LAST BANK REPORT MAKES GOOD SHOWING

Over Two Million Dollars in Deposits in County's Bank Vaults

HILLSBORO LEADS WITH MILLION

Population of Town, Gives 1220 for Each Inhabitant—Where's Yours?

A compilation of the bank reports last made by the banks of Washington County shows that the nine institutions had on hand deposits in the sum of $2,072,000—or $220 for each man, woman and child in the towns, according to the last census report.

Considering that hundreds in the east end of the county bank in Portland it is estimated that the county banks have at least a quarter of a million, and possibly more, for the Hillsdale, Olney, Collier Mill and Bethany districts are populous and thrifty, and the deposits going to the Rose City may total close to a half million dollars.

Hillsboro's banks lead in the amounts, the total in the vaults of the county seat being given out at $1,016,000. Forest Grove follows with a credit of $620,000. Aside from this the Cornelius bank appears to have the edge on the small institutions. It had $113,000 on deposit—a good showing.

Twenty Years Ago

(From The Argus)
One stole a team of horses from F. S. Olsen while on a business trip to Portland. The team was a pair of chestnut sorrels and looked good to some who liked horseflesh.

W. H. Wehrung was elected to the council and the late Riley Cave said W. H. was too thorough to make a good official. Riley says that one time when Wehrung was on the council he saw a drain in front of the Cave property and dug it so deep that it drained the Cave family well.

Jim Lamkin made a pair of female moulds, like those in use in the sixties—he made them for W. E. Smith, or just plain "Bill" Smith, who farms, grows, and hauls, and some of these days will run a wheat ranch near Moro, Sherman County.

Harry Corbin, in for attempted robbery of Lee Williams ex-convict office, tried to saw through the bars of the old jail, but Sheriff Ford discovered the attempt before escape was made.

L. W. House was sick enough to be confined to his room.

Phoenix Lodge elected John H. Wall Chancellor, Commander, and the Odd Fellows elected S. B. Huston Noble Grand.

R. B. Goodin was elected mayor; W. H. Wehrung, J. H. Stanger, R. H. Greer and J. P. Tamme, councilmen; Benton Bowman, recorder, and Wilson Brock, treasurer.

The County court is figuring on opening the Nyberg quarry to a greater extent, next year, than in the past. Agent Mulkey of the Southern Pacific, was out last week and went to Tualatin with the court to look over the proposition of putting in a spur to the rock quarry, and Oregon Electric officials also went down there the first of the week to look over the ground. The Nyberg quarry has some of the finest rock in the county, and, as much crushed material will be needed next year new machinery will be added. It is possible that the Goodin quarry will be abandoned and the Nyberg quarry will be the only big one operated down that way. Mr. Nyberg has given the court a lease on the quarry for a series of years, at $50 per year, the county to take all the rock it wants for that sum.

For rent. Two farms—one of 160 acres, about 135 acres in cultivation, one mile from Forest Grove, barn room for about 20 cows and 6 horses, city water, cash rent; and other, 142 acres, 1 1/2 miles south of Reedville, about one-half in cultivation, barn room for 10 head cows and 4 horses, good well, and fair house; tenant can work out greater part of ranch, cash rent.—C. J. Birdsell, 512 Seventh Street, Hillsboro, Phone City 326.

Gaston has shipped two carloads of Christmas trees to San Francisco, the heights of the St. Nicholas bearers being an average of seven feet. Washington County annually sends out hundreds of Christmas trees. W. H. Bair, of Canby, is the shipper. Gaston has foothills about with them.

Wanted—at once: Young men for automobile business. Big pay. We make you expert in ten weeks by mail. Pay us after we secure you position. Century Automobile Institute, Los Angeles, Cal.

Ellen Elizabeth Carlson, of Portland, has sued Jack Carlson for divorce and the custody of a boy, Walter, aged 4 years. They were married in Portland in 1910 and the wife alleges he deserted her about two years ago. The husband works at Strassel, and is employed by the Standard Box Co.

Lost: Lady's gold watch, with bird engraved on case. Last somewhere between St. Matthews church, Hillsboro and home 4 1/2 miles south of Cornelius. Finder please leave at Argus office and receive reward.—Miss Etta Brock, Cornelius, Or., Route 2.

Thos. E. Buchanan, the Southern Pacific Agent at Dille, and Miss Clara Borgen, of Dille, were granted a marriage license last Saturday. Both are popular in their town, and have a host of friends who wish them happiness.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro, Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

Willard Tupper departed Saturday evening for an extended visit at Cloverdale, California, in quest of better health.

Fred Goetze and Jas. Loudon of above Blooming, transacted business in town Saturday.

J. J. Conaway, of near Raleigh, was in town Friday, on legal business.

A. J. Killin, of Banks, was in town last of the week.

SUPT. CHURCHILL HAS NEW IDEA FOR TEACHERS

Will Issue Professional Certificate to Responsible Instructors

PARENTS' DAY SET FOR JANUARY 19

Fathers and Mothers Asked to Visit Schools on That Date

A plan for giving public recognition to those teachers of the state who have proved themselves to be progressive as well as successful in their work, has been announced by Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. A. Churchill. To all teachers, who meet the five requirements adopted by the State Superintendent, there will be given Professional Teacher's Certificates which will certify that the holders have not only taught successfully during the preceding year, but that they are progressive and have shown a proper professional spirit toward their work.

The certificate will be issued by the Superintendent of Public Instruction upon the statement of the county superintendent that all of the requirements have been met and that the teacher deserves special recognition of his attainments.

While the certificate will in itself not entitle the holder to teach, it will be of great assistance to school boards in helping them to select thoroughly progressive and up-to-date teachers, who have been especially successful in their work.

The requirements, which must be met for the Professional Teacher's Certificate, are as follows:

1. Having taught successfully for at least eight months during the year 1915-1916.
2. Having met all of the requirements for a teacher in a standard school and having complied strictly with the laws relating to fire dangers and fire drills.
3. Having sent promptly to the county superintendent all reports requested by him or required by law.
4. Having attended the annual teachers' institute or teachers' training school, and at least one local institute.
5. Having read during the year, under the supervision of the University of Oregon or the Oregon Agricultural College, at least two books on the teachers' reading circle list.

The teachers during the annual institute voted to observe what is known as parents' day, a day when every person in the county will be invited to visit the school. The date which now seems to be the most popular is Jan. 19.

Beula James Welsh, of Forest Grove, who was married in this city Sept. 22, 1914, to Charles J. Welsh, of Los Angeles, is suing for divorce and asking for a return of her maiden name. She alleges that after marriage the husband took her to San Francisco, where he deserted after 20 days of married life, and before the honeymoon was over. She alleges that there are no children and she does not ask for alimony.

For Sale at a sacrifice—20 acre ranch in Virginia Place, two miles East of Hillsboro; nearly 8 acres cleared; habitable house, barn, chicken houses, small orchard, running water. A great bargain for anyone wanting small home.—Write Mrs. S. P. Brisbine, Hillsboro, or see S. P. Hoover, on place, going East on Baseline road leading East from Main Street. 38-40

Janitor Tupper is making his last cleanup of the court yard, the rains and wind have stripped all the trees of their leaves. While the heavy foliage presages a cold winter according to old legend F. M. Kelsay says there isn't much to this. He says the frogs are talking right along, high tenor and low bass, and when the Frog family keep up a run of conversation and small talk through November he notices they are generally in seclusion for all winter, and he does not look for any extreme cold. Rather, he thinks, we may have plenty of rainfall.

HOW THINGS MOVE IN OREGON COUNTRY

Activity Pronounced Everywhere at Close of Year

BIG OPPOSITION TO SUNDAY CLOSING

Promise of Industrial Betterment Now Gradually Evolving

With timber men reporting great activity, and with camps running on the Columbia, where nearly all were closed down last year, the feeling of better trade promised some weeks ago is now being realized.

Things doing in Oregon are: Prospects are that Klamath Falls mills will run all winter. Hermiston is working for a new library.

Movement on in Scio to improve streets. Manager Norman, of the Oregon Power Co., Eugene, reports decided feeling of optimism among merchants and bankers, and inquires about power and light from farmers and merchants.

Southern Oregon Traction Co. will extend its electric line from Medford to Jacksonville, work to begin Jan. 1.

S. P. Co. employs 5000 people in Oregon paying them $4,750,000 annually and $1,200,000 taxes or 12 per cent of the taxes collected by counties through which its line runs.

Port of Astoria will erect $22,000 grain elevator. Newport will have a radio station at an early date.

Enterprise—Commercial Club celebrated opening of Eastern Oregon Lumber Co.'s mill with big banquet.

Portland, Nov. 15. Publicity matter sent out by Forestry Service shows earnings of $2,500,000 last year. The department does not expect to meet its expenses to meet this revenue.

Salem—Hunt Bros. cannery shipped carload loganberries to Chicago—brought $3600.

Enforcing the old Sunday closing law hits a snag in Oregon as fast as communities find out its wide scope. They are not ready to turn back 200 years in development and enterprise.

Eugene cannery receives contract for carload of canned cabbage for U. S. army.

Florence—Reports say tie camp will be opened at once employing 100 men. C. W. Curran, mayor of Oregon, will now ship Christmas trees.

Sufficient acreage has been signed up, according to reports, to secure the building of a large beet sugar factory in Southern Oregon.
