NOTICE TO MOTOR CAR BUYERS

We wish to advise that the price of the Saxon 6-cylinder Auto has advanced $30, making the price $915, f. o. b. Forest Grove, instead of $885. We are going to extend the courtesy to our prospects in giving them until April 1 to place their order for one of these cars. Owing to the large number of prospective purchasers of our cars we believe they are entitled to a fair notice of this increase, and we will accept orders for Saxon cars up to and including March 31 at the old figure of $885, f. o. b., Forest Grove, for the 6-cylinder model. Beginning April 1 the price will be $915 f.o.b., Forest Grove.

M. S. Allen & Co.

Washington County Agts. FOREST GROVE, ORE.

New Spring Go-Carts HAVE ARRIVED

Come in and Examine them

Now is the time to purchase Wall Paper, We carry a complete Stock.

Donelson's Furniture Store Third Street

We Sell on the Installment Plan

Vomen's New Spring Suits

An exceedings of attacrine range in in and view the late arrivals.

More Nobby Skirts and Coats

just in and our prices are much less than you would expect to pay.

GOAR'S WOMAN'S SHOP

Washington Hotel Block. 3rd St. Hillsboro

2nd Hand Cars

We have the following slightly used cars for sale

One 1915 Ford, 5 passenger including over $100 extra equipment. Car as good as new. Price $425. See this car.

One 1915 Dodge Bros. 5 passenger car, run about 4000 miles. Price $650. A good buy.

One 1914 Case, 5 passenger car including self starter and electric lights. Price $450. This car is a bargain.

We will sell the above cars on terms and give a written guarantee with each car.

S. E. BIRD & CO.

Phone Main 812

NOTICE

Heretofore we have sold all our used cars in Portland paying a Broker a commission for selling same. Hereafter we will sell our cars ourselves, so if you are interested in a good used car see us and save the Broker's commission.

Entered at the Post-office at Hillsbe Oregon, as second-class mail matter

L. A. LONG, Editor.

County Official Paper

subscription: $1.50 per Annum,

issued Every Thursday -BY-LONG & MCRINNEY

If the government can get out of Mexico without trouble it will be because it has its rabbit foot with it. The fellows "higherup" have been trying to get us be forced, other means have been employed. Their agents are trying every shift to get the government into trouble with both Caranza and Villabe hoped that the agitators will with all Mexico.

learns that S. A. D. Meek will file for the legislature. Mr. islature, and his return would not be amiss. We know that counts. He has no ax to grind, and, being a heavy taxpayer.

Bulk garden seeds and onion

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bradley, of near Metzger, were in town

H. T. Hesse, of Scholls, today filed on the Republican ticket for county commissioner.

Dr. J. P. Tamiesie, of Portand, was out Monday, a witness n the Lindeman-Shaw damage

Dr. J. C. Tamiesie, practicing dentistry in Portland, was out Sunday, the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Reiling.

Marriage license was yesterday granted Wayne VanKleek and Mabel R. Smith, of the Kinton section.

insurance companies. Give me in his band and said: a call.-E. I. Kuratli.

Mrs. Ambersine Weisenback, of Reedville, was in the city yesterday, straightening up probate

German Lutheran services will e held on Sunday afternoon, at 2:30, at the Congregational church. English Sunday school old maid. at 2:00.-E. W. Luecke, Pastor.

Glen Stapleton, cashier of the Gaston State Bank, passed through town Tuesday evening enroute home from a Portland business trip.

Geo. Denton, former manager of the Ladd & Reed Farm, was in town yesterday. He will sail out of San Francisco for Augtralia in a few days.

For Sale-Two high-grade Jerey cows, 3 and 6 years, fresh, heavy milkers; also pure-bred Duroc sow, to litter March 20-Duroc sow, to litter March 20 - Here's your panayces, and if you'don't C. H. Meyers, Cornelius, Route want it I can't compel you to buy it." 3 miles north of Cornelius.

S. A. D. Meek, of North Plains, was in town yesterday. Some of his friends are insisting that S. A. D. shall run for the legislature, but he has not taken the Services at Baptist Church, Sunday, Mar. 26th, E. A. Smith, pastor. - Sunday School at 10 a. m., J. W. Brock, Superintendent, What are you drive Preaching at 11 a.m., subject, "I am selling a blood purifier, made "The Great Commission;" Young of roots and berbs. It's a little early Peoples Meeting at 6.30. Preaching at 7:30. "At the Door of the Kingdom." Pastor Smith is drinking man or not?"

Peter Maas, of Gaston, died in off.' Portland, March 13, 1916. Maas Stapleton, of the Gaston Bank, has been named as administra-

Carl Lindholm, who several purifier in this crowd?" he loudly asked. "Come, out you go?" said the officer years ago was ordered to con-tribute $25 per month toward "And you don't want a bottle for the support of wife and child, is yourself? You've got a Jaundice look. in limbo in the county jail for and this medicine will cure it in five not paying. Lindholm heard that complaint had been made He was led out and told not to rethat complaint had been made that he was delinquent and was coming here to find out. He was met at the door by the Sheriff, who took him into custody. He says it has been next tody. He says it has been next to purify, but I never go agin the law, to impossible to get more work and if there is a rampage of billous than he needed to keep himself fever don't say I wasn't around with during the hard times, and that my panaycea at regular price." he has sent his wife every dollar Le could rake up.

FOR SHERIFF

I hereby announce my candidacy for sheriff on the republican ticket for the primaries May 19. If I am nominated and elected I will, during my term of office, conduct said office honestly, impartially, efficiently and economically, and for the best interests of the tax payers.

J. W. Connell, Hillsboro, Ore., March 2, 1916. at once!

Notice to Auto Drivers

into the intervention habit, and The ordinance regulating speed when they found we could not of automobiles inside the city limits will be rigidly enforced.

G. W. Pate, Chief of Police. Hillsboro, Or., March 23, 1916.

Judge Bagley Tuesday evening and they may succeed. It is to dismissed the jury, the venire to he called some time early in be drafted and put on the firing April, when Judge Campbell will exchange benches with the court. line if we shall have trouble At that time there will be four along and now came up and demanded jury trials, one the Lyda case. Three civil cases are involved, and Judge Bagley deems himself disqualified because of having asked: been retained in them prior to his going on the bench. Circuit Meek is a native son, and is a court does not open in Tillamook reliable and substantial citizen. until May, and by that time the He has had one term at the leg- docket will be fairly well cleaned not be amiss. We know that A Leap Year party was given Meek is straight, and that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Klatt, West Union, last Saturday. An enjoyable evening was spent in games, singing and muunderstands the worth of econo- sic. At a late hour refreshments were served. Those present were Esther and Neoma Klatt, Clara and John Pubols, Jas Imhrie, Helen and Esther Bechen, Lester Bellinger, Pete Walters, Emil and Elsie Jossy, Fannie and Louie Turpen, Gus and Jonathan Klatt, Reta Trullinger.

HIS BLOOD PURIFIER

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1816, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

A dilapidated looking old man, who was chewing sassafras root with great energy, suddenly appeared in the waiting room of the depot across the river, and as he approached a man who was. Money to loan-on farm secur- waiting for the western train he pulled ity. I represent three large fire a bottle of liquid from an old satchel

"My friend, you are looking yaller about the eyes, which is a sure sim that your blood is in a bad state. One bottle of my blood purifier will restore you to health and vigor."

"Don't want it, sir," was the reply Onion seed for sale: Oregon wants to keep on looking yaller wants to keep on looking yaller Yellow Danvers, grown this year. ler wants to keep on looking yaller Inquire of E. F. Wohler, Hillsboro, Oregon. Telephone Farm- band, that's his own business. your back with a spell of billious fever but you needn't lay it up agin me." The next person approached was severe looking woman about thirty. "Them yaller streaks at the corners of your mouth denote a torpid liver. ma'am," said the man as he gave the bottle a shake. "Something right bery to improve your looks 50 per cent."

"Sir!" she demanded in icy tones. "Only 50 cents a bottle, ma'am, and made right in my own house from berbs and roots gathered by my own hands. Just opened the campaign, and it's only 50 cepts a bottle." "Go away, sir!" she commanded.

"Don't want any at all, ch?"

"All right, madam, all right. Torpid liver may be a good thing to have about the house, but I don't think so.

The third passenger was a man with a marked reduces about the nose and rough spots on his face. He was busy with a newspaper when the old man approached with: "One bottle will cure that nose or your money returned."

"And the second bottle will cure all "Look a-here, you old reprobate! What are you driving at anyhow?"

preaching at Cornelius this week. face, sir? Why, I'll punch your head

"Wouldn't do no good, sir. Here's had gone to Portland for medical treatment. He leaves an estate of about $2800, of which a ranch is valued at about $2500. Glen Stapleton of the Gaston Bank. cent."

"I'll purify you, you old assassin!" tor, and as Maas had no heirs in said the man as he started to take off America it will be up to the ad-ministrator to find his heirs in came up and told the old man be must

The officer made a move for him and the old man ambled off down the street to the corner. There stood a trouble in his looks and bearing, and after a moment he was addressed with: "If I ever saw a man who needed it you are the critter!"

"Are you talking to me, sir?" wa queried in reply, but the man looked straight across the street. "Right to you, my friend. You are almost on your dying bed, but there is one hope. It is my blood purifier. It has cured when the doctor pronounced the patient dead. Get a dose down you

"Thanks, but I cannot change the

"I'll give you the first dose without But the old man saw a patrolum plunging across the street to gather him in, and he made his escape to stop a fat pedestrian at the end of the the picture of health, but is it solid far

What do you mean by addressing May 19, 1916, and pledge myself such a question to me, sir?" was stern will take it away."

"By thunder, you old cuss"-But the patrolman had followed if the old man had a license to peddle As he didn't he was placed under ar rest, and as he was walked away he

"I hain't kicking any, but I want you do me a favor.'

"Well?" "Take me before some fedge who's ot a plain case of the janders and who'll let me pay my fine in the only reliable blood purifier ever invented y a human man!"

And perhaps the exchange was made Java's Finest Temple to Buddha.

In his posthumous work, "Java," D. W. Campbell goes minutely into the antiquities of Java, which consist of a number of ruins of temples and of other sacred edifices, formerly dedicated to the religion of the people, who, after first embracing Brahmanism, changed their faith sabout A. D. 450s to Budthism and a thousand years later to Mohammedanism. The greatest of the emples is Boro-Boedoer tor Boro-Budur, as Mr. Campbell spells iti. It is the finest example of its kind extant; in fact, Buddhism has left no such record anywhere else. Nobody knows exactly when the temple was built, but it is generally believed to be 1,200 years old, though some authorities date it as late as the thirteenth century. There are 436 images of Buddha in the tem-For centuries it lay buried and was unearthed by an Indian officer, Colonel Colin Mackenzie. Two hundred coalles a day were working for six weeks in clearing the riotous luxuriince of tropical bushes and creepers, but it was years before the temple was

One Gladstone Interview

An amusing glimpse of the famous datesman Gladstone was once given by John Murray of the publishing aouse which issued many of Mr. Glad stone's writings and speeches. last time I was at Mr. Gladstone's house," said Mr. Murray, "I had break-fast early and alone, as I was going to Scotland. When I had finished I was told that Mr. Gladstone did not know that I was leaving so early and that he wanted to have another talk with me. I went to his bedroom-a very large room with a double bed in it. Mrs. Gindstone was in her dressing

He was tying flat on his face, his head at the foot of the bed and his feet on the pillows In one hand be held a cup of coffee, and there was a book in the other. I shall never forget that interview and the comicality of the great fion head popping up as I went togard

Curious Marriage Custom. Among the Kherrias of India there is very curious marriage ceremon; Taking a portion of the hair of the bride and bridegroom in turn from the center of the forehead, the priest draws it down on to the bridge of the pose Then, pouring oil on the head, he watches it carefully as it trickles down the portion of hair. If the oil runs straight on to the tip of the nose their future will be fortunate, but if it spreads over the forehead or trickles off on either side of the nose ill luck is sure to follow. Their fortunes told, generally to their own satisfaction, the final part of the ceremony takes place. Standing up side by side, but with faces strictly averted, the bride and bridegroom mark each other's forehead with "sindur" (vermillon)

KAISER WILHELM.

German Emperor Prominent In European War Situation.

Notice to Creditors

Notice is hereby given that the under-signed has been, by the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, duly appointed as Executrix of the last will and testament of Leonard Smith, Deceased, and has duly qualified as such. Now, therefore, all persons having claims against the estate of the said Leonard Smith deceased, will present them to me at my residence at Tualatin, Oregon, with proper vouchers attached. within six months from the date hereothated at Tua atin this 23rd day of March, 1916.

Caroline Smith.

Executrix of the last will and testamen f Leonard Smith, depensed. W. J. Makelim, 1434 Northwestern lank Building, Portland, Ore., Attorney for Executris.

FOR ASSESSOR

herewith announce my candi-"My dear str. you are fat and look dacy for the office of County Assessor on the Republican Ticket, subject to the Primary Election, to the following principles: The Strictest Economy in the conduct of this office, giving my whole time and undivided attention to the duties thereof;

The greatest Efficiency that experience, constant care and untiring effort can produce; Equalization of taxation values, by a just, fair and business-like assessment, thus insuring an Equitable Distribution of Taxes. In the accomplishment of which I shall at all times seek the help and urge the co-operation of the taxpayer, counsel with him and give the most courteous consideration to all complaints and grievances, making a personal investigation thereof, if need be, thus insuring a satisfactory and scientific assessment.

I have had twenty years exclusive experience in Land and Building values, am experienced in all the branches of this office even to the field work, and believe I am fully aware of the needs of the office and the taxpayer and will, if elected, conscientiously look after the same. I ask your earnest consideration and support. W. F. Boley.

John Herdlein, of Blooming. was a city caller Monday after-Lester E. Campbell, the Scholls stockman, was in the city Monday, transacting business and greeting friends.

RED PEP'S PHILOSOPHY

"Money doesn't get a chance to talk when you keep it m your pocket-give it air

CARUS

*Tuxedo completely satisfies my tobacco taste. Most important of all, from a singer's standpoint, Tuxedo does not irritate my throat."

"Tuxedo Does Not Irritate My Throat"

That's what the world's greatest tenor says about Tuxedo. That's what you will say about Tuxedo after you've given this mildest and pleasantest of all tobaccos a week's trial.

The original "Tuxedo Process' of refining mild Kentucky Burley, mellowed by 3 to 5 years' ageing, positively removes every particle of harshness and "bite".

Put Tuxedo to the pipe test. That will show you why, to millions of men, Tuxedo is the only "just

Read the guarantee in the top of every tin.

You can buy Tuxedo everywhere

Famous green tin 10c In Tin Hu-

In Glass Humiders,

Let 'er Rain!

$3.00 out all the rain. Re flex Edgesstop every drop from running

TOWER'S A.J. TOWER CO.

STICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

In the County Court of the State of Orogon for Washington County

In the Matter of the Estate of Julius J. Weisenback, Dreessed

Weisenback Deceased

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed in the above emitted Court, and cause, her fival account and report in the matter of said estate, and the said Court has fixed and appointed the 24th day of April, 1916, at the hear of ten o'clock A. M., of said day, and the Court room of the above entitled Court in Hillsboro, Oregon, as the time and place for hearing objections to said final a count and for the final settlement of said estate. Dated this 6-h day of March, 1916.

Ambersine Welsenback, Administratrix o' Estate aforesaid.

William G Hare, Attorney for Administratrix.

"On With The Sale" Never Mind The Cost

Thats the general orders at Ormandy Bros. big sale of Furniture and House Furnishings. Many have already availed themselves of the unusual bargains offered.

Goods are going fast-No wonder. The greatest bargains ever offered in the County are here. Don't let this savings opportunity pass.

Ormandy Bros.

2nd & Main

FURNITURE Hilsboro, Ore.