Mrs. H. L. Pratt has sued H. L. Pratt for divorce in the Multnomah circuit court. She alleges that the husband has been cruel to herself and daughter, and that he has not contributed to her support, she having to build her home out of her own funds. Rev. Pratt was pastor here in the early days of the Evangelical clergy in the state of Oregon. He came here from Corvallis, and then moved to Portland. The assertion is made by the Rev. C. C. Poling that Mr. Pratt had had paralysis for several years, and that prior to that he was one of the valuable ministers in the Oregon district.

YOU'LL call it a lucky day when you find the satisfaction there is in a small chew of W-B CUT Chewing. With most chews the flavor of rich tobacco is a genuine surprise party. There's another surprise—you keep your jaws quiet and restful, for the salt brings out the flavor without so much chewing and spitting. You think it queer how so small a nibble does the trick and lasts so long—but it's rich tobacco, that's it. In 10c. pouches, at enterprising dealers.
