CLINE-STITT
A quiet home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Stitt, of Beaverton, Saturday, Dec. 18, 1915, when their youngest daughter, Valle Vesta, was united in marriage to George Cline. The bride has been known at Beaverton since her infancy, and has a host of friends in her section of the county. The groom is formerly from Atlanta, Georgia, and at present is a salesman for the Gilbert store, at Beaverton. Their many friends wish them every happiness on the matrimonial sea. Rev. Uphaw performed the marriage service in the presence of the family and a few friends.

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Long, of Starbuck, Wn., are here, guests of L. A. Long and family, to spend the Holidays. Mr. Long is in the O. W. R. & N. train service between Starbuck and Umatilla, and says that the business on the line is heavy, and will be all winter.

Money to loan in any amount at 7 and 8 per cent, on acceptable farm properties. Make application now and have the money when you want it. Long terms if desired.—E. L. Perkins, Hillsboro, Ore.

In speaking of older times in Hillsboro, in connection with the late Geo. T. Ledford, Dr. F. A. Bailey tells of a time when a bull belonging to Hon. T. H. Tongue entered the shop in a rage, and soon emptied the room of its customers. The bovine went on through the store with head lowered, and the late Geo. T. said—"Well, it's a mighty good thing he didn't look in the glass and see his picture, or there would have been something moving."

Hard Time Dance—The Women of Woodcraft will give an all night hard time dance, New Year Eve, Dec. 31, at the W. O. W. Hall, 1 1/2 miles west of Cedar Mill. Good supper and good music. Everybody invited.

The tinsmiths were open Sunday, and they all report business pretty fair. All were candid, however, in saying that the sales were not up to the figure which obtained prior to closing. They think, in time, that the sales figures will reach that of former Sundays.

Lena Ball, Plaintiff,
Arthur Ball, Defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon: To Arthur Ball the above named Defendant: You are hereby notified and required to appear or a view of the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause on or before December 31st, 1915, and if you fail to do so for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in her complaint; to wit: for a decree forever dissolving the marriage and marriage contract now and heretofore existing between yourself and the plaintiff upon the grounds of desertion alleged to be committed on the 15th day of October, 1914, without cause or provocation, and without the consent of the plaintiff and against her will, which said desertion is alleged to have continued since said date. This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of the Honorable George H. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled Court, made and entered on the 17th day of November, 1915, and which said order requires that said summons be published in the Hillsboro Argus, once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks, beginning with the issue of said newspaper of November 18th, 1915, and ending thereof with the issue of December 8th, 1915, and which said order requires that you appear and answer said complaint on or before the 31st day of December, 1915.

XMAS CIGARS
Manufactured in Hillsboro by Chas. McFadden and sold by all dealers. December this year brings a big contrast—Hell in Europe and Christmas in America—Think it over, you men with good minds and a fine flock of kids. Loosen up and be glad for yourself and yours. Going broke for the sake of Christmas in America is a little corner in heaven compared to sitting out there in the trenches in cold and hungry, with nothing to do but shoot and be shot at. So cheer up, lose your grouch. The world is upside-down. If you are on the top side, add to your happiness by extending a little to the fellow underneath.

We Want Everybody to Know
That we will, beginning at once, give Cash Register receipts with every cash sale, showing amount of sale, date and who made the sale. We will ask you to keep these receipts as we are going to give back to our cash customers one day's cash sales each month. We will select one day each month and will announce in our window on the 5th day of each month the date we have selected, and then all you will have to do is look over your Cash Register receipts from us and see if you have any bearing that date, if you have just bring them to us and we will refund your money. There is no trick to this proposition.
