The Christian played at the Grand Theatre, last Friday evening, was pronounced by attendees to be one of the finest ever on the screen in local theatrics. Years ago the Baker Stock people played the Christian at the Crescent, in legitimat, and the play last week, for a photoplay, was as good as the original in many ways—and the Baker Stock was hard to beat.

All confectioneries kept closed Sunday, in obedience to the law, none of them taking chances on Gantenbein's decision, or the restraining order of Judge Wolvertin, served on the district attorney and sheriff, who went to Portland, Monday, to have a hearing on the proposal for a permanent injunction against arrest.

J. N. Gardner, who lived here for a number of years, when he was engaged in lumbering on the Butler donation, came over the Siletz, Beaver Creek, last week, and spent a day or so greeting friends in Washington County and Portland. J. N. is in a coming country, and it will blossom like a rose as soon as railway transportation reaches the Siletz and contiguous valleys.
