

PYTHIAN LODGES IN JOINT INSTALLATION

One Hundred and Fifty Attend Induction Exercises Friday Evening

FRATERNAL EVENT OF THE SEASON

For Musical Program, and Cafeteria Luncheon Served at Midnight

Phoenix Lodge No. 34, Knights of Pythias, and Phoenicia Temple Pythian Sisters, enjoyed a public joint installation of officers last Friday evening, there being one hundred and fifty people in attendance. There were some delightful drills, and the ceremonies were carried out to perfection. After the installation there was a musical program, and a cafeteria luncheon, after which the young people indulged in dancing. Wm. Nelson officiated as the installing officer, and the following Knights will hold the chairs for the ensuing term:

E. L. Moore, chancellor commander; George Emmott, vice chancellor; John Engeldinger, prelate; Kingsley Lytle, master-at-arms; C. C. Frick, master of finance; L. W. House, master of exchequer; Aug. Tewa, master of work; Earl Luther, keeper of records & seal; Wm. Harris, inner guard, and Leonard Brown, past chancellor and outer guard. F. J. Williams had charge of the drill team, and John Boeker gave the obligations.

The Pythian Sisters installed as follows, with Mrs. E. L. Moore acting as Grand Chief, assisted by Madames W. N. Barrett and Janie Sewell; Mrs. L. Brown, P. C.; Mrs. F. J. Sewell, most excellent chief; Mrs. C. E. Wells, excellent senior; Mrs. E. L. Perkins, excellent junior; Mrs. J. C. Applegate, manager; Mrs. Henrietta Morgan, mistress of records and correspondence; Mrs. J. W. Connell, mistress of finance; Mrs. Norman Greer, protector; Mrs. Homer Emmott, guard.

A musical program consisted of a piano solo, Miss Georgia Baldwin; vocal solo, Russel Morgan, who responded to three encores; violin solo, Earl Donelson, accompanied by Mrs. F. J. Sewell.

The orchestra furnished music for the dancing, and Knight Wm. Schuimerich "led all the rest" when it came to execution.

The Knights and Sisters acclaim this as one of the finest installations ever held in the city, and they predict a prosperous year for the two orders.

W. L. Hatchelder, who takes an interest in big families, hands the Argus a clipping from the Philadelphia N. A., which tells of a Mrs. Lucille Leclair, aged 17, who gave birth to triplets. The mother is the 43rd child of Levi Brisson, of Rhode Island. Mr. Brisson has lost track of 14 of his children, but those of whom he has a record are fathers or mothers of 182 children, who have presented him with 96 grandchildren, 41 great grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild. Brisson's wife gave birth to triplets three times and quadruplets once. His second wife had 5 pairs of twins, and plural births followed with his 3rd wife. The old gentleman, 71 years of age, has children in 17 states, 3 territories, Canada, Mexico, France and the American Navy. W. L. justly thinks this family is some Rooseveltian.

CIRCUIT JUDGE GIVES PLAINTIFFS MORE TIME

Allows Injunction to Stand Until February 1, 1916, Then Deciding

ARGUMENT MADE LAST THURSDAY

Confectionery Stores Etc. Now Have Two More Sundays Open

Argument was heard last Thursday on the injunction quest asking that the law keeping confectionery, and other places of business closed on the Lord's Day be declared void, and the court gave an order of restraint until Feb. 1. This will give the places two more Sundays in which to operate without fear of arrest. H. T. Bagley made the argument for the plaintiff stores, and E. B. Tongue, for the state, held that an injunction should not lie because the Supreme Court had decided the law constitutional, as well as the Federal district court. He said that the higher court had decreed that it was not class legislation and did not interfere with the public weal in any manner.

The decision of Judge Bagley will be awaited with interest. The stores alone are not interested in the outcome, for there are other interests that will suffer with a closed Sunday—the garages, for instance.

The order reads: This cause coming on for hearing on the application of the plaintiffs for an order continuing the temporary restraining order and injunction heretofore issued herein pending the appeal in the Supreme Court of the United States on the questions involved herein, plaintiffs appearing by H. T. Bagley, their attorney, and the defendants appearing by E. B. Tongue, and this cause having been argued and submitted said application is hereby continued for decision until Feb. 1, 1916, and said temporary restraining order and injunction is hereby continued in full force and effect until said February 1, 1916.

Multnomah is operating under an injunction by Judge Gantenbein, which gives leeway until the next general election.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

(From The Argus)

The total tax levy for Washington County was 14 mills.

*On Jan. 1 in this county there were 6300 people of school age.

Rev. Evan P. Hughes, pastor of the Cong. Church, was tendered a reception.

Deputy clerk F. T. Kane was busy extending valuations on the tax roll in the clerk's office.

Owing to the disappearance of the snow in such a short time the Scholls wagon bridge was two feet under water.

Mrs. E. M. Warren and daughter, Miss Zulu, now Mrs. Linklater, were visiting in California.

The sale of personal property at the Jesse Cornelius place was well attended and everything sold at a good figure.

A. W. Saxton, supt. of the poor farm, lost a $10 gold piece and the finder refused to return it. An arrest followed.

Jos. Vaughn, of Forest Grove, was buried Tuesday. Vaughn had started to Gaston when he was seized by a stroke and died within a few minutes.

A little daughter of Lincoln Landess, while visiting at the Lloyd Ingram home, was badly burned by reason of her dress catching fire while dinner was being served.

T. H. Tongue, J. A. Imbrie, W. N. Barrett, J. H. Stanley, G. W. Patterson, B. P. Cornelius, H. P. Ford, J. I. Knight, L. K. Adams, J. J. Morgan, R. H. Greer, R. Crandall, W. V. Wiley and J. F. Carstens were elected delegates to the meeting of the State Republican League.

C. C. Arns, of near Cedar Mill, was a city caller Saturday.

W. J. Ingram, a hopgrower of near Farmington, was a city visitor Monday.

The members of the Epworth League will hold an all-around good time, social and taffy pull, in the parlors of the M. E. Church, Friday evening, Jan. 28, commencing at seven. Admission, one smile and preparation for a good time.—Committee.

O. G. Wilkes was out from Portland the last of the week.

O. E. Krause, of Tualatin, was up to the city Saturday, on business.

Try our Turkish Cream Rolls. They are home-made and hard to beat.—Koerber's Confectionery.

Editor Benfer, of the Forest Grove Express, called on the Argus the last of the week.

W. J. Gregg, of Leisville, and Jos. Cawse, of North Tualatin Plains, were in the county seat Monday.

Trains were able to get through to Tillamook, Saturday, and the road will be kept open if possible.

Pat Brown says that the recent cold snap and snow was bad on stock. He lost several goats on his Gaston ranch.

Last week's Argus overlooked the fact that the Hillsboro High Girls' team defeated Banks a week ago Saturday night, at Banks.

John Ryan lost a horse last week, the animal yielding up the ghost after a week of playfulness. Perhaps those drifts gave the equine heart failure.

F. W. Sain, of Seagrin Valley, and B. Fleischauer, of Gaston, were down to the county seat, Monday morning. Sain was wearing a Bryan hat, and many of the county seaters had an idea that he had changed his politics.

Pigeons for sale, cheap: Homers, Carneaux and Crosses. Have about 250 birds, which on account of my ill health, am obliged to sell.—E. F. Sias, Box 493, Hillsboro, Ore., or call at 565 Broadway. 34tf

A. B. Smith, formerly with the P. R. & N., in construction days, is superintending some work for the contractor at Forest Grove. A. B. still likes to see the dirt thrown on public works.

John Gates, aged 11 years, was kicked by a horse at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gates, of Leisville, one day last week, and his left optic badly injured. Dr. Robb attended the lad and he is doing nicely.

Wish to trade a team of horses, 8 and 10, weighing 3200, for a span of young mares, three or four years each. Must be sound and true. Phone Gales Creek Central and call for Glenwood 52; Gales Creek Central, through Forest Grove. 45-7

Birds which were fed at the court house during the snow-time do not return in numbers since the ground is bare. While apples and bread are placed there for them there are but very few who patronize the county bird restaurant. Evidently they get plenty of food elsewhere, showing that Oregon is some country for the feathered fellows.

Attorney Wheelock, of Portland, came out Monday and bought in a piece of land near Reedville, at Sheriff's sale. The tract was formerly owned by Frank Richet, who was sold out on costs in the Federal Court. Something went amiss with the federal sale and the mortgagee came in and foreclosed. This was once that the local courts forged ahead of Uncle Sam—something not very often accomplished.

A man by the name of John Nyman, of Chealem Station, near Rex, shot a hole through a danger signal lamp on the S. P. electric track, the other day. A warrant of arrest was sworn out against the offender, and he was placed under arrest. It is said that Nyman boasted that he would never be arrested. He had four or five rifles around the place, and his neighbors say that when he failed to catch one of his horses the other day he deliberately shot the animal in the hip. Blood poison set in and the animal died within a week.

Judge Bagley last week rendered a decision that reverses a Supreme Court decision. The Hillsboro National Bank had loaned Mr. Garborino $300, several years ago. The debt existed, and was carried on the books of the bank when Garborino was ill. He deeded his wife his property in order to prevent probate expenses, under the impression that he was about to pass to the beyond. Later he recovered, and gave a note to the bank. Suit was brought on the note, and then court proceedings were instituted to cancel the deed on the statute of frauds. Judge Bagley held that the wife was cognizant of the debt, and that the debt was a lien on the property.

NATION-WIDE THRIFT CAMPAIGN

By the American Bankers' Association to mark savings bank centennial

The first savings bank in the United States was established in 1816. It came when the population of the United States was only 9,500,000, and there were but 246 banks in the country.

Today, with our National wealth approximating $187,000,000,000 and almost one hundred millions of people in the country, we have about $4,700,000,000 in the savings banks, belonging to ten and a half million depositors.

The above is taken from the Journal of the American Institute of Banking.
