

ROCK ROAD WORK TO START BY 1ST OF MAY

Court Now Advertising for Hauling Rock for Eighteen Districts

EXPECT TO BUILD 30 MILES ROAD

Over One Hundred Thousand Dollars to be Expended in 1916

The county court will open bids for hauling rock in 18 road districts, on April 29, and by that time work will start in all sections of the county. It is expected that nearly 30 miles of permanent road will be constructed this season, as against 24 1/2 miles last year. This will not include the re-dress on the Beaverton-Forest Grove road, but will include the stretch in the Reedville road district, which will close the gap and connect up the rock road between Gaston and Portland. There are $56,000 in the special road district funds, and at least $30,000 in the general road district funds out of its total of $76,000, that will be used on permanent road building. Added to this will be the $21,000 for the re-dressing of the rock road from Forest Grove to Beaverton. To this will be added $5,000 from the state highway fund.

Rock haulers and crushers will sign up to take half their money this Spring and Summer, and half this Fall, and this will give the court a chance to use the entire tax without a break.

After May 1 there will be a great activity in road work, and many men and teams will be employed. By Fall the main road, running east and west through the county, will have been completed, and over 25 miles of new rock laid elsewhere. Nearly $150,000 will be the total expended on roads, and over two-thirds of that sum will go into macadam thoroughfares.

MRS. ELIZABETH MANNING

The passing of Mrs. Elizabeth Manning, in this city, Sunday, April 9, 1916, marked the departure of an esteemed pioneer who had lived almost continuously in Washington County for 70 years. Her maiden name was Scoggin, and she was born in Morgan County, Mo., Sept. 28, 1836. When she was four years old her father died. In 1845 her mother united in marriage with James Chambers, and the family crossed the Plains that year, arriving in Washington County in the Fall. They settled at West Union, where Mr. Chambers settled on a donation land claim. There, in District No. 1, the daughter received her education, later attending Tualatin Academy. In 1851 she was married to Carlos D. Wilcox, and went as a bride to his donation land claim, north of Hillsboro, and they built the house now owned by Peter Gottlieb. This place has been her home ever since. To the union were born five children, two of whom survive—Wm. Wilcox, of Portland, and Mrs. Letitia Simon, wife of R. P. Simon, of Hillsboro, and at whose home Mrs. Manning passed away.

Her husband died, and in 1875 the widow married Loui Manning. Mr. Manning died in November, 1911. Of her immediate family three sisters remain—Mrs. Martha Scoggin Comstock, Portland; Mrs. Mary Chambers Hoover, of Fossil, and Mrs. Letitia Bailey, wife of Dr. F. A. Bailey, the pioneer physician and surgeon, of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Manning was a member of the Oregon Pioneer Association, and she took a great interest in the organization. She was a woman of splendid personality, great kindness of heart, and nobility of character, and she was noted for her charities, which she conferred in a modest way. She will be sincerely mourned by her relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral took place Tuesday, Rev. E. A. Harris conducting the services. There was a great profusion of floral tributes, a testimonial of the high esteem in which she was held.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

A very pleasant surprise was tendered Miss May Clarno, at the home of her parents, Henry Clarno and wife, of Bethany, on Wednesday evening, April 5, in celebration of her 16th birthday. The evening was spent with music and games. Refreshments were served, and all reported a good time. Several beautiful presents were given.

Those present: Mary and Jno. Liesman, Herman Schindler, Ben and Anna Graf, Bertha, Verne, Emma and Helena Kargel, Lucy Egginan, Sarah, Otto and Albert Schultz, Mrs. Ruth Hartsell, Herman Ediger, Mary Kargel, Herman Corliss, Sam Joss, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Buell, John, Harry, Florence and Myrlin Buell, Bud Stearns, Judge Taylor, Ed. Clarence and Tom Clarno.

Spirella Corsets—Not sold in stores. A question and a suggestion. Have you any corset troubles? If so, let Spirella service cure them. Over three million satisfied Spirella wearers testify to the ease, comfort and perfection of style produced by Spirella corsets. Any exclusive designs from which to select the corset best suited to your individual needs. A Spirella residence corsetiere in this field. My advice, experience and training are at your service, without obligation. Appointments by letter or telephone given prompt attention.—Phone Main 384. Residence, Fifth and Jackson, Hillsboro, Ore. 3-16

About 30 Knights of Pythias came down from Forest Grove, Monday evening, and joined with Phoenix Lodge No. 34 in an old-fashioned love-feast along fraternal lines. There were numerous addresses, and a luncheon. Five Hundred and whist was played until midnight. Prizes were awarded as follows: Five Hundred, Claud Smith, 1st; Harry Goff, 2nd, both of Forest Grove; whist, Leonard Brown, 1st, and Dr. E. H. Smith, 2nd; pinochle, 1st, Earl L. Donelson, Chancellor Commander E. L. Moore presided over the evening's entertainment.

For sale: Two Jersey cows, 3 and 4, in milk, fresh in September; 2 Holstein-Jerseys, 3 and 4, in milk 3 months, have been bred; Shorthorn cow, fresh in April; all are heavy milkers. Price, $45 each, if taken soon.—M. F. Greeley, Cornelius, Ore., Route 2, on old Pyle place, near Fred Bowlby's. 2-4

Frank H. Maury, of Dille, was found dead by his wife, Monday morning. When they retired Mr. Maury was not feeling well, but had made no complaint. The next morning when Mrs. Maury awakened she found that the husband was on the floor, where he had passed away. Maury was aged 66 years. The widow, two sons and two daughters survive.

Seed corn—Burpee's Golden Bantam, Oregon acclimated, the best sweet corn that grows. One pound, 15 cents; 2 pounds, 25 cents. Write for prices on larger quantities.—L. A. Smith, Hillsboro, R. 1, Box 163. 2-4

Services at Baptist Church, Sunday, April 16th. E. A. Smith, pastor.—Sunday School at 10 a. m.; J. W. Brock, Superintendent. Preaching at 11 a. m., subject, "God's Thoughts Toward Us." Young Peoples Meeting at 6:30. Preaching at 7:30, subject, "An Ancient Heroine." Prayer meeting at 7:30, Thursday evening.

For sale: New manure spreader and 60-tooth peertothe harrow, never been used; Wales adding machine, practically new; heavy stock saddle; all at sacrifice price.—L. F. Emmott, Hillsboro, Ore. Phone Main 454; residence Second and Edison. 3-5

Probate: Alex Kehrl aptd guardian Freda, Lena, Albert and Emma Kehrl; David Calkins named as executor will of late W. R. Calkins; Hearing as to competency of Geo H Kilner, 81 yrs, set for April 24; Hearing on prayer to sell land, estate H E Rogers, set for April 24; May 15 set for final settlement estate S A Lyon, deed.

For sale, reasonable: A fine graded Jersey bull, coming five years. Good Jersey type.—J. T. Rooks, Banks, Route 3, Box 115. Residence on Ridge six miles north of North Plains, via B. P. Cornelius road. 2-4

Ralph O. Smith, of Clackamas County, and Mary J. Case, of Washington County, were united in marriage in Hillsboro, April 11, 1916, Judge W. D. Smith officiating.

For sale: Kentucky Wonder and Kentucky Wonder Wax Burpees stringless green pod and Black Wax beans, and Delicious squash seed. Also 100-egg incubator.—C. K. Rogers, Beaverton, Ore., R. 4, Box 20. Telephone 52. 2-4

Fruit Inspector A. V. Denny, of below Beaverton, was in the city yesterday. He says that there has been a great deal of spraying over the county this season, and there should be some good results this Fall.

For Rent: One and one-half acres; good nine-room house, fruit of all kinds. Seven blocks from post office. $15 per month to right party. For further particulars, phone Farmer 824, or call 10th and Main St. 3-5

Henry Parsons, of above Dille, was in town the first of the week. He and the Argus reporter worked on the Northern Pacific in the Walla Walla country nearly 30 years ago.

The Needlecraft will give a benefit dance at the Moose Hall, Saturday, April 15. The proceeds will go to charity—and the public is asked to give a hearty financial support.

Easter will be commemorated at Plymouth Cong. Church, with a sacred concert at the morning service, Sunday, April 23. The program will appear in next week's paper.

"SKEEZICKS" POKES FUN AT FARMER

Candidate for Legislature Doesn't Like Way Meek Expresses Self

USES PAPER FOR HARSH RIDICULE

Attack Made on S. A. D. Meek, Son of Illustrious Oregonian

The Banks candidate for the legislature gratuitously insults S. A. D. Meek in an issue of the Banks paper. Fearful that the North Plains farmer might hurt the candidacy of the man who has called every citizen of the county seat a grafter, and who evidently looks upon a farmer with disdain, the mouthpiece of Larry gloats over the dialect of Mr. Meek. And, because the Argus had said Steve Meek was a clean man it is asserted that Meek is the Argus' candidate—all of which is the rankest rot. The Argus has never approached a candidate for the legislature on matters of legislation, and for 20 years this has been its rule. For a ten of fifteen dollar notice is neither here nor there—even if it be the corpus-delicti of Larry. Meek's farmer friends are likely to love this kind of assault upon Steve Meek. Lack of polished phrases do not always mark a man as a "dub," as Larry would have one believe.

For instance, Old Joe Meek, who saved Oregon to the United States from John Bull, when the crucial test came for a vote, did not expatiate upon the glories of American liberty, nor did he round his peroration with a choice bit of oratory—he simply scratched a line on the ground at old Champooz, and said to the one hundred present, in his Virginia dialect, "Who's Fer a Divide—all who favor our Uncle Sam come over here!" And they came, and the Oregon country, from the crest of the Rocky Mountains clear to the Pacific, as far South as California, and as far North as the North Sound, was saved to the United States. Never mind the "homely talk." Steve Meek is a son of old Joe Meek; he is clean; he is honest; he is interested in legislation that means reduction of expenses—and he probably is not animated by any "legal" publication legislation, not being in the newspaper game.

Steve, the Argus just loves you for the enemies you have made.

For instance, Old Joe Meek, who saved Oregon to the United States from John Bull, when the crucial test came for a vote, did not expatiate upon the glories of American liberty, nor did he round his peroration with a choice bit of oratory—he simply scratched a line on the ground at old Champooz, and said to the one hundred present, in his Virginia dialect, "Who's Fer a Divide—all who favor our Uncle Sam come over here!" And they came, and the Oregon country, from the crest of the Rocky Mountains clear to the Pacific, as far South as California, and as far North as the North Sound, was saved to the United States. Never mind the "homely talk." Steve Meek is a son of old Joe Meek; he is clean; he is honest; he is interested in legislation that means reduction of expenses—and he probably is not animated by any "legal" publication legislation, not being in the newspaper game.

Steve, the Argus just loves you for the enemies you have made.

Steve, the Argus just loves you for the enemies you have made.

Steve, the Argus just loves you for the enemies you have made.

STURDEVANT—GRABEL

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Grabel, Hillsboro, at 2:30 p. m., April 9, 1916, when their daughter, Myrtle Olive, was united in marriage to M. LeRoy Sturdevant, of Cornelius, Rev. Myers, of the M. E. Church, officiating, using the beautiful double ring ceremony. The nuptials were celebrated under a wedding bell of white carnations. Before the ceremony, Franklin Everitt sang "Mizpah," and Miss Grace Myers played the wedding march from Mendelssohn. The bride was beautiful in white satin, trimmed in shadow lace and pearls, with a veil and orange blossoms, carrying a lovely shower bouquet of bride roses, orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Bertha Boyd, as bridesmaid, was charming in deep cream marquisette over silk, and she carried a bouquet of roses. Little Kathleen Hornby, as flower girl, wore white batiste, embroidered in pink, and carried a basket of sweet peas. Vinta Boyd officiated as groomsman.

A buffet luncheon was served after congratulations had been tendered. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grabel, and has lived here during her girlhood. The groom is the youngest son of Mrs. Bella Sturdevant, of Cornelius. Both are prominent in church work, and have a host of friends here and at Cornelius, who wish them happiness.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at their Cornelius residence.

Finis Brown, of Laurel, was in the city yesterday.

Ground bone, grit, shell, egg food at Green's.

Mrs. Chas. Koerber, of Scholls, was in town today.

Wanted—A girl for general housework.—Phone City 792.

Green Walker, of Banks, was in town today.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fowles, of above Mountaineale, were in the city Tuesday.

Bergen Floral Co.'s phone number is Main 806. 51tf

Alex Gordon, of beyond North Plains, was in town the first of the week.

Chas. Johnson, the South Tualatin sawmill man, was in the city Monday.

Gail Soper, of near Orenco, was in the county seat Monday afternoon.

Moretz Schmidt, of Helvetia, was in the city the last of the week.

R. Schwanke, of Shefflin, was in the county seat the last of the week.

Clyde Mason, a student of the University of Oregon, is spending the week with home folks.

Mrs. N. J. Walker, of Gaston, visited her son, J. W. Brock, this week.

Miss Nellie Stone returned to her home in Portland, Saturday, after a week's visit with Mrs. Leonard Brown.

Miss Hazel Johnson, of Portland, was a guest of her cousins, the Misses Zola and Viola Walsh, Sunday.

The Social Circle of the Cong. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. C. B. Buchanan, Thursday afternoon, April 20.

Supervisor Vanderzanden and H. C. Carstens, of Roy, were in town yesterday, greeting county seat friends.

Fay Harrington and family have gone to Morris, Minn., to reside. Mr. Harrington owns a farm at that point.

Money to loan—on farm security. I represent three large fire insurance companies. Give me a call.—E. I. Kuratil.

Life Staff on draft at Wiley's place, Saturday. A fine drink, sparkling and invigorating. A splendid substitute for beer.

Cliff Long, who left here for the Walla Walla section a month ago, is now rodmann with a surveyor's crew on the Third division of the O. W. R. & N.

Robt. Hartrampf, who recently went through the Whitman Co., Wash. territory, says that farming is six weeks behind time up that way, owing to the lateness of Spring.

Carl Muller, the greenhouse man of Southeast Hillsboro, is about as busy as a man can be these days, putting in his new plant. He will soon be ready for business.

Mr. and Mrs. Case and daughter, Miss Helen, returned the last of the week from Buhl, Idaho, and are guests at the home of C. G. Reiter and wife. They expect to locate in Southern Oregon.

Oscar Stoffer, of Cokeville, Wyoming, is visiting with his uncle, Henry Stoffer Sr., and family. He is accompanied by Miss Anna Stoffer, a granddaughter of the host, who will remain until next month. Mr. Stoffer is an electrician and will probably locate in Portland.

The members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. held their monthly social Friday, and celebrated three golden weddings, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bevier, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morton and Mr. and Mrs. Hensley. Mrs. Olden, president of the Corps, presented each couple with a gold piece in behalf of the two organizations, after which congratulations were tendered. About 60 enjoyed the wedding dinner. The three brides cut the wedding cake. The hall was decorated with a mass of yellow and green. The Drum Corps furnished the music. Mrs. Whitmore, of Portland, read a poem of her own composition, complimenting the three couples.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs. Plas, is occupying the time of the circuit court this week. The case was tried a year ago, and resulted in disagreement. District Attorney Tongue is trying the case against Lyda with no assistance, and Wm. G. Hare is defending the case. The case will probably finish tomorrow, late, or Saturday morning. The jurors are: John Frank, R. H. Brooks, G. W. Andrews, W. C. Johnson, D. M. Gillenwater, Wm. Morgenson, I. H. Maxwell, E. A. Eddy, N. C. Shipley, Frank Maitland, F. C. Tolle, Henry Scheuermann. The evidence is not materially different from the other trial, except that both sides have strengthened their cases to a certain extent.

The W. H. Lyda trial, charged with a criminal offense, the state's witness being his daughter, Mrs.