

THOS. G. TODD DIED AT FOREST GROVE

Was One of Nature's Nobleman, and Had Host of Friends in State

A SPLENDID CITIZEN GOES TO REST

Crossed to the Coast in 1853 Via the Panama Route—Was Aged 83

Thos. G. Todd, Forest Grove's best beloved citizen, died May 29, 1916, after illness covering several months during which time he grew gradually weaker. He was born in Livingston County, New York, March 11, 1833. His father was a farmer, and Todd's first work was on a farm, at 18 per month. His mother died when he was quite young, and he had largely to shift for himself. He crossed the continent in 1855, via the Isthmus of Panama. Three years he remained in California, where he engaged in mining. In 1858 Mr. Todd went to British Columbia, where he mined and prospected on the Fraser River country. In 1866 he came to Washington County. He worked at Oswego, where he had an interest in a flour mill. Later he bought 400 acres of land southwest of Forest Grove, which he later increased to over 500 acres. His farm is one of the best in the county, and he took a great pride in husbandry.

Mr. Todd was a member of the Grange, and was also a member of the Masonic fraternity. He served three terms as county commissioner, and gave universal satisfaction.

A brother, A. B. Todd, resides at Forest Grove.

Mr. Todd was a just and conscientious man. If he ever wronged anyone in all his 83 years no one ever knew it. Withal, he was a man of intense convictions, loyal to his friends, implacable to his foes, and courteous to all.

There is genuine regret among the wide concourse of friends in the county and state.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY ELECTS NEW TEACHERS

Pacific University has elected Miss Wilma P. Waggener acting Director of the Conservatory of Music, vice Mr. Chapman, who retires.

Miss Wilma P. Waggener is well known in the Northwest as a pianist and organ teacher of large ability. She has had the advantage of two trips to Germany, spending the year each time in Berlin, and studying piano and organ under Alberto

Miss Wilma Waggener

James and Bernhard Irrgang. She was for three years in charge of the piano department at McMinnville College, and for the past four years has occupied a similar position at Albany College where she also taught pipe organ and was organist in the First Presbyterian Church of that city.

The head of the Vocal Department will be Mrs. Virginia Spencer Hutchinson, well known in Portland as a contra'to soloist,

Mrs. Virginia S. Hutchinson

teacher, and singer in prominent churches. For two years she studied in New York City under Theodore Bjorksten, A. A. Patton and Signor Belari.

The Violin Department will be in charge of one of the most distinguished violinists in the Northwest who has substantially maintained a very high reputation earned both in Europe and America—Mr. William Wallace Graham, of Portland.

Mr. Wm. Wallace Graham

It is to be the policy of the Conservatory to give the very highest service at the moderate standard cost of the best college conservatories of the country. This enables Pacific University to offer the finest teaching service in music at rates below those previously fixed by the heads of the departments.

Two other new teachers at the Pacific University recently selected by the Board for work next year are Mr. Sheridan R.

Prof. Sheridan R. Jones

Jones, who is to have charge of the Department of Biology, and Mr. Ralph Tippet who will have charge of the Department of Chemistry.

Mr. Jones was graduated at the University of South Dakota, where he took his masters degree and afterward taught for several years. He comes to Pacific University from the head of the Department of Biology at Ellsworth College, Iowa.

Mr. Tippet comes to the Chemistry work at Forest Grove with the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Illinois, where he has taught chemistry for the past three years. Mr. Tippet's record and ability as a football player and coach and general athletic enthusiast has led to his selection also as athletic coach at Pacific University for the coming year.

The History work for the coming year will be carried on by Mrs. Robert F. Clark, wife of the Dean of the College—a work for which Mrs. Clark is eminently fitted both by training and experience.

The French and German work next year will be in the hands of Miss Anna E. Bagstad, who has not only carried the French work but who has so successfully coached the German and other plays that have delightfully entertained the people of Forest Grove during the past year.

All the teachers retiring have exhibited an excellent standard of professional ability, and the best wishes of their friends go with them to their new fields of work.

Born, May 30, 1916, to H. E. Burdett and wife, Orengo, a son,

TRIP AROUND WORLD WAS BIG SUCCESS

Five Countries Represented in a Social Benefit for M. E. Church

UNIQUE EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT

Customs of Nations Represented with Fidelity at Five Homes

The Trip Around the World last Friday evening, a benefit entertainment for the M. E. church, was one of the unique features of the year. The visitors, or travelers, started from the Hotel Washington and visited five countries. The first stop was at Mexico, which was at the home of Mrs. Max Crandall. The Boy Scouts routed the Villa bandits for the visitors; Russell Morgan sang as a Spanish Cavalier; a Mexican string band dispensed music; there was a Mexican curio display conducted by a Senorita; and tortillas, frijoles and cocoa were served.

The next stop was at the M. E. parsonage, where Ireland was the objective point. Messrs. W. N. Harris and Geo. Emmott furnished the comedy; Rev. Myers explained the customs of the nation. The decorations were the Shamrock, wild roses and the banner carried by the Irish Dragoons through the Civil War. Irish potatoes, bread and buttermilk were served. The Blarney stone was one feature of this exhibit.

The third stop was at the Dr. Wood home, where Germany held forth with National characters—the Kaiser in uniform, the Kaiserine and guard; women in German attire with wooden shoes; German songs by Oswald Olson; Gretchen at her spinning wheel, instrumental music, etc. Wieners, sandwiches, German cakes and coffee were the menu. H. A. Kurath presided as the Kaiser; Herbert Scheidt, as the guard; Mrs. McKinney, Kaiserine; Miss Dorothy Linklater, as Gretchen. The Misses Mauchel rendered German music on piano and violin.

Japan was seen at the J. W. Shute home. The Mikado and Empress were represented by real Japanese from the John Dennis farm, and the Jap children were a delight. There were Japanese songs, tea gardens, and flower girls. Blossoms, Japanese lanterns and parasols were artistically used in decorating. Rice, tea and wafers were the refreshments.

The last stop was "Home"—America, at the Thos. Connell residence. President Wilson and wife were impersonated; Uncle Sam was there; Pocahontas and Capt. John Smith; Indian wigwams and booths, sailor and soldier boys; and a soloist, featuring the "Star Spangled Banner," were the principal affairs of the entertainment. Miss Beth Crandall being the soloist. Prof. Patton was Uncle Sam; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Boley represented President Wilson and wife. Refreshments, punch and cookies

The church benefitted at least $100, and they sincerely thank all who helped make this one of the most delightful entertainments ever brought to the city.

The little Harrington girl was not severely hurt. The team ran away while Mrs. Harrington was driving.

DEMOCRATS POLL 519 WITH NO CONTESTS

Woodrow Wilson Gets 519 Ballots and Reeves Follows With 517

JUDGE BENNETT LEADS COMPETITORS

He and Crawford Get High Vote in National Convention to Nominate

The highest democratic vote cast at the recent primary was 519, and this was marked for Woodrow Wilson for president. Sheriff Reeves followed with 517. There was no contest on any of the nominations with the exception of delegate to the national nominating convention. Judge A. S. Bennett, Dr. Morrow, T. H. Crawford and W. L. Morgan carried the county for this honor.

Inasmuch as the vote was negligible, and there was no fight on the official ballot is not published. The vote was:

MRS. FRANCIS COTA

Mrs. Lucinda Fleming Cota, wife of Francis Cota, died May 29, 1916. She was born Sept. 23, 1846, in Davan, Iowa. She was first married to Jefferson Henry, who died Nov. 19, 1871. She married Mr. Cota April 27, 1873. No children were born to this union. Two sisters, Mrs. Anna Whitmore and Mrs. S. Brisbane, two brothers, John and Robert Fleming, and two half-sisters, Mary Chadduck and Lettie Houdyshell, survive. She was converted early in life, for several years being a member of the M. E. church, later joining the Evangelical church.

Mrs. Cota was a woman of splendid character, and was generally esteemed. Her husband has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

WENDELL S. GUYTON

Wendell S. Guyton, a young man well known here, expired at the table, just after seating himself, Tuesday noon. He had been troubled with rheumatism for several years and it is supposed that his heart failed. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Guyton, his father being a blacksmith by trade, and was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. He was married to Miss Elnora Johnson, Sept. 13, 1912, the widow surviving. There are no children.

Mr. Guyton was a member of the order of Moose, under whose auspices the funeral took place from the M. E. Church, this afternoon.

F. Mohr and family and Geo. F. Wittmer and wife, of Portland, were Sunday visitors at the Lester R. Campbell home, at Scholls.

John Flannigan, who was in the poor farm over two years ago, and left unceremoniously, turned up Monday morning, and asked Judge Reasoner to again be sent back to the institution. As he had been in Yamhill county for over two years his request was denied. The law is that he must have been a resident here at least six months before he can demand care from the authorities. Flannigan, upon refusal, said he was going to stay here and take his chance—"I'm going to live and die right here," was his ultimatum. When the Judge went out to telephone to get dates Flannigan made his getaway. It looks as though Yamhill will have to take care of the patient. Flannigan claims he is a Civil War veteran, but can show no discharge.

To trade or sell: General merchandise store at good location in Portland. Will sell for cash, or trade for good farm. Address Business, care of Argus, Hillsboro, Oregon, sealed envelope. 11-13

A movement has been inaugurated to build teachers' cottages in all the rural school districts in the state of Oregon, with the idea that it will redound to the benefit of the faculty and the schools in the country in general. A fund has been created to start the idea nationally, and the National Lumbermen's Association has taken it up, so that it begins to look as though this will soon be an established condition. Grants Pass already has one cottage, in a rural district, and several others in the state furnish the teacher a small home. If the idea is accepted with enthusiasm it may be that Washington County will soon have scores of "teacherages," as they are named. Portland lumbermen are advancing the movement with great favor.

The Scholls Ladies Aid will give a parcel post social, Saturday night, June 3, at Scholls Odd Fellows' Hall, beginning at 8 o'clock. A good program. Light refreshments will be served. All are invited. 10-11

Circuit Judge Bagley the last of the week rendered an opinion in the suit of Drainage District No. 7, suit to collect on an assessment. The point was raised by Messrs. Huston and H. T. Bagley, attorneys for Mr. Bernards, that the law on which the district was organized was unconstitutional on the grounds that proper notice of organization, etc., is not provided. The Court held that under Supreme Court decisions the organization of the district is legal, and that the assessment will be a lien against property within the scope of the district lines. The opinion decides the validity of the district, and further litigation may follow. The case will doubtless go to the Supreme Court. E. B. and Thos. Tongue are attorneys for the drainage district. These attorneys organized the drainage body after a fruitless attempt was made by other than county seat attorneys.

I am still located at the Wiley Livery, and am in the market for all your junk, sacks, scrap iron, cast iron, rags, rubber, etc.—L. Saffron, Second & Washington. Phone, City 176. 11-2

W. W. Boscow states that the Fourth of July committee is arranging to get Munter, the aviator, for the two days celebration, July 3 and 4. On the 3rd there will be a children's parade, representing the nations of the world, and on the Fourth there will be all kinds of a celebration. The steam swing has been secured and several fine attractions besides. Gov. Withycombe has promised to deliver the address if he is in Oregon on that date.

First Shirtwaist dance of the season will be held in the Moose Hall, Saturday evening, June 3. Everybody welcome, good order, good music, and a good time is assured. Tickets, $1. 11

Frank Weisenbeck and family were over from Orengo City, Tuesday. Frank is running two places over beyond Orengo City. He says that silos are being built all over Clackamas County and that many farmers are raising corn for silage. Frank won first prize on Jersey stock at the recent Orengo City Fair.

Strayed or stolen: Bay horse, 1200, brand F, on left shoulder. White spot in forehead.—Notify Wm. Welch, Beaverfoot, Oregon, Route 2. 11-12

Jeremiah Paulsell, aged 99 years, died in Portland, May 31, 1916. He leaves a widow, Clarie, a daughter of the late Washington Jones, of North Plains. They were married here in 1897. Paulsell was a veteran of the Civil War.

Mrs. Valandigham, of Ashland, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Bowman. Mr. V. is in California, where he has recently located, and where Mrs. Valandigham will soon join him.

F. C. Ballard, well known here as a barber, died in Portland, Tuesday, and the remains were brought here for interment. He leaves a widow and a son, Linn.

VITA CLUB BENEFIT CONCL

All music-lovers will have an opportunity of hearing a concert, under the auspices of and for the benefit of the Vita Club, by a very exceptional combination of talent, consisting of Prof. Oswald Olson, vocalist; Prof. Carl Grissen, violinist; and Prof. Arthur VonJessen, pianist.

Each one of these artists has received his musical training from the world's greatest masters. Prof. Arthur VonJessen having studied two years with the renowned and world-known pianist, the late Franz Liszt. Prof. Carl Grissen graduated from the Royal Conservatories of Music, Stuttgart and Berlin. Prof. Oswald Olson studied in Berlin and Dresden.

A very carefully selected program ranging from the most classical to the lighter and more popular numbers will be rendered.

This is to be given at Liberty Theatre, Tuesday evening, June 6. Prices: 35 and 25 cents.

VITA CLUB WIN FIRST GAME

After losing three games straight—all by very close scores—the Vitas came back and defeated the hard-hitting Laurel team by the score of 6 to 3. The largest crowd of the season turned out, but the class of ball that is put up deserves better attendance.

Laurel started the scoring in the first inning, when Fields, first man up, secured a walk, stole second and third, and reached home on a wild throw by Schulmerich. The visitors secured no more runs until the fourth, when Kamna became a little nervous and walked in two runs.

The Vitas gathered four runs in their half of the first inning—Ray reached first on an error by Porter, Phelps' single placed him on second, and Burkhalter's double scored Ray and put Phelps on third. Schulmerich grounded to Porter, who let it pass, and Phelps scored. Deaville's hit scored Burkhalter and placed Schulmerich on third. Sigler was hit by a pitched ball, but was caught napping off first. Schulmerich scored on this play. Imbrie struck out, ending the inning. The Vitas scored another in the second and in the sixth.

The Vita Club will play Gaston at Athletic Park next Sunday. Taggart will probably be on the firing line for the locals.
