UNION STOCK YARDS

There was the smallest run of cattle today for several weeks consisting chiefly of "trashy steers." Cows and heifers sold on a steady basis with last week, but steers showed some weakness. Calves steady.

On a very small run of less than 2300 head of hogs the market made a gain of 10 cents. Tops selling at 8 30. Demand is good and market closed on a strong basis.

Sheep market did not show any revival of strength. Lambs unless prime are not bringing a very strong price. Ordinary sheep are showing the most weakness. Market closed at steady to weak.

Born, to Homer Mays and wife, June 27, 1916, a son. The happy parents reside near Laurel.

Ronald C. Vaught and Lawrence Taggart came out from Camp Withycombe, yesterday, to bid their relatives farewell before leaving for Ft. Rosecrans, near San Diego. The battalion to which they belong will entrain today or tomorrow unless later orders are issued.

The "Battle Cry of Peace," nine reels, with nearly two miles of film, will be at the Liberty Theatre, Friday and Saturday evenings. This is one of the greatest educational films ever exhibited, and every American citizen should see it.

The "slacker" who keeps still is to be commended in comparison with the "copper-tops" who have criticised President Wilson for years because he hasn't forced war on Mexico, and who now are ardent in censure because it looks as though we shall have war. There is no pleasing the "slacker" or the "copper-top."

Oregon is always ready in case an emergency confronts the country. The Oregon battalions have the heart-wishes of all Oregon people in their trip to the South.

EVANS—PETERSON

The home of Mrs. Frank Weisenbeck, of near Oregon City, was the scene of a very pretty home wedding, Wednesday evening, June 21, when her daughter, Ida Florence Peterson, was united in marriage to John Alvin Evans, of Canby, Rev. F. W. Launer officiating.

The bride was beautiful in dainty white voile and lace, with full length veil, and carried white roses in an arm bouquet. The wedding march from Lohengrin was exquisitely rendered by Miss Veta Edmiston, who is a close friend of the bride. She was gowned in pale green silk and wore white roses.

The ceremony was performed under a huge bell of fern and orange blossoms, and the rooms were beautifully decorated in orange blossoms and pink roses.

One of the unique features of the wedding was the celebration of the fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lucke, of Canby. Mrs. Lucke is a sister to the groom.

The bride was formerly of this county, and has many friends in this city and the surrounding country. She is a grand-daughter to Mrs. R. K. Simpson, of Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans are now at home to their many friends at Canby, Oregon.

ANTON BOEKER

John Roeker Sr. yesterday received a telegram from Modesto, Cal., announcing the death of his son, Anton. Deceased was born in 1872. He leaves a wife and four children. Of his immediate family his parents and two brothers survive, one of whom is John Boeker, of this city, now visiting at Sacramento. His mother and the other brother, Chas., reside near Sacramento. Anton has been the manager of a department store in his home city, for many years.

Mr. Boeker died after an operation for appendicitis. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks to all our neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and burial of our dear mother, and especially those who sang and those who brought flowers.

Geo. Alexander is acting as deputy sheriff.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, of Jolly Plains, were in the city, Tuesday.

Wm. Nelson Jr. is visiting at points near Butte and Missoula, Montana.

Geo. J. Limber, a brother of Victor Limber, has opened an undertaking parlor at Sixth and Washington.

Chas. Adams has secured the contract to build a school building for District No. 81, and will start construction in the near future. The structure will be 30x40.

H. A. Wolford, of Buxton, was in town today. Harry is suffering from an attack of his eyes, and fears that unless he gets relief he will have serious trouble with his vision.

Mrs. Esther Matthews, of Forest Grove, has sued Frank L. Matthews for divorce, alleging that he has several times threatened to commit suicide and otherwise made her life almost unbearable. They were married in Iowa in 1878, and have five grown children. The wife says that on June 26, in order to coerce her to execute a deed the husband secured poison, and was deterred only by her calling in the neighbors. She asks for $5,000 permanent alimony, and $500 suit money. She asks the court to restrain the husband from disposing of the personal property.

W. B. Peterson, of Withc Hazel, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Henry Huntemann, of Oak Park, was in yesterday, and left at the Argus office some of the finest strawberries yet witnessed here this season. The berry has no name, but has been improved over some standard varieties. Mr. Huntemann has three acres set to Fall strawberries, which he will harvest late this season, when the prices are away ahead of Spring and early Summer values. Henry made a trip into Hood River last week, and says it is an education to a man up there, as he will learn more about packing at Hood River in a day than you would in a year down in the valley.

Miss Minnie Morrill departed for Salem today, to attend the wedding of Miss Elva Smith, a teacher here some years ago, to Dr. Walton. From Salem Miss Morrill goes to Eugene for a short visit.

James M. Enschede, of Forest Grove, died last week, at Stevensville, Mont., and was buried at the Grove, June 27. He was born in Haarlem, Holland, in 1850, and at 11 years of age went to Paris, where he learned the profession of landscape gardener. He was proficient in eight languages. He came to America at the age of 30 years, and was married in North Dakota to Miss Sya VanGross, who, with seven children, survive. For two years he has been engaged with a big fruit growing company in the Bitter Root, Montana. A son left for Alaska, a week ago Monday, and does not yet know of his father's demise.

Ed. Demmin, of South Tualatin, was in Tuesday, and says the heavy rainfall, while injuring clover that has been cut, has done a great benefit to all other crops—three to one for the

Three Snappy Games. Come and See Them

Tuxedo's Grip

by Walt Mason

Tuxedo is the gripping smoke, a boon to every buyer; you take your pipe of English oak, of meerscham, clay or briar, and fill it with the fragrant weed, the choicest man can gather; and then you have a smoke, indeed; and are you glad? Well, rather. Tuxedo has no kick or bite, suggests no "morning after"; its mission is to bring delight, and fill your heart with laughter.

It caught the sunshine of the south, when it was green and growing, and brings that sunshine to your mouth, when you blow the smoke you're blowing. "Tuxedo's in a class alone," its smokers are declaring; "it has a fragrance all its own, that baffles all comparing." And thus it grips the men who smoke, and holds their true affection; their trusty briar pipes they smoke, and never know dejection.
