R. Bagley, plaintiff, and against The Pence Company, defendants, upon which the sum of $676 remains unpaid, besides the costs of and upon this writ, I did on April 10th, 1916, levy upon the following tracts of land: 1. A strip of land 60 feet wide, being 30 feet on each side of a line run as follows: Beginning at a point 860 ft. west of the N. E. corner of the N. E. 1/4 of Sec. 28, T. 2 N., R. 2 W., thence in a southerly direction; thence in a southerly direction; thence in a northerly direction, crossing the east line of a 1/2 section at a point 444.5 feet south of the N. E. corner thereof; said line being the center line of the flume or ditch constructed on the N. E. 1/4 of the N. E. 1/4 of said Sec. 28, 2. A strip of land 60 feet wide, being 30 feet on each side of a line run as follows: Beginning at a point 1497 feet west of the N. E. corner of Sec. 28, T. 2 N., R. 2 W., thence in a southerly direction; thence in an easterly direction; thence in a northerly direction, crossing the east line of the N. W. 1/4 of the N. Shame on old Michigan! Voting for Henry Ford, who wants peace. It would not be surprising if the entire sisterhood will be as shameful as the peninsula state, and vote for peace, notwithstanding the big ammunition men and financiers want Roosevelt and riot.

If the legislature should pass a law disfranchising every person who does not talk grammatically we are of the opinion that the Banks candidate for the legislature could be elected on his own poor little ballot—if he would only be sufficiently modest to proclaim it.

E. L. Moore has filed as a candidate for the legislature. He is a business man, is wide-awake, and has a grasp of public affairs. If nominated and elected he should do the state and county good service. This statement stands, although it might not suit the "cultivated" candidate from Banks, who is likely to charge he is another Argus candidate.

Whenever you find a chap who year in and year out using his sheet to vilify everybody excepting himself, save when he thinks he can get a vote in the primaries—watch him. He'll bear it.

A crew of carpenters under Mr. Holland is rushing the construction of a large modern bungalow on the R. Linton place, east of Sewell station, and will have it finished in a few weeks.

Samuel Stephens reports that many of the cemetery lots are being robbed of their flowers. The management of the cemetery requests that lot decorations of this nature be unmoistened.

Cashier Ireland, of the Sheriff's force, reports taxes collected to April 5, all tabulated and entered, in the sum of $293,774.18. This is not quite three-fifths of the entire tax.

Robt. Robson, a carpenter with the bridge gang at Mayo, on the Tillamook line, was injured by a splinter from a falling board, Tuesday, cutting a gash on his cheek and on the outer edge of his eye. Dr. Erwin dressed the wound.

Here's not half a bad one. Two soldiers on the British firing line concluded to desert. They killed a bull and encoined themselves in its hide, in an attempt to walk off without exciting suspicion. After they had gone a mile the one representing the head of the animal, said to his companion in the rear, "Say, can you run?" The answer was, "Not in this hide." His guide then said, "Well, brace yourself, then, for a devil of a fight, for I see another bull approaching."
