ANOTHER APOLOGY

The Argus editor desires to again apologize for another assault on the person of "Skeezicks," the whimsical editor of the Banks Herald. The cause of the kick administered to Fernsworth's anatomy was an editorial insinuating that the editor of the Argus was wearing a name different than the one "he used to have." As a matter of fact, the insinuation was a lie, pure and simple, and had no foundation. The Argus editor never had but one name and by this name he has always been known from infancy to the present. The article, by the Herald, was only such a thing as a mental buzzard would pen. The desire is to apologize—that the kick was not a bit more severe, and still, a mental vulture like the Herald man is not to be blamed, nor is he really responsible.

Gov. Withycombe delivered the address of the day at the celebration grounds, and it was a thoughtful, statesmanlike effort. Gov. Jim is improving wonderfully, and he caught the popular chord from the start.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schulmerich returned to Creswell after a short visit here. J. B. Wilkes and family went with them and will remain there during the Summer months.

Attorney Manche Langley, of Forest Grove, was a Hillsboro visitor yesterday, on legal business. Miss Langley will make a canvass of the county in the interests of her candidacy, this Fall.

All hats reduced at Emmott's Millinery.

Judde McGahey, who is working in a mill near Astoria, was a Hillsboro visitor over the Fourth. He says that the lumber business is fine down the river and there is work for all. All the camps and mills shut down for the Fourth.

The Loganberry harvest is now on and the crop is one of the best ever raised. It is estimated that the county crop will go close to 500 tons. F. J. Williams & Sons will can their output.
