STATISTICS SHOW COUNTY LEADS STATE

Washington County Leads all Others in Dairy Production

CONDENSERS SPEND MILLION A YEAR

Many Big Dairies in East End Supply Portland's Milk Consumption

The latest figures on state production put Washington far in the lead of all others as the banner dairy production county in Oregon. The estimate is that the two condensers pay out over a million dollars per year for milk and hauling, together with the labor involved, while the shipments to Portland amount to perhaps half as much, when one considers the innumerable dairies in the east end of the county furnishing Portland's milk and cream supply.

Nowhere in the state are there universally so many fine dairy herds, and the registered stock is rapidly gaining in numbers. There are many fine herds of Holsteins and Jerseys, and for individual producers the district has other counties discounted.

While Tillamook, in proportion to population, has a big income on her cheese manufacture, Washington leads her in production practically two to one.

Better herds are being built up each year, and there is always a market for the condensed product. The coming of the two Carnation condensers have meant prosperity to Washington County, and in this conjunction it might be well to note as one of the pioneers in condensing Fred Schomburg, who saw its possibilities, and Judge Geo. R. Bagley and Dr. J. P. Tamiesie, who helped him in establishing the first institution of its kind here.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

(From The Argus)

County Treasurer J. W. Sappington died of a stroke, Wednesday evening. He was a widower, and lived with a minor son. He leaves a grown son, also, E. B. Sappington. Mr. Sappington had served one term as treasurer, and was last week given the nomination to succeed himself. He was a man of the strictest integrity, and had a host of friends in Washington County.

Dr. F. J. Bailey and Wm. Partlow are in Grant County, where they have leased the Thurman Hot Springs.

Judge Cornelius has given full citizen papers to Anton Maresch, Adam Herkert, Alfred Spreadborough, Wm. Spreadborough, J. G. Roos, John Greenwood, Chas. Bloom, John Vanderwal and Ernest Gurske.

Frank B. Jolly died in this city last Saturday. He studied law in the office of T. H. Tongue, and was admitted to the bar. He was a son of Rev. Wm. Jolly, who settled north of Hillsboro in pioneer days.

A Newberg man recently lost a horse on Jackson Bottom, the animal getting off the grade. Being tangled in the harness it was impossible to extricate it.

The recent heavy rains have caused extreme high water on the lowlands and much acreage will not be seeded until very late.

Mrs. Jenks died at her home in South Hillsboro, Tuesday. The cause of death was cancer.

Dr. C. B. Brown is visiting back in Indiana, and will not return until September.

Ed. Thomas, of Beaverton, enjoyed a runaway one day last week. No serious damage, but it was exciting while it lasted.

Spirella Corsets—Not sold in stores. A question and a suggestion. Have you any corset troubles? If so, let Spirella service cure them. Over three million satisfied Spirella wearers testify to the ease, comfort and perfection of style produced by Spirella corsets. Any exclusive designs from which to select the corset best suited to your individual needs. A Spirella residence coterie in this field. My advice, experience and training are at your service, without obligation. Appointments by letter or telephone given prompt attention.—Phone Main 384. Residence, Fifth and Jackson, Hillsboro, Ore. 3-16

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Rasmussen Brothers, 4 miles south of Hillsboro, Tuesday evening, April 27. The hours were spent in dancing and cards. Light refreshments were served. Those present: Messrs. and Mesdames Schofield, C. F. Grable, H. Halvorsen; Mrs. L. Erickson; Misses Catherine, Elizabeth and Barbara Hillecke, Bertha and Edith Grable, Myrtle Wianicke, Mary Herman, Winifred, Esmeralda, Mildred and Gladys Lindholm; Messrs. Pete, Hans, William and Geo. Wianicke, Carl and William Asbahr, Joe Corrieri, Albert Greener, Ed End, Ralph Mackerson, John and Jacob Halvorsen, Earl Grable and Walter Schofield.

Druggists are not selling very much ethyl alcohol these days, since the new law went into effect. They must pay $25 a year license, and before sale is made the buyer must swear it is not to be used in any form as a beverage, and they must say to what use it will be assigned. If anyone shall swear falsely it means not less than two years or more than four years in the pen. This means that alcohol is more or less a drug on the market. No person can buy more than two quarts in four weeks.

Jas. Gibson, Mayor of Reedville, was here Saturday. A week ago Friday Mr. Gibson enjoyed his 82nd birthday. He has been in Oregon since the late forties, and says he has never been ill a day from contagious disease, and he yet feels like he could hold his end with the majority of those in the sixty-year class. He celebrated his birthday at Woodburn, with his daughter.

For sale: Twelve head of high grade Holstein cows and heifers, and 15 Angora goats.—C. Vandermost, Beaverton, Route 3. One-half mile south of Kinton school house.

Frank T. Rice, who has been visiting his son, Wm. Rice, of north of town, returned to his Portland home, Friday. While here he celebrated his 78th birthday.

For Sale—Pure Garnet Chili seed potatoes $1 per 100 lbs. f.o.b. Beaverton. A. A. Pike, Beaverton, Oregon, Route 4. Phone, 551, Line 4. 5-7

Jacob Schneider, of near Leisyville, was a city visitor Friday morning.

Bulk garden seeds and onion sets at Greers.

"SKEEZICKS" TAKES AIM WITH EYES SHUT

Deliberately by Inference Calls Commissioner Hanley Non Compos

WHILE COMMISSIONER WAS RIGHT

"Big 1" Banks Candidate Afflicted With Mental Myopia and Myalgia

"Skeezicks," the big "I" candidate for the legislature from Banks and Portland, first name whilom "Larry," in his weekly effusion practically calls Commissioner C. A. Hanley villain and falsifier—just because the commissioner found Larry's name on the registration of two years ago in the democratic column. Mr. Hanley, to be just, named Larry, or "Skeezicks," as he is better known, as a clerk on the election board. A county newspaper called the public's attention to the fact of registration as a democrat, and his now being on the republican ticket as a candidate, and instead of gracefully acknowledging the indisputable record Larry unbosoms himself and says the "Commissioner didn't know any better." This is a sample of the mental myopia and myalgia of "Skeezicks," and marks him as a wonder. Of course, his inference is that Commissioner Hanley can't read. From reading "Skeezicks" week after week it is hard to find that he admires that anyone can read except, perhaps, "Skeezicks."

This is a fair example of the mentality of the man who is yelling "ring" and who awakens in the night astride of a "night-hoss," with eyes staring through the gloom, and cries for help from the farmer—who, according to Larry can't talk or write very well, but has a ballot to save him from the cobra-coil of the "red circle."

Mr. Hanley says he knows the registration was democratic, and he only put the boy on because he thought he would make a good clerk—but it begins to look as though C. A. were mistaken. Meantime it is suggested that Larry prosecute the son-of-a-gun who registered him falsely. Wouldn't this be a fine fellow to send to Salem—particularly that place opposite the senate chamber?
