the same was done in the Heesacker district, North Forest Grove, and also in the Keenan district above North Plains. The Gaston districts passed budgets and the supervisors there think the tax will carry.

You and your children are safe if you wear Dr.
Lowe's superior glasses—eye safe and price safe, cost you no more than the inferior kinds usually sold and you have the benefit of his skill and more than 25 years' experience as an exclusive optometrist. When you patronize him you receive the combined service of the trained eye specialist and scientific optician. One charge covers the entire cost of examination, frames and lenses. Dr. Lowe guarantees his glasses to give satisfaction whether they cost $2 or more. If you pay more you pay too much. If you pay less you do so at the sacrifice of material used and service rendered.
Dr. Lowe will be at Hotel Washington, Saturday, Nov. 20, till 4 o'clock only. Remember.

T. H. Brown lost his house and contents by fire last Friday evening, about six o'clock. Mrs.
Brown was just arriving home when the house was discovered ablaze. Nothing of moment was saved. There was some insurance. The loss is a severe blow to Mr. and Mrs. Brown. Mrs.
Brown is one of the teachers in the Hillsboro schools. The loss is estimated at from $1,500 to $2,000.

GEO. SCHULMERICH WINS DAMAGE CASE

Woman Had Sued Him for $7,535 Damages for Attack by Pet Deer

TRIED AT EUGENE LAST WEEK E. B. Tongue, of Hillsboro, One of the Counsel For Schulmerich

Geo. Schulmerich, of Creswell, is feeling a great deal better, thank you, and he is entitled to celebrate. A jury, at Eugene, last Thursday, returned a verdict in his favor in a damage case that involved $7,535. Geo. had a pet deer a year or so ago, on his ranch, a few miles out of Creswell, and he had a tenant on his place, who was entertaining a relative, by the name of Mrs. Althea Moxley. Mrs. Moxley wanted to see the pet deer, and although the tenants had been warned to keep away from the animal, particularly if they had a dog along with them, the family went down to see Mr.

Buck. The dog enraged the deer, and the animal got out of the enclosure. In trying to drive him back the two women closed in on the deer, and he gored Mrs. Moxley, for which she claimed damages. George paid the doctor bill, just to show he was a good fellow, and to his surprise, a few months afterward, Mrs. Moxley demanded compensation. Schulmerich refused to listen to her attorney and suit was then filed in circuit court for the above amount.

E. B. Tongue, Hillsboro's district attorney, was retained by Schulmerich, and Attorney Bryson, of Eugene, assisted him in defending the case. Tongue closed his argument Wednesday night, and came home Thursday morning. Late Thursday evening he received word that the jury refused to give the woman damages.

CLUB MEETS
The Progressive "500" Club was royally entertained when it met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F.
H. Kearney, Saturday evening, Oct. 30. The occasion was an unique affair, honoring the birthday of Messrs. Arthur Sorensen and Austin Simms, also celebrating the twenty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs.
Kearney. A splendid dinner was enjoyed at seven o'clock by the members and friends. Cards featured the evening's amusement, followed by vocal and instrumental selections. Miss Eva Ingram and Arthur Sorensen received the honors at cards. Hallowe'en stories and reminiscences finished the evening enjoyment.
The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Dahl, Saturday evening, Nov. 13.

WAREHOUSE FIRE OF 1913 IN COURT

Suit Heard in Circuit Court Last of the Week
ED. L. NAYLOR ASKS FOR STORAGE

Fire Took Place in Morning—Plaintiff Says Started by Engine

Circuit Court was engaged Thursday, Friday and Saturday in hearing Edw. L. Naylor's suit against the S. P. Co., for $564 to cover loss by fire when the D.
Rode warehouse burned on the early morning, July 31, 1913, at Forest Grove, alleging that engine sparks from some locomotive had set the structure ablaze. The prosecution was conducted by H. T. Bagley, and E. B. Tongue, assisted by Paul P. Farrens, defended the action.

The jury: Arthur L. Thomas, P. H. Schmidt, Jacob Connell, John T. Martin, Thos. Connell, Daniel Rainwater, Geo. Galbreath, James R. Hayden, Ben Day, G.
A. Plieth, John I. Marsh, Herman Collier.

The case was fought hard and the company contested every foot of the ground.
The jury found a verdict for the defendant.
Alfred Jeffery pleaded not guilty and trial set for Nov. 13.
Chas. Essig pleaded not guilty to a statutory charge.

Frank Smith, indicted some months ago for selling liquor to minors, pleaded guilty and was fined $50, payment of $5 to be paid monthly.

Jas. Hill, indicted for illicit handling of booze, also for assault, pleaded not guilty.

Arthur Johnson pleaded not guilty to giving liquor to minors and put up $100 to appear at trial.

E. J. Bondshu arraigned Saturday on charge of rape on 12 year old Violet Bondshu, his adopted daughter. Pleading not guilty, Monday.
