

Tuxedo Nights

by Walt Mason

When the day's work's done, and the good old sun has sunk in the well known West, then I stretch my form by the fireside warm, I sit at my ease and rest. Then I take my pipe which is mildly ripe, as the pipes of good smokers are, with a chortling soul then I fill its bowl from my glass Tuxedo jar. And I smoke at ease, and my trouble flees to the place where dead troubles go; and my worries seem, in my waking dream no longer to have a show. And I say, "Indeed, it's a noble weed that drives all the ghosts away, and clamps the lid on the cares that skid around through the busy day. The worries and woes and such things as those in the daytime leave their scar, but there's rest at night and a calm delight in my glass Tuxedo jar."

The greatest battle—and the decisive battle of the war, perhaps—is now being waged between France and Germany on the West front. The future of Europe may depend on its outcome.

A pleasant event was a hard time party given by the M. M. Club at the home of Miss Leah Puegy, at Phillips, recently. The evening was devoted to music and games. Prize winners were Susan Jossi, Gottlieb Schneider, Ernest Zuercher and Lou Bauer. At midnight a dainty repast was served.

Services at the Baptist Church Sunday, March 5. Rev. E. A. Smith, pastor; Sunday school at 10 a. m., J. W. Brook, Supt.; Union Mass Meeting at 11 a. m., Mass Meeting at M. E. Church 3 p. m., Young people's meeting at Baptist Church 6:30 p. m., preaching at Baptist Church at 7:30.

The last basketball game of the season proved to be the most thrilling of all. Forest Grove boys defeated Hillsboro's team by a score of 26 to 24. Joe Mann was the star for the local team. Hillsboro girls' team defeated the Grove girls by a score of 18 to 3. Eva Carstens was the high point winner for Hillsboro.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 462, or call at Tualatin Hotel.

J. B. Campbell, of above North Plains, was in yesterday, attending to road supervisor duties. He says that in some places above Dixie old snow is yet two feet deep. Four inches fell up that way Tuesday night.

Buyers of furniture will do well to look over the Ormandy half page advertisement in this issue, on the third page. They may have what you want at a price remarkably low.

I have $6500 or $7000 that I would like to place in one loan on good farm lands. Who wants it?—E. L. Perkins, Commercial Bldg., Hillsboro. 32-1f

LIBERTY THEATRE, TONIGHT

THE MAURER SISTERS ORCHESTRA.
The Maurer Sisters Orchestra is about to enter its tenth year on the Lyceum and Chautauqua platforms. This organization had five years' experience before coming to the Redpath Bureau, beginning to play in public very young in years and making good from the very start. In fact, the Redpath Bureau has never had a company of young women of whom it has felt prouder and received better reports than the Maurer Sisters.

The first two years they were with the Bureau they were known as the Orchestral Entertainers.

For versatility on musical instruments the parallel of the Maurer Sisters is seldom found. In this respect they fill an important place in the Lyceum, for there is much demand for just such a combination. The daily reason that there are comparatively few such companies is because versatility in music is so apt to be accompanied by mediocrity. Especially is there a demand for this kind of organization where large door sales are a consideration to the committee. Pictures of numerous instruments and promises of a widely varied program attract young and old from far and near.

Some of the features of the Maurer Sisters' program are: cornet solos with orchestral accompaniment, flute solos with piano accompaniment, violin solos with piano accompaniment, whistling solos, cello solos, violin and flute duets, humorous readings, orchestral numbers with piano, violin, flute and cornet; ensemble vocal numbers rendered in conjunction with orchestral music.

WHY THE BEST OF CHEWS IS "SPEAR HEAD"

Its Rich, Sweet, Mellow Flavor Has Been Famous for a Generation

MADE OF CHOICEST RED BURLEY

The secret of tobacco satisfaction is known only to the man who chews plug tobacco. The reason is that a good chew gets right next to your taste, while the leaf in plug tobacco is in a state of fresh, juicy richness that is not possible in any other form of tobacco.

There's no tobacco in the world that can give you the hearty, wholesome flavor that you get from a delicious chew of Spear Head.

Spear Head is made exclusively of ripe, red Kentucky Burley—the most richly-flavored chewing tobacco that grows. Still more, only the very choicest red Burley leaf is used for Spear Head.

This choice leaf is selected with the most painstaking care, is stemmed by hand, is thoroughly washed free of all foreign matter, and is pressed into Spear Head plugs so slowly that not a drop of juice or an atom of the natural flavor escapes.

Try Spear Head, and you'll get a sweet, mellow, luscious, satisfying chew that cannot be obtained in any other tobacco. In 10c cuts, wrapped in wax paper.
