George C. Ernst, aged 70 years, died Thursday night, at his home on the Portland-Beaver on mountain, a mile or so beyond the B. Leis home, on the dirt road that leads over the hill. He and his aged wife retired sarly, and Mrs Ernest noticed that he rested poorly, turning over several times in bed. About four o'clock Friday morning she awakened and spoke to him, but he did not answer. Placing her hand on his face she found it cold and investigation disclosed the fact that death had visited him in the night.
