

Goldberg

W. W. Vason

He's cured our gout and indigestion by picturing the "Foolish Questions" that idle gents are always asking; and in his genial humor basking, we can forget a while the sorrows that seem to threaten our tomorrows.

This Goldberg is so dad-blamed funny he makes all human life more sunny; when you are looking at his drawings you cease your frettings and your pawings, and just lean back and grin and chuckle, and say, "His fun is more than mortal." His wit is sure an endless bloomer, and naught can stay his flow of humor. As he maintains his pictured joking, the rich Tuxedo he is smoking. No doubt while playing his vocation, he finds in that an inspiration, like countless others, who, as winners, find "Tux" as useful as their dinners.

R. L. GOLDBERG
Creator of "Foolish Questions"
"I find in Tuxedo a good tobacco. In fragrant and flavoring fire, I use it regularly and endorse it highly to all my friends."
