

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

VOL. XXIII

HILLSBORO, OREGON, JULY 20 1916

NO. 18

SUPREME COURT SAYS CASH FILING VALID

Decision Affects Two of This County's Legislative Candidate

CORNELIUS AND MEEK STAY PUT

Multnomah Candidate's Mandamus Case Falls Before High Court

The Oregon Supreme Court says that a candidate for the legislature or any other office can pay the secretary of state his filing fee and get his name on the primary ballot and it is legal under the new law so declaring. This order means that candidates B. P. Cornelius and S. A. D. Meek on the representative ticket and Sheriff Reeves, running for sheriff, are legal candidates. The test was brought about by a defeated candidate from Multnomah County, who declared that the candidates must go on the ticket by petition. S. B. Huston, nominated for senate, was one who paid his filing fee instead of circulating a petition.

In this county Messrs. Cornelius and Meek sent their $20 fee to the secretary of state and so did Sheriff Reeves.

The Court says:

"The act of 1915 does not in any way add to the qualifications of an elector who desire to become a candidate: No person is obliged to pay a fee, for the method requiring a fee is optional. . . . A statute requiring the payment of a reasonable fee places no obligation or impediment in the way of a person whether he be rich or poor, as long as another method like the one here requiring no fee is open to him, especially when the name of a candidate is printed on the ballot without regard to the method selected.

"The existence and availability of one concededly valid method destroyed the reason assigned in support of the asserted objection to the second and additional method, and when the reason fails the objection ought to fail with it. . . . The required fees are not unreasonable in amount."

TWENTY YEARS AGO

(From The Argus)

Gabriel Lockmann and Miss Hatie C. Davis were married this week by Judge Cornelius.

Jas. Lewis and wife, recently divorced by Judge McBride, were married at Vancouver, Wash., a few days ago, and are living in the Rose City.

J. C. Corey, of North Plains, lost his barn by fire this week. The building was newly built. The loss was about 700 bushels of oats, 200 bushels of wheat, 30 tons of hay, a top buggy and a lot of farm implements.

Charlie Demmin, aged 10 years was shot in the ankle joint last week while the lad was handling a firearm.

W. E. McCourt, Dr. A. B. Bailey and John W. Bailey left this week for a two weeks trip to the Trask, Nestucca and Nertarts country.

Judge W. D. Smith performed his first marriage this week, the contracting parties being W. W.

Marsh, of Columbia County, and Maggie Huber, of above Buxton.

Mrs. Julia M. Dennis, widow of the late Sheriff Dennis, will receive $400 back pension and hereafter receive $12 each month.

Forty-two thousand have signed the petition for a law permitting breweries to operate in Oregon under the restrictions of the present prohibition law. The Secretary of State will now place the measure on the ballot, and the prohibitionists have another amendment, entirely shutting out shipments to Oregon and prohibiting purchase in any quantity, excepting at the drug stores, and for only medicinal purposes at that. The prohibition has 32,000 signatures, and the claim is that these were secured without paid circulators. The manufacturing petitions secured many signers here, without being circulated from hand to hand.

Dr. J. G. Turner, formerly of Lowe & Turner, the well known eye specialists, of Portland, will be in Hillsboro, Tuesday, July 25, at Hotel Washington. Dr. Turner will make regular trips to Hillsboro every 30 days, and will attend to any of Dr. Lowe's patients who need his attention during his absence. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened. Satisfaction guaranteed. Consult him. At Forest Grove, July 25. 17-8

Soldier W. J. Hadley, brought up from near Astoria under suspicion of the Ristman-Jennings murder, has given the state a perfect alibi. This was the man whom Criminologist Thacher sought to make people believe was the slayer of the two killed near Tualatin. This alibi is furnished by the boss of the camp, and is unquestioned by the officials. Criminologists like Thacher should be held responsible for attempting to connect innocent people with murders. He is the man who succeeded in making Sierks, the feeble-minded fellow in the asylum, say he killed Mrs. Wehrman.

J. N. Loudon, of above Blooming, was in Friday and Saturday, suffering from a severe case of blood poison in his left hand. Dr. Smith punctured the pet for him and he returned Saturday. He had about 30 tons of hay out, and his affliction came at an inopportune time.

Mrs. D. S. Wade, a guest of the F. M. Heidel family, departed for San Francisco, Saturday, taking the Northern Pacific out of Flavel. She is enroute home to Fairmont, Neb.

J. J. Meacham, one of the old-time threshermen of the Glencoe district, was down from Banks, Saturday, a guest at the Chas. Meacham home.

To Exchange—One Lot with 5 room modern bungalow, bringing in good rent; clear of incumbrance, for small ranch or acreage.—Address X, care Argus.

Geo. Biersdorf and wife, of North Tualatin Plains, were in town Saturday. Geo. finished all his haying, but a half day of hauling, last week.

Jos. Pongratz, of Buxton, was in circuit court, Saturday, an interested listener.

John W. Winters, of near Sherwood, was a city caller the last of the week.

D. M. Whitesell, of South Tualatin, was in the city Friday, greeting friends.

Wm. Robb and wife, of Roy, were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

FOREST GROVE GETS A NEW CHURCH BUILDING

Christian Scientists Will Put up $8000 Structure

BUILDING ACTIVITY STILL CONTINUES

S. P. Soon to Finish Electrifying Line to Corvallis

Figures compiled by Forest Service show that the furniture manufacturers of Oregon use annually nearly seven million feet of lumber, more than half of which is Douglas fir and maple.

Bandon—Salmon cannery will operate under new management.

Eugene—Fairmount Brick & Tile Co. get brick contract for Roseburg federal building and also for new Roseburg high school.

Corvallis—Large crew at work on electrification of West Side S. P. lines into here.

BIDS FOR WOOD

Bids will be received until July 21st, 1916, and then opened, for furnishing the Orengo School District with wood as follows:

36 cords Oak;
5 cords first class Old Fir.
Oak wood to be not less than 4 inches or more than 8 inches in diameter. Wood to be piled at the School House so that it can be measured; and delivered by Sept. 1, 1916. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. Dated July 1, 1916.
H. McDonough, Clerk.

Ernest Herr, of Cornelius, was greeting friends in the city Saturday afternoon.

Chas. Ammer, of Portland, was out to Hillsboro, Monday, on business with the sheriff's office.

Wm. Schendel, secretary of the German Speaking Society, was in from near Cornelius the last of the week.

John Breck, of Iowa Hill, transacted business in town the last of the week. He reports that much hay was down in his section last Saturday.

All hats reduced at Emmott's Millinery.

J. H. Dorland, of above North Plains, was greeting friends in the county seat Saturday.

All the latest Kodaks and Brownie Cameras at the Delta Drug Store.

J. T. Young and family left for Barview, Tuesday, where they will camp for several weeks.

A. V. Denny, County fruit inspector, was up from Whitford, Saturday.

For Sale—Ten head yearling and two year old Cotswold ewes. In fine shape. Address Box 102 A, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 3. 18.

M. Sturm Jr., of above Blooming, was in Saturday. He says that the vegetable crops up his way are in fine condition.

Nursery stock, fine roses, asparagus roots, outdoors grown cabbage plants, now ready—4 to 8 inches.—Morton's Greenhouse.

Austin Sims, of Farmington, was up Saturday. He had 100 acres of hay down, in the shock, windrow and swath, when the rain started Saturday.

Drinks like malted milk, Denny's, milk shake and coca cola are served best at the Den of Sweets. Ten years' experience, that's why.

Chas. Matthes, of near Laurel, was over town Monday, watching the weather conditions. He came over to get away from the sight of 60 tons of hay, which he has cut and out in the field.

One important number you should have on your joy ride program is a visit to the Den of Sweets. Weatherly's ice cream served tastefully in drinks and sundaes sure to please the most exacting.

C. P. Wunderlich, of Centerville, was in town Monday. He says he lost about 17 tons of hay by the first rains, and finished practically all of his baling before the last storm broke.

Not for four years have we had so late a July rain as in 1916. In July, when the sewer and paving construction was on in Hillsboro we had some heavy rain, and it greatly interfered with the work. Precipitation followed in August for several days without doing material damage.

Dudley Stowell, of Buxton, was down to Hillsboro Monday. He says that Buxton is on the map this year, with many camps and mills running. More checks are being paid at Buxton these days than were cashed during the days of the P. R. & N. construction—and there was some business up there in those days.

Road work was suspended all over the county the last of the week owing to the heavy rains. A big crew was ready to start on the Forest Grove-Thatcher road between the Forest Grove and the Buxton road forks, Monday, and the roller and tank were in position. The rain, however, interfered and the twenty one teams about to commence operations were of necessity laid off.

Alfred H. Morgan, son of Mrs. Henrietta Morgan, of this city, has been appointed the agent of the Great Northern for the Dining and Sleeping Car Department, with headquarters at Great Falls, Montana. He has been with the road at Great Falls for several years, and his many friends in Hillsboro will be pleased to know of his promotion. The circular announcing his appointment was issued July 16.

Ben Thompson, the man indicted for the murder of Mrs. Jennings and Ristman, takes a constitutional every morning, pacing backward and forward in the jail corridor. He walks like a man training for a marathon, and exercises his arms as well, as he walks. Thompson is putting on some flesh, and he probably wants to reduce before he gets to trial. A Portland detective who was working in the interest of Thompson, was out Saturday, and had an interview with officials.

Dan Cupid appears to have had trouble with two couples, wherein divorce cases have been filed. Grace Rowell has sued Fred T. Rowell for separation, alleging that he deserted her in 1915, and that he now is in Canada. They were married in Colorado Springs in 1907. She asks the custody of a boy aged 8 years. Pauline Hays, who was married to Walter R. Hays, at Lodi, Cal., in 1912, wants the bonds severed because the husband kept company with a woman by the name of Surgirino, who, from the tenor of the complaint, must have been a peach-erino.

MINT CROP DOING FINE THIS SEASON

Five Acres of Judge Reasoner Now Fifteen Inches in Height

TO BE HARVESTED JUST LIKE HAY

Reasoner Will Build Still—Harvest Last of August or Sept. 1

The Five acres of mint planted by Judge D. B. Reasoner last Spring, on his Oak Park place, is doing fine, and the plants are now about fifteen inches in height. The rows are 30 inches apart, and in a short time the foliage will cover the ground. By next year it will look like one solid patch.

This crop is harvested just like a hay field, a regular team mower being used. It is cured and then raked and cocked up just the same as hay. Judge Reasoner will build a still in August, and extract the oil.

He has looked over several stills to get the plans and specifications, and expects to get good return on his investment. This has been an exceptionally good year for growth, and this will mean a splendid setting by next year. If the experiment proves a good one financially several others will try the crop. Old authorities on this industry say that Washington County is specially adapted to mint culture and it may prove one of the big things in the future. The oil of peppermint is always in good demand and where there is any kind of a stand it pays better than almost any other crop.
