LONG & MCKINNEY

Theodore Roosevelt does not realize that the old guard is in an heroic mood—but not heroic for Roosevelt. The three million votes for Taft are for war just as much as Theodore, only they are trying to keep it dark.

With Hughes nominated and Wilson to get the nomination at St. Louis, the fight for the presidency is on. Both sides are confident of victory, but Wilson is confident of carrying New York and New Jersey. The campaign may take on some queer phases before next November. Roosevelt's declination will mean that the Progressive vote will be split between the two candidates. From the way it is lining up it looks like the issue will be between the ammunition makers and the peace crowd.

CHILDREN'S PARADE, JULY 3

The Ladies Auxiliary, assisted by other ladies' organizations, will endeavor to make a success of the Children's Parade, which will be a feature of the celebration July 3.

All young people of the county are invited to participate, and are requested to notify one of the committee in charge of the section in which they wish to be placed. This should be done immediately, in order that the committees may have ample time to prepare the costumes.

Another close game—Vita Club defeated Cornelius, 10 to 9, in a 12 inning game, Sunday. The game was replete with excitement from start to finish, and was won and lost several times. A rally by Cornelius in the 12th, which netted them two runs, made the Vita fans very gloomy, but the Vitas came back in their half and scored three runs after there were two men down. Taggart, relieving Williams in the 4th, pitched consistent ball. Batteries: Vitas—Williams, Taggart, Schulerich; Cornelius—Nordon and Dessenger.

The Tuxedo Hour by Walt Mason

Tuxedo's bully all the time; it makes the passing hours sublime, and by its soft and gracious curves it soothes the soul and rests the nerves, and fills my bosom, once again, with peace on earth, good will to men. But best I like it when I've fed this face of mine with jam and bread. When I have dined on Irish stew and beans and boiled potatoes, too, and pie and eggs and cheese and tripe, 'tis then I best enjoy my pipe. When from the table I withdraw, I grip my briar with my jaw, and fill it with Tuxedo mild—the pure Tuxedo undefiled—and smoke away in perfect bliss; no pleasure can compare with this. And in the curling smoke I see a world that seemeth good to me. A world that's debonair and gay, its woes and worries done away. The plans that seemed foredoomed to fail, the work that seemed of no avail, now wear the rosy glow of hope, and I endorse all sunshine dope. 'Tis thus in my Tuxedo hour; the world that seemed so dark and dour, is blooming like a rose of spring, and I'm in mood to laugh and sing.

Walt Mason
