I. J. Consway Defends Action Brought in Circuit Court, Last Week

Four days were consumed in circuit curt, before Judge Geo. R. Bagiey, last week, where in T. S. Molesworth and C. G. Reagan were plaintiffs, asking for $10,000 damages for breach of contract, the defendant being J. J. Conaway, who owned a tract of land near Raleigh station, on the S. P., and Whitford station, on the Oregon Electric. Molesworth and Reagan entered into a contract with Conaway to plat the land and put it on the market. Conaway was to get $11,000 net for the property, and the promoters were to have the overplus. The plaintiffs alleged that after they had sales well under way Conaway refused to go ahead and make deeds when they found purchasers, and suit was brought, not to enforce the contract, but to make Conaway pay them what it would have been worth to them had the contract worth Gardens, and embraced one of the finest tracts in that section. B. Ofner were attorneys for Molesworth and Reagan, and Sears & Benedict appeared for the defendant. Many witnesses were placed on the stand and there was an attempt to impeach almost every witness who appeared in the case. Really, it looked as though that attempt to impeach would have been made had the Divine one Himself been in receipt of a subpoens. The jury found a verdict for Molesworth in the sum of $1,500, after being out until 1.20 Saturday maning deliber. 1:30 Saturday morning, deliberating twelve hours. That it was E. D.
