Tuxedo Nights by Walt Mason

When the day's work's done, and the good old sun has sunk in the well known West, then I stretch my form by the fireside warm, I sit at my ease and rest. Then I take my pipe which is mildly ripe, as the pipes of good smokers are, with a chortling soul then I fill its bowl from my glass Tuxedo jar. And I smoke at ease, and my trouble flees to the place where dead troubles go; and my worries seem, in my waking dream no longer to have a show. And I say, "Indeed, it's a noble weed that drives all the ghosts away, and clamps the lid on the cares that skid around through the busy day. The worries and woes and such things as those in the daytime leave their scar, but there's reat at night and a calm delight in my glass Tuxedo jar."

ANOTHER FINE GAME

Verboort beat the Vita Club, Sunday, by a score of 2 to 1. The and was worth anybody's money. Taggart pitched a very fine game, and promises to be one of Washington county's stellar wirlers. He had fourteen strikeouts to his credit and but six were made off him. Vandehey, for Verboort, struck out thirteen men, and allowed but five hits, keeping these well scattered. It was a pitchers' attle from start to finish, al though a seemingly bad day for twirlers.
