

BUXTON WOMAN JUMPS INTO WELL

Mrs. William Feldt Dead, Supposedly From Suicide

FAMILY TROUBLE SUPPOSED CAUSE

Coroner and Sheriff, With District Attorney Visit Place

Mrs. Wm. Feldt, a woman of past middle age, jumped in a well at the family home above Buxton, yesterday, and was taken from the reservoir dead. Coroner Barrett went to the Feldt place yesterday afternoon, and concluded that an investigation would not be out of place. Sheriff Reeves and District Attorney Tongue accompanied Dr. Barrett there this morning, and Dr. F. A. Bailey was taken along to make an examination of the body, which is badly bruised.

It is supposed that it was a case of suicide, and the husband says the wife was taken from the well on Tuesday.

There has been some family trouble in the Feldt home for some years, and when Hancock was sheriff, Feldt was arrested on complaint of his wife, the charge being assault and battery.

A son of Feldt was married the other day, and it is said that the young man was told to leave home, and that this was one of the cause of domestic disturbance.

The Argus goes to press before the officials return and the verdict of the coroner's jury is not known at this point.

FOR ASSESSOR

I am a republican candidate for the nomination of Assessor for Washington County. There are four other candidates for the same office on the same ticket. All have promised, in an indefinite way, to practice economy. The expense of that office last year was approximately $7500.

If I am nominated and elected, I hereby make definite promise, barring unforeseen and unusual extra work that may be imposed on the office, to reduce the expense of the office not less than $1000 per year after my first year or resign. This is not egotism. I am simply placing a mark to be aimed at. I must hit that mark or get out.

I further promise in all cases to assess the property; not the man.

Chas. E. Lytle.

HELVETIA BOY DROWNS

John Joseph Nussbaumer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Nussbaumer, of Helvetia, was drowned in the Willamette Slough, last Sunday, and the body recovered Monday afternoon. Young Nussbaumer had gone to the slough, via the Cornelius Pass, on an outing for the day, in company with Fred Grossen and several other young men. They missed him in the afternoon, late, and upon finding his hat in the stream, instituted a search party, being satisfied he was drowned. The young man would have been 18 years old in a few days. The funeral took place yesterday, services being conducted at North Plains. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

Card of Thanks

I desire to return thanks to the Hillsboro Fire Department and the neighbors who so kindly tried to save my property which was destroyed by fire last week.

C. R. Hodgdon.
Hillsboro, Ore., April 29, 1916.

MARLIN-McINNIS

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. McInnis, at Orenco, April 27, 1916, when their daughter, Jessie Maude, was united in marriage to James Leroy Marlin, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marlin.

The Presbyterian marriage service was read by Rev. Booser. The bride was beautifully gowned in white faille silk.

The parlor was tastefully decorated in apple blossoms and cut flowers.

After a sumptuous repast the happy couple departed on a short wedding trip, and will be at home to their friends after May 10th, at the Roselyn Apartments, Portland.

Many useful and beautiful presents were received.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marlin, Mrs. J. H. Wilson and son, Raymond, of Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. John York and sons, Duncan, John and Robert, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McInnis and children, Donald, Kenneth, Laura and Alice, of Orenco.

Drop in at the Blossom Festival for your supper Friday night.

The Farmington Christian Ladies' Aid presents this year, as their annual play, a three-act comedy, entitled "One Girl in a Thousand," an offering of strong human interest, intense action, replete with thrills and laughs. The play will be given Saturday evening, May 6, at Rehse's Hop House, Farmington. The cast will be quite as strong as in former years, a combination of the old stellar performers and some valuable new material. Everything points to an entertainment well worth seeing, and the rumors of numerous parties being organized at a distance gives considerable encouragement to the management.

The railway men on the local divisions are more than pleased that the differences between employees and the big companies are to be settled without a strike. It appeared for some time as though there was bound to be a tie-up, and it would have meant parous times in the railway world. The committees on both sides of the controversy got together last week and the threat of a strike is now of no menace. Many lines raised the wages of the men a fortnight ago, and it is thought this had much to do with settling the dispute.

Do not overlook the Vita Club minstrel show at the Liberty Theatre, this evening—the best that has ever been staged in the city. Chairman Vincent Engelzinger has given the show a great deal of attention, and under the direction of Geo. Emmott and W. N. Harris, the show will be rich in detail and ensemble. Remember, tonight, at the Liberty.

Edwin M. Baker asks that his marriage with Helen Davey Baker, which was solemnized at Tacoma, March 15, of this year, be annulled. He says that he was given a divorce at Oregon City just five days before marriage, and that at the time he thought the ceremony was legal. Since, however, he discovered that the laws of Washington and Oregon militate against a divorcee contracting a marriage within 6 months from and after a decree of separation has been entered.

SIX ACRES PLANTED IN PEPPERMINT

Judge Reasoner Trying a New Crop on Beaverdam Farm

WILL ERECT STILL ON PLACE

Crop Said to be Highly Remunerative. Big Demand for Essence

County Judge D. B. Reasoner is taking a plunge in peppermint culture, and he is planting six acres of that product on his farm near Oak Park, west of Hillsboro. The freight on the roots from Dallas cost $20, and the planting of the little fellows is a big task. He will get a crop this year, and will erect a still on his farm, and extract the juices. The industry is said to be one of the most profitable owing to the constant demand for peppermint essences, and the net results, with any kind of a stand, means a better return than with almost any other kind of production.

The venture is a new one down this way, but those who are authorities say that the soil here is specially adapted to culture of this shrub.

The venture will be watched with interest and if highly successful there will be quite an acreage in this vicinity another year.

BAND CONCERT

The Orenco Military Band gave a concert at the bandstand, on the court house square, Saturday evening, rendering several finely executed numbers. Their music was a revelation to many, and their entertainment was well received. Owing to the fact that the evening was a trifle chill, the attendance was not as large as it might have been.

COME BACK, B. C.

Editor Argus: We came down here to test this country, and have been here long enough to do it, and we find that it is not half as good as represented. My advice to Washington County people—stay by your homes. To sell them to come down here is like jumping from the frying pan into the fire. If we live we are coming back this summer, sometime.

As ever yours,
B. C. Hollenbeck.
St. Johns Park, Fla., April 27, 1916.

WASHINGTON HOTEL HAS NEW BONIFACE

W. H. Bentley Succeeds W. C. Gifford as Proprietor

TAKES OVER THE ENTIRE BUSINESS

Gifford Has Been Landlord Since Hotel Opened to Public

W. H. Bentley has succeeded to the lordship of the Hotel Washington and assumed charge yesterday morning. W. C. Gifford, who has conducted the hostelry since it was built and opened, retires with a reputation for good service, and he has made a name second to none as a Boniface in the Willamette Valley.

The Washington was built by Dr. J. P. Tamiesie in 1908, and it placed Hillsboro on the map as having a first-class hotel. Traveling salesmen who never had remained here over night made it a point to reach Hillsboro to spend the evening here. The place has done more to advertise Hillsboro than any other city agency.

Mr. Gifford is a thorough hotel man, and his departure from Hillsboro occasions genuine regret to all who have become acquainted with him. Wherever he goes the general public wishes him the greatest success.

Mr. Bentley, the new proprietor, is well known in this city, and he proposes to keep up the fame of the hostelry.

THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

Has a big program Wednesday and Thursday, May 10 and 11—Billy Burke in "Peggy." The people of Hillsboro and surrounding country will be more than pleased to know they can see this wonderful feature in eight reels at home, and at prices within reach of all—10 and 15 cents. This picture has never been out of Portland for less than 25, 35 and 50 cents. The Columbia Theatre, in Portland, played this feature for ten days, with midnight matinees, and could not take care of the crowds. The Triangle Film Co. paid Billy Burke $150,000 to play in this picture, and it is the success of the season. The Majestic Theatre is paying the price for this picture and must get the masses. Billy Burke is the talk of the town, and you can't afford to miss it. People from Hillsboro made two or three trips to Portland to see Billy, and could not get seats. It will be well for as many as possible to attend the matinees, as the crowds will be large at night. Matinees both days at 2 o'clock, and doors open in evening at 7:15.

HAULING LET

Rock hauling for the various county road districts were let Saturday. Adam Herzert gets Roads 109, 400, 606, 607 and 71, at 10 cents the first quarter mile and 4 cents added for each successive quarter. Alf Pieren gets the Helvetia hauling at the same price; Neil Larson gets the hauling in District 6, at the same price per yard; H. W. Scott crushes and delivers in the Seogrin Valley at $150 per yard; Wolf & Nelson, Cornelius, were awarded hauling in Districts 37, 13, and 50; Kama and others will haul for Road 178.

FOR COUNTY CLERK

E. L. McCormick, who is a candidate for the office of County Clerk, at the republican primaries May 19th, 1916, is a native son of this state, having been born in Polk County, near Salem, Oregon. His parents crossed the plains in 1859, by ox team, and in 1875 moved to this county where they have since resided. Mr. McCormick's nationality is of German and Scotch-Irish descent. Mr. McCormick finished his schooling at Pacific College, Newberg, Ore., after which he followed teaching in Yamhill and Washington Counties for more than eight years, until he moved to Hillsboro, when in 1895 he was married to Miss Geneva Birdsell. Mr. McCormick has been engaged in business for several years until last year when he sold his stock. Has been a tax payer of Washington for many years. Mr. McCormick asks the voters of this county to consider his name when casting their votes at the primaries and promises a diligent performance of the duties of the office if he should be chosen as the choice of the people.

Yours Submitted,
Paid Adv. E. L. McCormick.

"A Trip Around the World." When? May 26. How? With the Ladies Aid of the M. E. church.

The school annual Saturday was well attended by perhaps 5000 people. The Orenco band furnished the music. Dr. F. A. Bailey crowned Miss Rose Emmott as Queen of May. The Queen's attendants were Misses Marjory Wells, Ethel Johnson, Alice Lake and May Davis; Cornelia Pinkerton and Cecil Emmott, train bearers, and little Grace Jose, as crown bearer. The drill by the boys of the 6th grade, directed by Miss Crim, was a feature. The Faculty quartet, of Cornelius, made a hit, and the folk dances by children under direction of Miss Weathered, Mrs. Traylor and Miss Brogden, of the Hillsboro schools, were very clever. The grade school songs, Hillsboro, under direction of Prof. Ingram, were excellent. The Orenco school blossom dance, directed by Miss Jones and Miss Wilcox, was very beautiful. The Hillsboro High School chorus, under the leadership of Prof. Ingram, was a revelation in showing the result of training. Miss Georgia Baldwin was the pianist for the chorus, and also for the High School orchestra.

Supper parties at the Blossom Festival will be numerous. Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gates are entertaining with covers for six. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Emmott will entertain a number of Portland friends. Among others are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robb; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weil; Mr. and Mrs. Mahon and Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Robb. Many parties from Forest Grove have reserved tables also.

A delightful affair of last Monday was a farewell surprise party tendered Miss Kate Barton, of Rock Creek. The evening was devoted to music and games. Dainty refreshments were served at midnight. Those present were Kate Barton, Deborah Wismer, Ruth, Clara and Dorothy Calvin, Thekla Scheidt, Lydia Zurcher, Alice Radke, Lelah and Emma Fuegy, Anna and Emma Schneider, Mary and Sabina Grant, Martha Kaufman, Clara Jaggi, Dorothy Dodge, Mina Guttschmidt; Jack and Gottlieb Schneider, Fred and Louie Zurcher, Chris Jaggi, Clarence Dodge, Eddie Scheidt, Herman Kestek, John Trachsel, Edw Gutschmidt, Jacob Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin.

On Saturday, May 13, and every following Saturday, we will give absolutely free to one of our customers one gallon of ice cream, or $1.00 worth of cigars or candy. Customers making purchases of 25 cents or more, on and after Saturday, May 6, being eligible. Ask us for particulars.—Koeber's Confectionery. 7-8

The Carnation Company, for the first two weeks in May, will pay $1.55 for milk—the highest in the history of the product at this time of year. Fred Schomburg, who has had 29 years in Oregon as a dairy producer, says this is the best figure here since the memory of man runneth—and Fred knows his subject. He says that this is some comparison with 21 years ago, when a cow was doing well to make a man a $1.50 per month for an owner then prevailing prices being exceptionally low. Dairy men are feeling very much encouraged over the present price.

For rent: The north half of the hop yard on the Hawthorne Place, formerly occupied by John Salzgerber. For particulars, apply to The Hawthorne Estate; 323 Worcester Building, Portland. 6-8

The Progressive 500 Club were entertained Saturday evening, April 22, by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sorenson, a large number of members and friends being present. Honors of cards went to Mrs. F. H. Kearney and Victor Dahl. A well appointed luncheon graced the tables after cards. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Church will entertain the Club Saturday evening, May 13.

For sale: Bay horse, weighs 1200, 6 years old, sound and true.—Martin Vandehy, Hillsboro, Oregon, Route 5, near Newton Station. Phone Farmer R5. 6-8

L. Siegenthaler will grind and roll every Saturday, all day, until the threshing season. If Saturday isn't convenient, and you have a good grist, please drop a card early, and will turn it out Friday afternoon.—L. Siegenthaler, 3929-52 St. S. E., Portland, Ore. 7-9

Mrs. Cornelia Barker Carse, of Portland, will be the week-end guest of Miss Stella Boscow, Mrs. Carse is a violinist of note, and is coming especially to play for the Blossom Festival, Friday night.

The Leisyville Woman's Social Club will hold a meeting May 12, at the Leisyville school house. Dr. Erwin will be present, and perhaps other legislative candidates to discuss various laws. A fine musical program is arranged and a cordial invitation is extended the public.

Dust caps, aprons, dust cloths and tea towels will be found in the house-cleaning booth of the Blossom Festival, Friday night.
