SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County, Ernest E. Lang, Plaintiff, vs.

Eva M. Purcell, Defendant.

To Eva M. Purcell, defendant above named,
IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court within six weeks from the first publication of this summons, to wit the 3rd day of July, 1916, and if you fail to answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint; to wit that the plaintiff recover a decree against the defendant for the sum of $2800 with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from the 20th day of October 1914 and the further sum of $350.00 attorneys fees and the costs and disbursements of this suit. That the mortgage given by the defendant to the plaintiff (dated October 20th, 1914, recorded in book 73, page 116, records of mortgages, Washington County, Oregon) upon the following property to secure the payment of said sum of $2800 be foreclosed, to-wit:—beginning at the quarter section point between sections 2 and 3 Township 2 South Range 1 West of W. M. running thence South 54 degrees East 2.54 chains; thence North 50 degrees seven minutes East along line between Lots 30 and 31 in North Tigarville Addition 8.97 chains to Graham Avenue; thence along Graham Avenue to a point in the extension of a line between lots 27 and 28 of said Addition; being 2.99 chains more or less; thence South 39 degrees 53 minutes West 8.97 chains more or less to the place of beginning, containing 2.64 acres, being the east part of lot 31 in North Tigarville Addition according to the recorded plat thereof, in the office of the recorder of conveyances of Washington County, State of Oregon. Also all the following described real property situated in the County of Washington and State of Oregon, viz: All of Lots numbered Twenty-Eight (28), Twenty-Nine (29), Thirty (30) and Thirty-Two (32) of and in North Tigarville Addition as shown by the map and plat thereof duly recorded in the office of the recorder of conveyances of Washington County, Oregon. That said mortgage be decreed to be the mortgage of the defendant and a purchase price mortgage upon the above described parcels of land, in that said mortgage be foreclosed and the property sold in the manner provided by law and that the proceeds arising from said sale be applied first to the payment of the costs and disbursements of this suit and the cost and expenses of making sale and the remainder thereof be applied to the payment of the claim of the plaintiff, on account of principal, interest and attorney fees and that any balance thereafter remaining be paid to the defendant, her heirs and assigns. That the plaintiff may become a bidder at said sale and that the defendant and all persons claiming by or through or under her after the period of redemption shall have expired be barred and forever foreclosed of and from all equity of redemption in or to said property. And that the plaintiff may have such other and further relief as is meet in the premises.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof once each week for six consecutive weeks in The Hillsboro Argus, a newspaper published in Hillsboro, Washington County, State of Oregon, by order of the Honorable George R. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled Court and entered on the 17th day of May, 1916.

Analyzing a Master.

De Quincy, who wrote the "Confessions of an English Opium Eater" and other works now considered classics, was a strange, ill-balanced person. Vernon Lee says of him that he had an incapacity for holding his tongue on irrelevant matters, which is a sign of intellectual weakness. He had also a marked incapacity for keeping his irrelevant emotions resolutely in the vituperative one to himself, which is a mark of moral vulgarity. He had a manifest tendency to talk big and at the same time to mix slang with grandiloquence in situations where no humorous effect could be obtained by this proceeding. Yet without these traits are redeemed by his great subtlety of thought, his depth of feeling and occasionally his marvelous power of seeing and saying.—New York Telegram.

Breslau's Checkered Career.

This history of the possession of Breslau shows that it has changed hands very often. Early in the seventh century it was made the seat of a bishop and after having formed part of Poland became the capital of an independent duchy in 1163. In 1225 it was purchased by John, king of Bohemia, who retained it until 1409, when it changed hands and became subject to Bohemia once more in 1460, passing with the rest of Silesia to the Hapsburgs in 1525. It came under the authority of Frederick the Great in 1741 and was recovered by Austria in 1777 and regained by Frederick in the Seven Years' war. It has since been Prussian, except a few days in 1807 and again in 1813, when it was held temporarily by the French.

Our Army Rations.

The average daily ration of the United States army is made up as follows: Bacon, 12 ounces or fresh meat, 20 ounces; bread, 18 ounces; beans, 2 1/2 ounces; potatoes, 20 ounces; preserves, 1 1/2 ounces; coffee, 1 1/2 ounces; sugar, 3 1/2 ounces; evaporated milk, 5 ounces; vinegar, 1/8 of a gill; salt, 5/8 ounce; pepper (black), 1/4 of an ounce; lard, 5/8 of an ounce; butter, 1/2 of an ounce.
