Sunday was an ideal day for people who wanted to get out in the fresh air. Many went to the mountains in machines and spent the day. Fishing was more or less at a standstill, the finny tribe evidently being off on a holiday. The roads have dried up enough to make good wheeling.

Wm. H. Robinson, who was employed by a Portland fire insurance company, suicided last Saturday. Robinson was well known by John Vanderwal. His accounts are straight, and the cause of the rash act is veiled in mystery.

Supervisors everywhere are more than busy these days, taking care of the roads, and it means quite a payroll here and there. As soon as the court can shape itself to start work on the Forest Grove-Beaverton road there will be a big army of men at work. The redressing of this road will be partially done by contract.

Hundreds of fishermen again lined the streams in the county last Sunday, but the catches as a rule were not large. Others contented themselves with fishing between here and the Subbauer place, and Hal Taylor found quite a number of the big fellows here and there. Hal knows about every hole in Dary from Cornelius down, and he generally makes a good catch when others get a short shift. He now has Billy Nelson and the Argus in an as understudies, and with a few trips they will probably do very well.

Lot number 33 and the North 1/4 of L. 1 34 of Beaverton Reedville acreage as per duly recorded plat thereof on file in Washington County, Oregon, said lot and one-half containing 2.05 acres except a fifteen foot strip in addition to a ten foot road already dedicated off of the East side of said lots, also 25 feet off of the North side of said Lot 33, both of said strips being reserved for road purposes.

And that said mortgage be decreed and declared to be prior and superior to the interest, right, title, claim or lien of each and all of the defendants above named, and also the defendants above named, and that the interest, right, title, claim or lien of each and all of the defendants above named, and all persons claiming by, through or under you or either of you be forever barred, foreclosed and precluded from all interest, right or title to or claim or lien upon said real property, save only the statutory right of redemption; and that such other and further relief be granted unto the plaintiff as to the Court may seem necessary and proper in the premises.
